

Vows Exchanged Before Fireplace In Home Wedding

The parsonage of First Baptist Church was the scene of a pretty wedding when Miss Donna Handley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Handley, was married to Richard W. Ingwersen, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Ingwersen of Geneva, Nebr. Dr. Vance Webster performed the ceremony at eight-thirty o'clock, on the evening of November 28.

Miss Handley wore a street-length dress of soft white wool, trimmed with gold, and white accessories. She carried a white Bible, topped with a bridal bouquet of carnations centered with an orchid. Miss Patricia Isaacson was the bride's only attendant. She wore a blue dress with gardenia bouquet.

Clarence F. Easton of Springfield acted as best man. Mr. Handley gave his daughter in marriage. The bridal party stood in front of fireplace, with baskets of white chrysanthemums and candelabra on either side. Mrs. Webster sang "Because," accompanied by Miss Betty Morris at the piano. Miss Morris also played "Always" and the wedding marches.

A reception was given at the home of the bride's parents. The bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Arnie Peters, and Mrs. R. R. Handley, sister-in-law of the bride, served.

For going away, Mrs. Ingwersen wore a suit of royal blue gabardine with white accessories, a five-strand pearl necklace, gift from the bridegroom, a topcoat of grey and the orchid from her bouquet. Following a honeymoon trip to Salem and Portland, the couple has returned and now is living at 565 Oak Street.

November Rites Wed Walton Girl

Miss Geneva Surcamp, daughter of Mr. Emma Surcamp of Walton, was married to John E. Hardcastle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hardcastle of Eugene, in the annex of First Christian Church, at nine o'clock in the evening of November 14, by the Rev. James H. Cornett.

Miss Surcamp wore a street-length dress of peach color, with brown hat. Her corsage was of three small green orchids. Miss Letha Surcamp, sister of the bride wore an aqua dress with corsage of pink carnations.

Walter J. Hardcastle, brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man. Arthur Henderson ushered. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Ivan Surcamp. Large baskets of white chrysanthemums with candelabra were used in decorating the church.

Music for the wedding was provided by Miss Elizabeth Hardcastle who played a violin solo, "Always," and Arthur Henderson who sang "Because."

Mr. and Mrs. Hardcastle visited Portland and Vancouver on their wedding trip. They are now living at 1032 Third Avenue West.

BRIDE-ELECT HONORED AT RECENT SHOWER Pleasant Hill — Miss Ella Mae Papefus was honored at a bridal shower, given entirely by Mrs. Alvin Olsen and Mrs. Anna Olsen. The home was adorned by white streamers leading to a large wedding cake which was topped with a bride and groom. Miss Papefus was told to ring a bell and when she did, a rhyme was disclosed hinting where the presents could be found. Favors were for all brides. Thirty-three friends attended the party.

Miss Ross Wedded To Eugene Man In Florence Ceremony

FLORENCE—The wedding of Miss Etta Marie Ross, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ross of Florence, to Kenneth Vingelen, son of Mrs. Anna Vingelen of Eugene, occurred Friday evening December 12. The candlelight ceremony was solemnized at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Ross. The double-ring ceremony was read by the Rev. Glen A. Holman, pastor of the Florence Christian church at seven-thirty. The party stood before a fireplace decorated with baskets of pink and white chrysanthemums at either side. Seasonal sprays were on the mantel.

The wedding march was played by Mrs. N. J. Thompson, who also accompanied Mrs. Harold Martin as she sang "Until" and "At Dawning."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white brocaded satin, fashioned with a sweetheart neckline and long sleeves, with a full skirt and train. Her fingertip veil was held in place by seed pearls. She carried a white Bible and orchid.

Mrs. Charles Hester, cousin of the bride was matron of honor. She wore a blue lace and marquisette gown and carried a corsage of pink carnations.

David Thompson was best man or Mr. Vingelen. Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Anna Vingelen and Mrs. Marie Perry of Eugene and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hayes and Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Ross of Junction City.

At the reception which followed the ceremony, wedding cake was served by sisters of the bride, Mrs. William Phillips and Mrs. D. C. Thompson, and Mrs. Marie Perry, sister of the bridegroom.

The young couple left for a trip to the coast, and are now at home at Mapleton.
