

Seven-Hour Program To Aid Dimes Drive

(See Page 1 Story Also)

Staff members at Radio Station KORE, who have lined up speakers and musical talent for a special seven-hour March of Dimes broadcast, Thursday listed the persons who will participate. The broadcast will begin at 6:30 p. m. Saturday, and listeners will be urged to make telephone pledges to the anti-polio drive. Mayor Earl McNutt and City Manager Deane Seeger will open the program, which will be similar to that conducted by the station last year. Others on the program will include Mrs. Virgil Parker, III, playing piano, and Lucille Olson, contralto; Dr. R. M. Overstreet, speaking on polio; Eugene High School string ensemble, students from the Stage Door Studio, the Philharmonic Trio, now filling a night club engagement here; students from White Dance Studio, Mrs. Dorothy French, contralto; students from University of Oregon radio classes; Eugene's Barber Shop Quartet; a murder mystery by KORE staff members; University High School students presenting a short operetta, Virginia Burt, piano solo; Eugene High School Band, a radio drama directed by Marvin Krenk and Horace Robinson. Georgene Shanklin and others from the university school of music.
