

Goldenball Play for February

Third annual Goldenball tournament, sponsored by the Eugene Athletic Club, will be held at McArthur Court, February 2-3-4-5-6. The tournament will be held in three divisions, for school boys who have won "A" or "B" letters in basketball or are members of the varsity or "B" squads will not be eligible for the tournament, dedicated to the "forgotten lad." The senior division will be limited to boys under 17 years of age and of any weight. Juniors will be those under 16 years of age and 150 pounds; midgets under 14 years of age and 120 pounds. The age limits are as of March 1, 1948.

Plentiful Basketball Contests

For the first time since the post-war period the student body seating capacity for the Goldenball at Oregon basketball games will be plentiful. Next three home games will be at the University of Oregon gymnasium.

Entries are now open and will close January 12. Drawings for opponents will be held January 15 and will be published in the Register-Guard January 18.

Admission prices for the single-elimination tournament will be nominal. Best references available will be used for the event and all tournament officials, scorers and timers, will be accredited.

Lowell Trips Pleasant Hill, 44-32 to Retain 'B' Lead

Coburg Edges Crow, 39-38

Lorane Winner In Overtime, 35-32

The Lowell Red-Devils took another lap on the field in Friday night "B" League basketball contests by soundly whipping the defending champion Pleasant Hill Hillbillies in a game played at Lowell. The Red-Devils, runner ups last year for the county crown, had a lead all the way and as the game progressed their superiority became more apparent.

In other games reported Coburg edged past a fighting Crow team 39-38 in a Western League clash. And Lorane beat Triangle Lake 35-32.

The Red Devils rolled to a 13-9 quarter bulge and from then on enjoyed a fairly safe margin. Halftime favored Jack Mitchell's hoopsters, 21-15. By the third quarter it had increased to 34-23. Dale Brown played a beautiful floor game for Lowell besides potting 11 points, one less than Teammate Hal Cox. Bill Hathaway, Lowell center collected 10.

Coburg had to scrap all the way in their game with Crow, especially in the last half. Halftime favored the Broncos 22-14. By the third quarter the score was knotted at 31-all. Wilson of Crow was high with 16 followed by Oatman of Coburg with 13.

The Lorane Tigers had a scare thrown in 'em at Triangle Lake before they finally edged the Treetoppers 35-32 in two overtimes.

Leading 23-9 at halftime the Tigers found the score knotted at 29-29 at the end of the regular game. The first overtime failed to see a point but in the second one the Tigers found the hemp to win by three points.

These Ducks Found Flying Weather Bad

BUFFALO, N. Y., Dec. 20—Bad flying weather which grounded a plane carrying the University of Oregon basketball squad Saturday night resulted in cancellation of a scheduled encounter between the West Coast team and Niagara University.

Dr. James H. Crowdie, director of collegiate double-header basketball at Buffalo's Memorial Auditorium, announced the cancellation after a chartered plane carrying the Oregon squad was downed at Cleveland.

The second game on Saturday night's twin-bill, a meeting between Canisius University and Washington State, was played as scheduled.

NCAA Bureau Notes Outstanding Feats

By GAIL FOWLER
NEW YORK, Dec. 20—The National Collegiate Athletic Bureau, in announcing the 1947 football season's single-game highs and lows in individual and team performance, disclosed Saturday that five different players performed the rare feat of accounting for 300 yards or more in an afternoon.

The greatest one-day passing and rushing output was registered by Bobby Gage of Clemson, who totaled 374 yards against Auburn. He carried the ball 18 times for 141 yards and passed for 233 more yards in his 43 plays.

Fred Enke Jr., of Arizona, the nation's 1947 total offense champion, gained 364 yards in the same number of plays while his team was losing to Orange-Bowl bound Kansas.

High aerial total of 308 yards in a single game was amassed by Del Russell of Indiana, who netted 325 yards against Marquette. Enke, who passed for 295 of his 364 yards against Kansas, ranked second.

All-America Bob Chappuis of Michigan's Rose Bowlers, got 307 yards against Ohio State and Stan Bloomer of Fordham got the same number against New York University.

Nobody hit the 300-yard bracket during the 1946 season. Charley Conerly of Mississippi who holds the pass completion mark of 133 in a season, shared honors for most completions in a single game with Dick Working of Washington & Lee, getting 20 out of 32 against Chattanooga. Working completed 20 out of 35—highest number of attempts for the season—against Army.

