Quota Has Party To Raise Moneys For Service Work

Ways and Means committee of Eugene Quota Club staged its annual "January Clearance" party Monday evening, at a potluck dinner in the auditorium of the YMCA-YWCA Community Center. Members of the committee furnished baked ham and hot-breads, and those attending brought other contributions, but paid the treasury for the meal. Guests were introduced during a brief session conducted by the president, Miss Mardelle Edwards. Mrs. Ralph Laird was introduced as program chairman.

A Barber Shop quartet, known as "The Plungers," and comprised of Ray Marlatt, Frank Graham, Ted Wood and Bob Hirt, sang several selections for the group.

Following the dinner, there was an auction, a bazaar sale and several money-raising games were played. More than a hundred dollars was realized during the evening for the club's service projects.

Assisting Mrs. Laird on the committee were Mrs. Lillian Morston, Mrs. J. A. Cleaves, Mrs. Ray C. Smith, Miss Thelma Schaefer, Mrs. J. W. Brown, and Mrs. Hugh Wiley.
