Total Idaho Polio Cases Reported as 74

BOISE, Ida. — (UP) — Two more poliomyelitis cases were reported Wednesday boosting the state total for the year to 74, as volunteer workers readied the state Elks convalescent home to relieve crowding of Boise hospital facilities.

The latest cases were boys—an eight months old Parma infant, and a three-year-old Boise lad. However, the number of cases under hospitalization remained at 30. Two victims were released late Tuesday—a three-year-old Nampa boy and a five-month-old Parma girl.

Playwright Decries Cultural Immaturity

DOYLESTOWN, Pa. — (UP) — American intellectual immaturity, reflected in forms of entertainment which are popular, is responsible for our lack of success in political life, according to Playwright Moss Hart.

"Because of our immaturity," Hart points out, "we become indifferent and allow many movements to get underway in our country which are contrary to our democratic way of life."

The type of movie, radio program, play or novel which interests the average American is the best indication of our lack of intellectual growth, Hart asserts.

Lane Four-H Members Chosen For Competition at State Fair

Lane County will be represented by 26 4-H expert judges, demonstrators, and contestants at the State Fair in Salem, as the result of eliminations held Tuesday at Wilson Junior High School, and announced Wednesday.

Members and teams will receive an expense-free trip to the Fair for three days and will attempt to show up other state 4-H groups with Lane County skills and organization.

Winners
Winning teams with their members are: cooking demonstration, Phyllis Colvin and Opal Johnson, Thurston; clothing demonstration, Roma Deane and Noma Jeanne Otto, Colin Kelly School; dairy foods demonstration, Margaret Walker, University High, and Marjorie Flanagan, Junction City High; camp cookery demonstration, Christine Stanley and Peggy Pynch, Latham; homemaking demonstration, Kathryn Clark and Wana Fay Sugg, London. Junior bread baking contest, Roma Deane Otto, Colin Kelly; senior bread baking contest, Audrey Gatewood, Eugene High; junior canning contest, Margaret Walker, University High; senior canning contest, Barbara Bloom, Crow High.

In the judging division the winners were: sewing, Roma Deane Otto and Noma Jeanne Otto, Colin Kelly High; homemaking, Kathryn Clark and Wana Fay Sugg, London; cooking, Margaret Walker, University High, and Marjorie Flanagan, Junction City High; canning, Maxine and Barbara Bloom, Crow.

Winners of the style revue were: Christine Domaschovsky, Junction City; informal party dress, Barbara Bloom; and best dress, Noma Jeanne Otto.

Crops judging winners were: James and Joel Pynch and Richard Buffington.

A dollar dinner contest and a serving contest were to be held Wednesday afternoon at Colin Kelly school.

Parents Urged to Get Free X-Rays at Fair

A plea to mothers and fathers and others close to small children to take advantage of the free chest X-rays to be given at the Lane County Fair went out Wednesday from the county health office.

Three cases of tuberculosis—all in small children—have occurred in this county within the last few weeks, Dr. A. Triolo, city-county health officer disclosed, and all have been directly traceable to a "carrier" close to the children. A "carrier" is one capable of infecting others with a disease he does not apparently suffer.

Triolo urged all fair-goers to take the X-rays, so that they can be informed if they are carriers. "This is the only way we can fight the disease from this source, by X-raying everyone we can reach," the health officer remarked.

Free few-minute-long X-rays will be offered to everyone at the Lane County fairgrounds, Aug. 25, 26, and 27.

CAME AT ANY AGE

GREENSBURG, Pa. — (UP) — Marital trouble knows no age. The county probation office jailed a 16-year-old husband for failing to support his wife, 15. A few days earlier, a 75-year-old husband was committed for failing to support his wife, 71.

WHAT IS AN INSURANCE AGENT?

A speaker at our Insurance Convention last week defined an insurance agent as a "Business man with professional training."

This strikes us as an excellent title for our business... because we must know a little about business procedure and AN AWFUL LOT ABOUT INSURANCE UNDERWRITING.

It takes years of intensive study to give you what you have the right to expect of insurance.