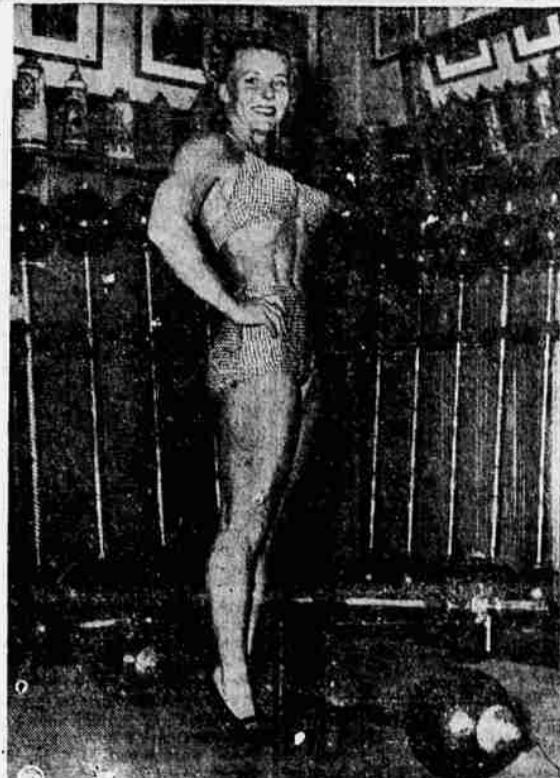

Best day without a miss was turned in by Lynn Dorset of Cornell, who got 10 for 10 and three touchdowns in upsetting Princeton.

Other individual single-game performances:
Longest pass play—99 yards by Owens and Jack Ford, Portland University, against St. Mary's.

Team single game performances:
Forward Passing—Owens to Jack Ford, Portland, vs. St. Mary's, 99 yards; Bob Dean to Norm Dawson, Cornell, vs. Navy, 98.

Country Club Election Booked for January 12

The annual meeting and election of officers of the Eugene Country Club will be held at the clubhouse the night of January 12, according to President Arch Lewis. Officers to be named include president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer, one two-year board member and two three-year members. Two nominating committees have been named: 1. Chairman M. G. Howard, A. C. Dixon and Al Fries; 2. Chairman K. C. McIntosh, F. N. Manville and George Schaefer.

BAR BELLE—Mrs. Abby Stockton of New York attributes her curvaceous figure to weight-lifting. Known as the Queen of the Bar Belles, Mrs. Stockton weighed 146 pounds in her teens, was nicknamed Pudgy. She's still called Pudgy, but only out of habit.

Tributes Come Easy to Big Jake and Riggs—Outwardly

By OSCAR FRALEY
NEW YORK, Dec. 20—Cocky little Bobby Riggs and Big Jake Kramer were giving each other a terrific buildup Saturday preparatory to knocking out each others brains with a pair of tennis rackets.

They'll go at it in Madison Square Garden on Dec. 26 in opening a cross country professional tour which will take them to 60 cities within four and a half months. Australian Dinky Pails and Ecuadorian Francisco "Pancho" Segura will go along as high priced window dressing.

But the two big guys are Riggs, the National Professional Champion, and Amateur Champion Kramer, who has had enough of silver plate and now goes after the stuff to put on them. Both are extremely jealous of their reputations and it should develop into quite a cozy jaunt.

Currently they look like the best of friends and publicly regard each other as the greatest thing since the invention of catgut. Privately each rates the other number two man. Riggs, the smoothest speaker by what little virtue there is in experience, puts it over better.

"I'm looking forward to the battle of my life," dark-haired Bobby insisted in his squeaky voice. "And I might say I'm as anxious as anybody possibly could be to know how our matches will come out."

The little guy with the crew haircut and the wide smile then built Kramer up as the hottest item since the fuzzy ball.

"Don Budge is great but at present Kramer is even better," he insisted, without a smile. "Kramer has a better service and a better overhand game. I had trouble with Budge for over two years and, looking at the cold statistics that way, I don't know where I'll come out."

Riggs contended that he doesn't hold with the theory that Big Jake of the ferocious forehead is another Elsie Vines who blows the opposition off the court.

"Kramer isn't just a slambang player like Vines," he insisted. "He has controlled speed and is calculating and cool. I wouldn't

Joe Through Says Dempsey

NORTH HOLLYWOOD, Dec. 20—Take it from Jack Dempsey, who went through it all himself—"Joe Louis is through; he'll never be great again."

Louis is going through the same thing Dempsey did in 1926 and 1927, the former heavyweight champion said Saturday in an interview.

"He's lost his coordination and ring-thinking ability," said Dempsey. "Once they're gone, they're gone forever."

Dempsey did not see the Louis-Joe Walcott fight, but expressed the opinion after viewing films and talking with friends who witnessed the bout.

The ex-champion harked back to his fights with Tunney for comparison. Dempsey was 32 when he last fought Tunney. Louis is 33.

Several Coaches Being Considered For Husky Job
SEATTLE, Dec. 20—Athletic Director Harvey Cassill returned from the Middle West Saturday without a new University of Washington football coach's name on the dotted line, but said he was optimistic over having one before January 1.

He went eastward only as far as Chicago in his quest for a successor to Ralph "Fest" Welch.

Cassill said he had interviewed a number of coaches, and came back to Seattle for Christmas and to work out answers to specific questions some of the prospects asked. He said he would go eastward again, via California, immediately after Christmas, and expected to sign a new coach before returning.

He declined to disclose the identities of any of the prospects he interviewed, but said, "I made good progress."
