With their batting-eyes sighted on the fences and their bats responding accordingly, the Snellstrom Braves opened the second half play of the Cascade League with an easy 12 to 3 victory over the defending champion Hills Creek Hillbillies Sunday afternoon at the Civic Stadium before a crowd of 1,200 spectators.

Paced at the plate by shortstop Wally Flager, who garnered "four for six" including a three-run homer, the Braves opened the game with six big runs in the first inning, added single tallies in the second, fourth and seventh, and scored three more in the ninth on Flager's aforementioned home run over the Gordon Hardware sign in right-field. All 12 runs were earned. While the Braves' bats were rattling out a total of 17 hits, Oscar "Red" Miller effectively scattered six 'Billie hits to notch his first win of the season against two defeats.

Wright Makes Good Throw

In the first frame, against Hills Creek starter Harold Walker, Flager started the big rally with a single to right-center and after Al Lightner had walked, "Doc" Taylor hit a Texas-leaguer just behind second base to fill the bases. "Busher" Smith hit the first offering of Walker's straight back through the box and into centerfield to drive in two runs. Vern Reynolds drew a walk to refill the bases and set the stage for Pete Taylor's double to the fence in left centerfield. After Kenny King had grounded out to Ranny Smith at shortstop, "Red" Miller drove a single over second to push Pete Taylor across with the sixth run of the inning. Don Kirsch, up for his second time in the inning, lined a single into rightfield, but Walker retired the side without further damage by getting Flager to groundout to first, unassisted.

The Hillbillies got one run back in the second inning when Dick Wright hit a home-run, his fourth of the season, over the George Myrmo sign in deep centerfield 370 feet away. The Braves added their single tally in the second when G. Smith forced "Doc" Taylor, who had opened the inning with a walk, at second. Reynolds moved Smith along with a single, and pete Taylor filled the bases with another one base hit to right. Kenny King followed with a single to centerfield to score Smith from third. On a great throw by Dick Wright and a great play at the plate by Dick Burgher, Vern Reynolds was out attempting to score from second on King's hit to end the inning.

Busher Makes Great Catch

In the last half of the third, the Hills Creek team threatened to make a game of it but a great catch by "Busher" Smith at first base on Grover Kelsey's line drive cut the rally short with only one run across the plate. Jack Fassett gained life when Al Lightner dropped his line drive in centerfield—his first error of the season. Homer Parks moved Fassett around to third and himself to second with a double to the fence in deep right-centerfield once Burgher drew a base on balls to fill the bases. Dick Wright drove Fassett home with a high fly to leftfield. It was then that Smith made a diving catch of Kelsey's ankle-high line drive to put out the fire.

In the fourth inning Vern Reynolds moved to first when he was hit by a pitched ball, advanced to third on Pete Taylor's second double of the game and scored on King's fly to rightfield. The Braves added another single tally in the seventh when Kenny King opened with a double, the fifth double of the game, and scored on Miller's second hit, a single to right-center. The Hillbillies added their final marker in the last of the eighth as Fassett led off with a single to left, and went all the way from first to score when Pete Taylor dropped Bill Burgher's line drive fly and the ball rolled to the fence. In the final frame, a walk to Miller, Kirsch's single set the stage for Flager's three-run homer to cap the days scoring.

Braves, Lumbermen Fight for First Half Title at Stadium Monday Night

It will be "all or nothing" Monday night at Civic Stadium when the Snellstrom Braves and the Miller Lumbermen shoot the works for the first-half Cascade League title. Both teams finished the season with six victories and three defeats. Game time will be 8:30 p.m. Snellstrom won the flip Sunday, and will be the home team.

Manager Al Lightner's Braves will be playing their third game in four days Monday. Lightner plans to open with Lee Fallin, who turned in a brilliant five-hit shutout against Giustina Friday night to throw the first-half race into the tie. Lightner also has Bill Hanauska ready to go in case trouble develops.

Ray Miller is expected to counter with Vince Pesky, the fireball righthander from Portland. The Lumbermen haven't played a contest since last Wednesday, so will have Bill Schubel, Cocky Brewer, and LeRoy Webb in reserve in case trouble develops.

Fallin will go into the game with two victories as against one defeat and an earned run average of 2.33 per game this season. Pesky has pitched 12 innings total in two games without entering the won and loss department either way, and has an average of 4.50 earned runs per contest.

Schubel will probably be Miller's second choice on the mound. He has the highest number of victories in the regular season, five against two losses, and an ERA of 2.11. Hanauska's average, in case he gets the opening nod, is four wins without a setback, and a 3.56 earned run average.

