It's Next Spring, Now, Not Last Summer, for Proud McKenzie Folks

VIDA—"Spring flowers" have also been reported at Vida. Mrs. Grant U. March says she has picked a large bouquet of bachelor buttons. Mrs. Charles Giddings says that she has primroses in bloom and has just picked her last iris. This is really unusual in this mountain community. Several times this winter the snow has been low on nearby hills. We have also had several severe frosts. We do have beautiful sunshine up here, and less fog, than some sections of the county, and of course we have the McKenzie River, so who could ask for anything more?

Mrs. Royal Carpenter Heads Chest Drive

FALL CREEK—The Community Chest drive for the Lowell-Fall Creek-Jasper District is getting underway this week.

Mrs. Royal Carpenter is chairman. Her assistants are Mrs. Alec Mathews of Jasper, Mrs. Glen Younger of Lowell, and Mrs. Dale Leslie, Mrs. Eugene Young, Mrs. Frank Kintzley, Mrs. William Glaspey and Mrs. Jack Palmer of Fall Creek.

The next meeting of Fall Creek Parent-Teachers Assn. is Dec. 9, 8 p. m. Mrs. Smith of the Lane County Health office will show films on immunization and tuberculosis. The hostesses and janitors for the evening will be Mr. and Mrs. John Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Brewer, and Mr. and Mrs. John Simmons. A cordial invitation to all.

Unexpected guests now visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Welch are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Henderson of Stockton, Calif. The Hendersons are wishing to locate in Oregon and are investigating several localities.

Grove Meetings COTTAGE GROVE — Fourth Congressional District Council of Townsdown Clubs meets in the Odd Fellows Hall, Sunday, 10 a. m., for election of officers. James Mackenzie, national representative for Oregon Townsdown Clubs will speak.

Local members will take covered dishes for a noon meal. Money derived from the dinner will go to the Cottage Grove hospital fund.

Baptist Church will conduct a "Salmon Feed" and benefit for the basketball team Tuesday evening, Dec. 9, in the church dining rooms. Ray Reed is manager of the Baptist Church basketball team.

Westminster Guild of Presbyterian Church has the Christmas party Tuesday evening, Dec. 9, at the home of Mrs. Stewart Carlson on South Second street. Members not able to attend are asked to notify the hostess by phone.

Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian Church meets in the church Wednesday, Dec. 10, at 2 p. m.
