

Eastern Net Tourney
Quarter-Finals
SOUTH ORANGE, N. J., Aug. 7
Top-ranking stars, Ted Schroeder, Gardner Mulloy, Bill
Robert and Bob Falkenburg, were favored to turn back lower ranked players Thursday in the quarter-finals of the Eastern Circuit tennis championship.
Schroeder, who ranks second nationally behind Tiltel Jack Stuart, faced Earl Cochell of New York; Mulloy, seeded number five, squared off against Ed

Moylan of San Francisco; sixth-rated Talbert met Francisco (Pancho) Segura of Ecuador, and Falkenburg, ranked eighth, was pitted against Defending Champion Don McNeill of Verona, N. J.
Cochell gained the round-of-eight yesterday with an upset victory over favored Seymour Greenberg, of Los Angeles, 1-6, 6-4, 6-3, but the seven other quarter-finalists moved up according to form.
Schroeder, who is top-seeded in the tourney, eliminated Sidney Wood of New York with little difficulty. Segura, seeded number seven, also won in straight sets months old.

TANDBERG DUE IN OCTOBER
NEW YORK, Aug. 7.—Lew Burston, recently returned touring representative of the 20th Century Sporting Club, received a cablegram Monday advising him that Ole Tandberg, Swedish Heavyweight, would come to this country in October.
