Brown-Munsell Rites At Cottage Grove

Miss Beverly Jean Munsell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Munsell, and Roy Marion Brown, son of Mrs. Opal Brown, all of Cottage Grove, were married at First Methodist Church of that city Saturday evening, June 21, at eight o'clock. The Rev. Frank Brown read the service.

The bride wore a gown of white brocade satin, made in princess style and with long sleeves and train. Her fingertip veil was held by a crown of seed pearls and she wore a three-strand pearl necklace, a gift from her brother. Her bridal bouquet was of gardenias, pink roses and sweet peas.

Mrs. George C. Munsell, matron of honor, wore yellow satin and net. She carried a nosegay of yellow net and pink and white roses, and similar head dress. Other attendants were Mrs. Jack Gardner and Miss Joyce Stroup. Mrs. Gardner wore baby blue net and Miss Stroup wore turquoise jersey with nosegays and headresses to match.

George C. Munsell was best man, and Doyle T. Eastburn and Floyd A. Tucker were ushers. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Rex A. Munsell. Baskets of white calla lilies, gladioli and pink snapdragons were used to decorate the church. Mrs. Norman Lewis played accompaniments for Mrs. Glenn Bricker who sang, "God Gave Me You" and "I Love You Truly."

A reception followed the ceremony. Mrs. William Brock, Mrs. Bricker, Miss Stroup, Mrs. Gardner and Miss Eastburn served.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown left on a motor trip along the coast highway and into California. Mrs. Brown wore a two-piece suit of gold with white accessories. They will live on Disston Route, Cottage Grove.

Midnight Ceremony By Light of Candle Weds Couple Here

An unusual ceremony was that in which Miss Rachel Ellen Bessonette, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold D. Bessonette of Swisshome, was married to Neil W. Howard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Omar Howard of Eugene. The young couple was married at midnight at the home of the bride's parents. They were pronounced man and wife as the clock was striking twelve, June 28, by the Rev. W. F. Dunbar of Canyonville. Only the attendants and the parents were present, and a single candle gave light for the service, which was read from a ceremony book, given to the bride's parents at their marriage.

The bride wore a gown of white satin made with round yoke and fitted bodice, long sleeves and full skirt. Her long veil was held by a bandeau with cluster of orange blossoms, and she carried a bridal bouquet of delphiniums and orange blossoms. Her sister, Miss Bernadele Bessonette, was her only attendant, wearing a gown of white organza and lace with blue sash and flowers. She had a blue bow and blue flowers in her hair and carried a candle in her hands. Mr. Bessonette gave his daughter in marriage.

Robert F. Dunbar, son of the clergyman, served as best man. The wedding party stood before an altar draped in blue velvet, which extended to form a rug for the party. The velvet drape was decked with clusters of orange blossoms and pink roses. Preceding the ceremony, Miss

Bessonette, sister of the bride, sang "O Promise Me," and "Song of the Hills."

Following the service, a wedding cake was cut and served, and Mr. and Mrs. Howard left for an extended motor trip through Oregon and California. For going away, Mrs. Howard wore a pink suit, white topcoat and matching accessories.

REPORTS SCHEDULED

WOMEN OF MOOSE will hold a card party Monday afternoon at Moose Hall. Mrs. Lea Bomark will be hostess.

An evening card party will be given Tuesday at eight o'clock, by the order, at the hall. Bridge and pinocle will be played.

BETHESDA LUTHERAN Builders will not meet this week, but are planning to have a potluck picnic in Hendricks Park, July 27.

Former Eugene Girl Weds at Prineville

A ceremony at Prineville Sunday afternoon, June 18, married Miss Nelda Ardith Taylor, formerly of Eugene and vicinity, to Wilbur Lewis Keeton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Keeton of Prineville. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Edyth Taylor of Powell Butte.

The marriage took place at First Baptist Church, the Rev. J. A. Howard officiating. The bride's uncle, C. W. McDaniel of Tualatin, gave her away.

Miss Vera Miller of Portland, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Robert Keeton, bridegroom's sister, were bridal attendants. The bride wore an afternoon dress of crepe in robin's-egg blue, with halo hat of lily of the valley and veiling. She wore a necklace of iridescent pearls and corsage of pink rosebuds.

Robert Keeton was his brother's best man, and ushers were Jack Cornett and Myron Gerke. A reception was held following the ceremony, at which the bride's aunt, Mrs. M. E. Lusk of Eugene, assisted. The couple will live at Prineville.
