

Officers Picked for Recreation

The City Recreation Committee met at city hall Tuesday to elect officers, choose a board of directors and select five honorary members of the organization's executive committee.

Officers elected were: Ann Cross, chairman; Robert Cross, secretary-treasurer; Miss Lovina Cross, secretary.

The board of directors included: E. H. Hawn, city council; E. H. Hawn, Eugene schools; J. B. Price, Junior Chamber of Commerce; Lew Madsen, Moose; L. B. Schmidt, Parent-Teacher Assn.; Fred Brenne, chamber of commerce; Jens Horstrup, center council; George Korn, labor council; and C. E. Stinson, CIO.

Honorary members of the executive committee are: Mayor Earl Callahan, City Manager Deane Seeley, City School Superintendent Howard Hines, Dean Lobaugh, assistant; Howard Buford, planning commission; and in January, city recreation superintendent.

The committee outlined the purposes of the organization to the 150 persons who attended the meeting. The committee meeting will be held early in September.

McKenzie Club Draws Up Plans

Members of the building committee of the McKenzie Club, enjoyed a breakfast with Mr. and Mrs. Max Sunday morning.

They drew up a plan for the building which will be presented to the members Sunday, Aug. 17, for their approval, when they will be present at the new building site at the day of work.

The building committee asks everyone to be present by 8 a.m. so that a short meeting can be held first to decide on the site for the building and the parking area. Those present at this time even cannot stay to spend the day.

Those asked to bring axes, shovels and picks to start clearing the land, women are asked to bring food for a potluck picnic and their own table service.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Warren make a three gallon freezer from milk and eggs donated by members of the club.

Each member of the building committee has been given a certificate of the building material responsible for and they will be their report Sunday on the use of these materials. Besides Mr. Crosby, who is chairman, the following members of the committee were present Sunday: Dayton-Thomson, Cecil Beyers, Charles Giddings, Henry Starn and Merrill Warren.

Reports reported in Vida and vicinity recently show that the McKenzie is still a popular vacation spot or could it be the California are coming here to make their permanent home?

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Dickson of Hollywood, an dtheir families, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Harbert, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mendemhall of Berkeley, Mr. Charles Giddings, Mrs. Charles Giddings at their "Bosch" on Gate Creek for Mr. and Mrs. Leonard of Los Angeles.

Mrs. E. V. Stivers is visiting her daughter and family, Mrs. T. R. Powers, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Powell announce the arrival of a daughter, Roberta Lee.

Miss Ruth Sutter is visiting her grandmother in California.

Miss Ursula Leopold arrived in Eugene Sunday from Washington D. C. to continue her work as secretary for Senator Morse. She will live with her aunt and uncle Mr. and Mrs. J. Hofer while here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Steinke and children of Minnesota accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hofer to the coast recently. This was Steinke's first view of the ocean.
