Ex-Vancouver Man Starts Park Duties

Jim Coffel, former athletic activity director for the Vancouver, Wash., school system, took over his new duties in Eugene Wednesday as activities director for the city recreation department.
 Coffel attended the University of Illinois and was well known to sportswriters in the Chicago area as a hard-hitting 125 pound boxer before he entered the Navy.
 After separation from the service, he was with the recreation staff of the R. G. LeTourneau Co., where he managed boxing teams before taking over the Vancouver post. He was busy Wednesday with tentative plans for teen age sports during the coming school year.

Ex-Whiteaker Principal Given Post With OSC

Personnel work with students, handling admissions in the registrar's office and contacting high schools will all be combined at Oregon State College this fall under the supervision of Dallas Norton, new personnel coordinator and former superintendent of Myrtle Point schools.
 A graduate of Eastern Oregon College of Education, Professor Norton earned his B. S. and a master of education at the University of Oregon while serving as principal of Whiteaker school in Eugene in 1940-41. He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa, national scholastic honorary, and other honorary groups. His previous school experience was in Pendleton and Prineville.

Robert Royal Linden

Robert Royal Linden, 69, Cottage Grove, died Wednesday. He was born May 7, 1878 in New York City, and was a retired Army officer and a veteran of the Spanish-American War and World War I.
 A son, Joseph, Salinas, Calif. survives.
 Services will be at Mills Mortuary Thursday at 2 p. m., with the Rev. Frank Brown officiating.
 Cremation will follow in Eugene.

In 1946 the United States produced 3,089,000 motor vehicles, three times the output of the rest of the world combined.

 Hemlines are lower. "That," say the couturiers, "calls for stockings of deep tones to accent leg beauty and to perfect your fashion picture." Archer, noted for color intuition as well as quality, introduces new, deep, misty metal-tones in sheers so clear and beautiful you'll be as thrilled with them as we are. See them today!