Both teams will present their strongest line-ups of the year Monday. The Braves will have a decided edge in the hitting department, if the statistics mean anything. Counting Sunday's second-half game, when most of the Braves boosted their averages, the Braves have knocked out 7 home-runs and 26 doubles. In one less game, Miller's has only been able to garner two home-runs, and 14 doubles, although they have stretched two hits into triples.

The leading regular for Miller's is catcher Eddie Adams with a .321 average. Bill Carney with a .306 and Bill Hamel with a .294 are the only other Lumbermen in the starting lineup with high averages. However, Lou Kotnik is clipping the ball at .455 pace, and might be shoved into the lineup by Manager Miller Monday night.

A catcher is also the leading hitter for the Braves. Woody Salmon—he has been out of the past two games with a bad shoulder—is expected to be in the line-up with his .469 mark. This includes three balls hit out of the park. Shortstop Wally Flager has been teeing off on the ball lately, and now boast a .395 batting average. Lightner failed to hit Sunday, but still is hitting .318, while Gale Smith has a .310 average, and Vern Reynolds is just below the .300 line at .294.

Statistics of this playoff game will not affect the players' season averages.

Yankees Lose Two to Tigers; Feller Beaten by Nats, 1-0

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Sunday, July 20, may well turn out to be the day when the National League pennant was won—or lost.

It was on that eventful day at Ebbets' field—where the 1946 flag race was decided—that the seven-year-old Dodger-Cardinal feud flared anew.

When the smoke had cleared Manager Eddie Dyer of St. Louis declared he was playing the game under official protest. Had the Cards won, Dyer undoubtedly would have recalled his protest, but since the Dodgers turned apparent certain defeat into a 3-2 victory with a brilliant three-run rally in the bottom half of the ninth inning, the protest took on added importance.

Dyer's protest resulted when, in the top of the ninth, Ron Northey hit the ball off the top of the wall, and claimed umpire Beans Reardon gave him the home run sign as he circled the bases. Northey slowed down and was tagged out at the plate.

The Dodgers gained a half game on the second place New York Giants, increasing their margin to three games, when the Giants split a doubleheader with the Cincinnati Reds at the Polo Grounds.

Ewell Blackwell, stingy sidearm slinger of the Reds posted his 15th consecutive victory and his 17th of the campaign in winning the opener for the Reds 4-1.

A pair of home runs by Bobby Thomson highlighted two big innings for the Giants and enabled them to win the second game 9-6.

Detroit's tenacious Tigers kept their slim pennant hopes alive by sweeping both ends of a doubleheader from the American League leading New York Yankees 4-1 and 12-11. Hal Newhouser pitched a three-hitter in the opener, and was backed by a 10-hit attack. The nightcap was a wild 11-inning affair, highlighted by seven Yank runs in the sixth inning and a Tiger rally for four runs in the ninth as Roy Cullenbine hit a three-run homer. In the 11th, a walk was followed by Hoot Evers' game-winning double.

Blasting 16 hits, Pittsburgh routed Lefty Warren Spahn and walloped the Boston Braves 9-1.

The Chicago Cubs made it 12 victories in 13 games with Philadelphia by defeating the Phils twice 4-2 and 2-1.

Bobby Feller dropped another 1-0 decision as the Cleveland Indians split with Washington at Municipal Stadium. The Indians took the nightcap 6-1.

The St. Louis Browns, with the aid of home run hitting, defeated the defending Champion Boston Red Sox twice, 4-3, and 7-6 and the Philadelphia Athletics retained their fourth place hold by earning a split with the White Sox in Chicago, winning the second game 7-4 after Chicago had won the opener 6-5.

Lewis Blanks Toledo With 3 Hits, 11-0

SPRINGFIELD, July 21 — The Eugene Junior Legion Baseball team played one of its best games of the season here Sunday afternoon, white-washing the Toledo Legion team, 11 to 0. The game has no bearing on the district playoff, as Albany has already clinched the title.

Gene Lewis held the Toledo team to three hits, and struck out 8—three in the last inning.

Melvin Jeffries hit a home-run in the first inning with one man on base. The big inning for Eugene was the sixth, when the team produced five runs on three hits. Jim Barnes with three hits in four trips to the plate, and Lewis and Dave Gilbert, each with two hits, were the leading hitters.

Eugene goes to Albany Wednesday night for its last game of the season.

