Yacht Club Names New Officers

Eugene Yacht Club held election of officers at a business meeting Tuesday evening, at the Eugene Hotel. Officers chosen for the year are: Commodore, Eltes Moos; vice commodore, Edward L. Bennett; rear commodore, George Gazeley; secretary-treasurer, Victor Walder; trustees, Edward Ordway and Walter LaDusire.

Installation will take place at the meeting February 16. This will be a week earlier than usually held in the month, in order not to conflict with Washington's Birthday activities.

Work parties are being held each Sunday at Fern Ridge Lake, to get ready the Sea Scout base, which the club uses, for summer sailing. Members were urged to turn out and give assistance.

Theta Rho Girls Have Installation

Miss Louise Weber was installing officer when newly-elected officers for Theta Rho Girls were installed recently. Assisting her were Miss Jackie Small, marshal; Miss Loraine Seaburg, chaplain; and Mrs. Carl Lund, musician.

New officers for the group are, Miss Lois Driscoll, president; Miss Gwen Lounsbury, vice-president; Miss Patty Miller, secretary; Miss Claudia Winter, treasurer; Miss Sally Dagman, chaplain; Miss Barbara Lutz, warden; Miss Roberta Parmenter, marshal; Miss Marylon Stem, conductor; Miss Kay Cozeman, right supporter to the president; Miss Louise Weber, left supporter to the president; Miss Donna Burns, right supporter to the vice-president; Miss Dorothy Wells, left supporter to the vice-president; Miss Vera Dagman, guardian; and Miss Mary Helen Wildish, past president.

Officers were installed at a recent meeting of the order, Mrs. Jay Kuni serving as installing officer and Mrs. H. H. Peters as ceremonial marshal. The escort team putting on the work was composed of Mrs. Ernest Hobart, Mrs. Howard Fenner, Mrs. Frank Moody, Mrs. Ethel Davis, Mrs. Dan McCugh and Mrs. H. M. Lawrensen.

Dance Is Slated By College Crest Community Club

College Crest Community Club will have its first dance of the year Thursday evening. Activities of the evening will begin with a pot luck dinner at the clubhouse dining room at six-thirty o'clock. Dancing in the ballroom will follow.

Residents of the College Crest district are cordially invited, together with their friends, to bring a dinner dish and attend the dance.

Sisters Entertain At Sunday Recital

The first of a series of "candlelight concert hour" informal musicals by students of Hayden Music Studios was given Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Hayden by Ann Haraden, violinist, and Lois Haraden, pianist.

The young musicians, who had made up their own guest list, entertained their listeners with an hour of music by candlelight. Following the recital, guests were served tea.

The performers are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Haraden. Both are students at the Warren School.

'Smarty Party' Held Saturday on Campus

Smart freshmen women, who averaged three points or better in their grades for fall term, were honored at a party Saturday by Mortar Board, senior women's honorary. The annual "smarty party" was held in Gerlinger Hall.

Eugene women who received invitations to the "exclusive" affair were: Misses Donna Babb, Jacqueline Barbee, Margaret Bates, Eleanor Brownhill, Clara-Jane Browning, Dorothy Jean Christensen, Helen Marie Collins, Elizabeth Ebbert, Jane Edgeworth, Nancy Lee Gaveney, Joyce Ione Good, Patsy Ruth Kellogg, Arlette R. Morrison, Mary Lou Sorenson, Virginia Sparks, Sarah Stroope, and Louise Weber.

GUEST AT HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Hayden, Sr., have as their house guest Miss Patricia Glasscock, of San Leandro, Calif. Miss Glasscock is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Simpson Garfield Glasscock, formerly of Portland and Seattle, who, since Mr. Glasscock's recent retirement from the United States Navy, make their home in California.

SORORITY HONORS ENGAGED GIRL

A shower honoring Miss Betty Huber, engaged member, was given at the recent session of Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority, held at the home of Mrs. Keith Proudft, 1359 Pearl Street. Miscellaneous gifts were presented by the twenty-one members who were present.

VISITOR EXPECTED BY LOCAL GROUP

Mrs. Paul K. French, grand alumnae secretary of Kappa Alpha Theta, will visit the local chapter of the organization Thursday and Friday of this week.

Mrs. French, whose home is in Burlington, Vt., is on her way to San Jose, Calif., to direct the installation of the seventy-first chapter of Kappa Alpha Theta at San Jose State College.

Mrs. French, besides being alumnae secretary, is head of the committee of relief and rehabilitation work carried on by the sorority.

CARD SCORES ARE ANNOUNCED

Scoring high in bridge at the Women of the Moose Card Party Monday afternoon was Mrs. H. F. Garrett.

Pinochle high was held by Mrs. J. T. Jaeg and low by Mrs. Retta Sylvers. Mrs. V. D. Bank was low in bridge.

POTLUCK DINNER SCHEDULED BY CLUB

Kansas Club will have pot luck dinner Thursday evening at six-thirty o'clock. The dinner will be in the Community Center, 1070 Willamette Street. A short program will follow. Former Kansas people are invited.
