

Rotary Club, Eugene
 The Rotary Club of Eugene held its regular meeting at the Hotel Eugene last night. The speaker was Mr. J. J. Rogers, 29, son of Mr. J. J. Rogers, who died in 1917. Mr. Rogers is a representative in the Oregon House of Representatives.

Stella McCormick
 Stella Irene Redford McCormick, a former resident of Lane County, died Friday in Victor, Idaho, while on a vacation trip from her home in Portland. She was born in Saginaw Aug. 20, 1896, and moved to Eugene in 1910. She attended Condon grade school and Eugene High. After attending the normal school at Monmouth she taught in Eugene's Lincoln School until 1920 when she transferred to the Portland school system. She was member of Eastern Star and the Presbyterian Church.

In June, 1922, she married Hugh G. McCormick, who survives her. Also living are her mother and step-father, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Walls of Eugene; a brother, Homer D. Redford, Long Beach, Calif.; two step-brothers, Palmer J. and Charles S. Walls, both of Eugene; a step-sister, Nellie E. Sutton; and several nieces and nephews.

Man Found Dead; Autopsy Scheduled
 William F. Kanouse, about 65, resident of Willamette Auto Court south of Eugene for the past three months, was found dead in his trailer house Monday at 7 a. m., Coroner Phil Bartholomew reported. Kanouse was found by neighbors, who said he appeared in good health Sunday evening. He lived alone.

An autopsy will be held to determine the cause of death. The body has been taken to Bartholomew-Buell Mortuary.

A veteran of World War I, he is survived by a sister, Mrs. Frances McCrory, Chicago Heights, Ill. Funeral arrangements are awaiting word from her.

Marcola Writer's Book Comes Off of Presses
 "Sharon Valley" is the title of a book by Sophia Edith Igo (Mrs. Cecil F. Hammond) of Marcola which was off the press Monday. The book, originally published in England in 1945, deals with cowboys in eastern Oregon. The heroine is a young girl who enters the region to teach school.

The author's husband said Monday that between 800 and 900 copies were sold in England, adding that the British are buying few books now due to paper and production limitations.

Valley Printing Co. of Eugene printed the book and may distribute it, Mr. Hammond said.

9 BALLS FOR A WALK
 Nine balls were required for a base on balls in 1880, as compared with the present four.

Police Spend Busy Weekend Investigating Traffic Crashes

Celebration of the pre-Pageant weekend kept city police busy Saturday night and Sunday. They investigated at least eight traffic accidents and made numerous arrests of persons charged with disorderly conduct, drunkenness and traffic violations.

No persons were reported injured within the city limits, but the following were arrested on traffic charges:

James L. George, 215 Seventh Ave. W., failure to signal;

Lawrence M. Olson, 649 Sixteenth Ave. E., reckless driving; George Skordahl, Rt. 3, failure to yield right of way;

John Ditton, 950 Chambers St., driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor and hit and run driving;

Harold R. Cratenburg, address given as Eugene Shingle Mill, driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor;

Francis John Gates, also Eugene Shingle Mill, drunk in car;

George B. Zahn, 522 Eleventh Ave. E., drunk in car;

Gene D. Bliss, Rt. 2, Springfield, reckless driving.

Truck, Car Collide
 Police said James L. George was arrested at Fifteenth Ave. and Lincoln St. Sunday evening, after his truck collided with a car driven by Jack S. Morgan, 259 Ash St.

Lawrence Olson, 33, was cited at Seventh Ave. and Blair Blvd. Saturday night on reckless driving charges after his club coupe hit a sedan operated by Glen W. Marshall, Rt. 4, George Skordahl, 20, was cited at Fifth Ave. and Jefferson St. Sunday afternoon, after a collision with a 1928 coach driven by Carla Van Horn of Marshalltown, Ia.

Near Hospital
 Harold Cratenburg and Francis John Gates were arrested in front of Eugene Hospital early Sunday morning. George B. Zahn, cited for being drunk in a car, was released on $50 bail and will appear in municipal court July 25.

Police said 20-year-old Gene Bliss of Springfield, cited on reckless driving charges, was "driving in such a manner that he overturned his car at Twelfth Ave. and Olive St. at 2 a. m. Sunday." He was released on $50 bail, to appear in court next Friday.

Allege Violations
 John Ditton, 23, was charged with hit and run and drunk driving after allegedly striking a 1941 sedan stopped at the intersection of Blair Blvd. and Sixth Ave. Police said he did not stop, but proceeded to Adams St. in a truck, where the truck hit a parked pickup.

According to investigating officers, J. C. Geiger of 541 Adams St. gave chase, making Ditton return to the scenes of the alleged accidents.

Other minor accidents which did not result in arrests or injuries included three Saturday and

Eugeneans Take Prominent Part at Antelope Conclave

Eugene and Lane county had some 35 representatives among the more than 300 who attended the 12th annual convention of the Order of Antelope at lofty Blue Sky Hotel on Hart Mountain last weekend.

The local contingent, traveling by bus and private cars, figured prominently in the affairs and the "Plungers," representing the Eugene chapter of the Barber Shop Quartets, proved extremely popular with a series of concerts both at Hart Mountain and in Lakeview Friday night before the jaunt to the home of the antelope range. Members of the quartet were Charley Sergeant, Frank Graham, Ted Wood, and Ray Marlatt.

Among the other local Antelopes were Harry Newburn, Gilfrey Blohm, Frank Scobert, John Snellstrom, Fred Brenne, A. F. Richards, Lyle Nelson, Al Cummings, Dick Strite, Merle Bailey, Dick Williams, Leo Harris, Jim Aiken, Clarence Belknap, Ben Dorris, George Helteline, G. H. Jack, Les Anderson, S. W. Little, Charles Sikes, Col. Henry Hall, Bill Tugman, Howard Merriam, Ed Turnbull, Herb Cox, Russ Fields, Her-

'Old' Dresses Still Wanted
 Mrs. Hazel Conaway, who slipped away after the costume contest Saturday night and left for Portland Monday without telling anyone where the list of winners could be found, did leave one instruction behind—

"Tell the newspaper," she said, "that our sorority, Epsilon Sigma Alpha, is still in need of period costumes dating before 1875 and after 1930, for use in the Old Settlers luncheon and style show at 12:30 p. m. next Saturday in the Eugene Hotel."

Also on the "still needed" list are several items under the general heading of "corsets." The old-fashioned, tight-laced variety, calculated to squeeze a gal's middle until she faints at the slightest raise in her blood pressure, seems to be needed in order to shoe-horn the ESA models into their grandmothers' dresses for the show.

Beverly Prouditt, a Conaway lieutenant, said Monday that all reservations for the Saturday luncheon should be turned in to Mrs. Conaway at 1027 Willamette St., phone 411, by Friday evening.