Walter Garrett Scores Ace at Country Club

Walter Garrett entered golf's "hall of fame" Sunday at the Eugene Country Club course where he scored a hole-in-one on the 163-yard 14th while playing in a foursome with Max Rietman, Milo Marlatt and James Cunningham. His No. 5 iron shot landed four feet in front of the hole and rolled into the cup. It was Garrett's first golfing ace.

Kneilson Pins Ross Two Straight Falls

By BARNEY BARTHOLOMEW

Revenge was sweet for Stocky Kneilson Saturday night at the Armory where the Tennessee hillbilly overpowered Tony Ross in their return match following their grudge fight last week which the Toledo Terror won by a foul.

In the "no disqualification" bout a best two out of three falls affair Stocky led off with a haymaking right, and Tony countered with some of his own. Both grapplers exchanged a few chokes, and Kneilson added eye gouging to the roster and had Ross in a very bad way. Slamming Ross hard against the ropes and catching him on the rebound with a knee in the mid-section, Kneilson put Ross on his back for the first fall after 17 minutes.

Ross came back after the rest period all hopped up and with round-house rights, soon opened Stocky's forehead to draw first blood. A solid right cascaded Kneilson from the ring and Ross followed to bounce the big toughie with a back breaker in an attempt to keep him out of the ring. Dazed and bloody, Stocky hauled himself back into the arena at the count of ten, met the onrushing Ross and flipped him on his face, bending the Toledo boy's back into a bow, forcing him to toss in the towel after six minutes to give Kneilson the win and a possible shot at Herb Parks for the Pacific Coast Lightheavyweight title.

With hair flying, Leo Karlinko went after Jack Poppenheimer in the semi-final event and for 24 minutes the Mad Russian put the Portland wrestler through the paces with all his rough tactics, to no avail. Using the ropes and jumping on Poppenheimer's exposed throat after being warned by referee Jack Kiser, the Frankenstein-like Karlinko lost the first fall by foul.

Poppenheimer began returning some of Karlinko's rough stuff in the last six minutes and had the Russian retreating although the Portlander had two teeth pushed through his lower lip in a swinging fracas with big Leo. The fight went to Poppenheimer by virtue of the awarded fall.

In the evening's opener, Buck Davidson put Canadian Bill Murray on the mat after nine minutes to take the bout. Using some of his rough stuff, the Texas mat-man outclassed the newcomer, and with a standing and sitting surfboard he worked hard on the Canadian's arms to take the fall.

Pierre LaBelle and Jack Carter let loose a bagful of tricks in the special event which went to a draw, as they put on a show of wrestling at its best. Carter seemed to have the best of it for a while with a head-scissors on LaBelle, but the Frenchman forced the Australian to run from the ring several times to escape from trouble. Pinning each other to the mat for only short stretches of time, the two cut loose with plenty of action as they dumped each other around the ring.

Country Club Beats Bend Golfers 36-21

The Eugene Country Club golf team scored a 31-21 victory over Bend in an inter-city match at the local course Sunday. Don Leal paced the Eugene team with a four-under-par 68 and Sterling McGarvey was low for Bend with a 69. Only other sub-par round was registered by Sid Milligan, Eugene captain, who fired a 71. A return match will be played at Bend later in the season. It was the second straight local win for Eugene, having previously defeated Roseburg on the local course. The team has, however, lost to Roseburg and Salem away from home.

Salem Within One Game of WIL Lead

(By United Press)

A mere 11 percentage points separated the first three teams in the Western International League Monday, with Spokane still clinging to a slim one-half game lead.

The Indians lost a chance to boost their advantage Sunday when last-place Wenatchee copped the first game of a doubleheader. Spokane had to rally with five runs in the bottom of the ninth inning in the nightcap to nip the troublesome Chiefs, 11 to 9.

The Salem Senators drew up with one game of Spokane by defeating Yakima twice, 7 to 6 and 4 to 3.

Bud Ward Edges Champ for Title

DES MOINES, July 21—(AP)—Marvin "Bud" Ward, a game guy from Spokane, Wash., wore his third Western Amateur golf crown Monday for the simple reason he would not give up.

The stockily-built Pacific Coast player wrote a new chapter on determination in the tournament's history book with an almost unbelievable rally that dissolved a 6-down handicap into a 1-up victory over Frank Stranahan, the defending champ from Toledo, O., in a 36-hole match over the rolling hills of the Wakonda Club course Sunday.

2000 Watch

Stranahan, who beat Ward one up in 38 holes for the title last year, had Bud on the ropes for another killing—5 down at the turn of 18 holes. But Ward won four of the first five holes of the afternoon stretch and then went on to pull even for the first time on the 31st and clinched the match on the 34th.

Playing to a gallery of about 2000 that cheered his opponent all the way, out-going champion bowed to a spectacular second round in which Ward chipped in 30-footers for birdies 3s on the 19th and 22nd and one of 20 feet on the 28th.

Lower Medal Score

Stranahan's medal score 67-71—138 was one stroke better than Ward's 73-66—139 for the 36 holes.

Ward's victory marked the first time since 1929 that the Western Amateur medalist has gone on to win the crown. In that year Don Moe of Portland defeated Gilbert Carter of the University of Missouri, 1 up in 37 at Kansas City.

Brink Garners Men's Washington Crown

SEATTLE, July 21—(UP)—Jim Brink, Seattle, Monday held the men's singles crown in the 56th annual Washington State tennis championships. He defeated Pancho Gonzales, seeded No. 2, from Los Angeles Cal., 4-6, 6-4, 6-3, 6-0 in the final round Sunday.

The women's singles title went to Mrs. Gracine Wheeler Kelleher, Los Angeles, who defeated Gwenn Greenlee, Berkeley, Cal., 6-3, 6-1.

Mrs. Kelleher and Helen Pastall, Los Angeles, won the women's doubles title when they defeated Miss Greenlee and Golda Meyer Gross, Berkeley, 6-1, 6-0.

4-Run Tenth Frame Nets Junction Win

JUNCTION CITY, July 21—In a non-league game, the Junction City Reds, coholders of first place in the Northern division Linn-Lane league, was forced to go 10-innings here Sunday afternoon before defeating the Giustina B's, second-place holders of the Southern circuit, 5 to 1.

In was a pitchers battle between LeFoy Farthing of Junction, and Jim Hanns of Giustina until the tenth, when the winners bunched four hits for as many runs. Uttinger and Mortenson, each with two hits, were the leading hitters of the Reds.

Duck Vaulter Cops Top Spot

VANCOUVER, B. C., July 21 —(AP)— George Rasmussen of the University of Oregon barely missed a new Canadian pole vault record Saturday when he touched the bar with his elbow at a height of 13 feet 6 inches. The official mark is 13 feet 3⅝ inches.

Rasmussen negotiated 12 feet 11¾ inches to win the vault event at the Canadian senior men's track and field championships. Mike Scanlan, University of Washington, was second and Bill Pickens, Oregon third.

Wayne Mann of the College of Puget Sound won the high jump at 6 feet.

Jack Burke of Washington took the high hurdles in 15.4 with Rasmussen second and Harry Widener of Bremerton third.

Rainers Take Two More from Beavers

(Associated Press)

Los Angeles and Oakland, as expected, still were running one-two in the Coast League chase Monday but all eyes were focused on Seattle's Rainiers.

The surging Suds — they're named for more than that snow-capped peak, you know—made it eight wins in 10 starts with a doubleheader win over Portland Sunday in their marathon series which ends with another twin bill Monday night.

Weather Aids Vets

The surprising spree has shot Seattle from the cellar to the eminence of fourth place, 10 games back. With a team of veterans—Johnny Rucker, Bob Johnson, Lou Novikoff, Manager Jo-Jo White, et al—apparently just beginning to loosen up with the advent of hot weather, Seattle may be a factor from here on in.

Rex Cecil turned in a four-hit whitewash job to win Sunday's first game for the Rainiers, 5-0, and Johnson and Rucker hit home runs to give Dick Barrett a 5-2 margin in the finale.

Chambers Chalks Up No. 16

Los Angeles Angels had their league lead trimmed to four games, splitting with San Francisco, 4-3 and 0-2, while the Oaks two-timed Hollywood, 6-5 and 11-7. Sacramento took a pair from San Diego, 9-8 and 5-1, to maintain its fourth place tie with Seattle.

The PCL's top lefty, Cliff Chambers, registered his 16th win against five defeats for the Angels in the opener.

Good-neighbor policy party-line style
To provide telephone service to more people, there are more party lines in use these days than ever before... most telephones are busier than ever before. When you share a line with one or more parties, you'll all get the most from your telephone service if you'll remember...
Five Golden Rules for party-line neighbors
• Space your calls instead of making an extended series of them...and talk only as long as necessary.
• If yours is an emergency call, and the line is in use, explain the circumstances to the person using the line.
• If you are calling from a dial telephone, always make certain the line is clear before you dial.
• Ask your youngsters not to monopolize the telephone.
• Replace the receiver properly when you finish your call.
Thank you!
