

IOOF Dinner At Creswell

CRESWELL—A potluck supper at 7 p. m. will precede the business meeting of the Odd Fellows Wednesday, February 4. Families and Rebekahs and their families are invited.

Rebekahs welcomed Mrs. Leonard Young by transfer from the Mapleton lodge at the meeting Wednesday evening. One application for membership by initiation was presented.

The district convention in Eugene, Tuesday, Feb. 17 was announced. The local lodge will supply a skit for the program.

The auditing committee reported the books in fine shape. Mrs. Fred Trumby and Mrs. J. R. Miller were appointed on the serving committee for the Feb. 11 meeting. Mrs. L. A. Whitney will care for the scrap book for this year and Mrs. A. V. Graves, Mrs. Earl Greenwood will serve on the finance committee. The degree staff work for the year will be done by the F. L. members.

Cemetery Officers
H. A. Howe was reelected director at a meeting of the Creswell Cemetery Assn. at the city hall Wednesday afternoon. C. Scarbrough and R. C. Parsons were also elected directors.

A discussion was held relative to clearing a tract west of the cemetery owned by the association. Assessments may have to be levied to care for this improvement also for repairing the road leading to the cemetery. The minimum of $5 was voted for the sale of each grave lot.

Mrs. Miles Quinn, Mrs. J. F. Budd and Mrs. Paul Manning will present the program at Mothers Club, at the grade school Friday, Feb. 8 at 2:30 p. m. Mrs. C. Scarbrough, Mrs. O. H. Smith and Mrs. E. E. Allen are on the serving committee.

The Sisterhood of the Christian Church meets Wednesday, Feb. 4 with Mrs. Ronald Osborn in Eugene. Mrs. Roy Henry and Mrs. A. L. Schwartz, in charge. Cars will leave the church at 1 p. m.

Presbyterian Aid Society meets Wednesday, Feb. 4 with Mrs. K. C. Schwering with Mrs. Lillie Schwering assisting.

The Dorcas Circle of the Methodist Church will be entertained Wednesday, Feb. 4 at the home of Mrs. A. C. Adams at Goshen. Cars will leave down town at 1:30 p. m. Members are to bring needles and thread for work. Assisting are Mrs. C. H. Atwood and Miss Myrtle Smith.

Bailey Hill P-TA

BAILEY HILL—Mrs. Ralph C. Crow of the League of Women Voters will speak on "Citizens' Responsibilities" at Bailey Hill Parent Teacher Assn. Feb. 3, 8 p. m., at the school house. Mrs. John Stearns will also speak, her topic being "Founder's Day."

A social hour will follow the program. All parents are invited.

Mrs. Carl R. Pfeiffer, Route 3, is the local representative for Eugene Register-Guard. An invitation is extended to everyone in the community to send her news and news tips. Mrs. Pfeiffer lives on West 18th Ave., a quarter mile east of the Bailey Hill road. Her phone is 71-P-12.

Finn Rock Folks Have Recovered from Fire

VIDA—Finn Rock postoffice and store will be open for business the end of this week. The former building was completely destroyed by fire in November. The new building built on the same site has many improvements over the former building. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Christian are proprietors of the store, and Mrs. Christian is postmaster, and Register-Guard correspondent for Finn Rock.

CRESWELL PERSONALS
CRESWELL—Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Alberson went to Burns Wednesday for medical consultation for Alberson who has been ill for some time.

Members of the Christian Church spent all of Wednesday and most of the evening at work at the church. The entire interior of the auditorium is being redecorated.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Jorgensen of North Loop, Neb., and Mrs. Ida Smith of Portland, are visiting Mrs. Minnie Henriksen, sister of Mrs. Jorgensen and Mrs. Smith.

A son, Mark Kevin, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Jackson Sunday, Jan. 18, at the Sacred Heart Hospital in Eugene. Mrs. Jackson and baby are with her parents near Eugene for a few days.

Leon Woods of Springfield has bought the house and two lots on A Street formerly occupied by Mrs. Eva Shelton and has taken possession.

More Freight Cars

WASHINGTON—Mr. Secretary of Commerce W. Averell Harriman announced Friday that the Commerce Department, the steel industry and the railroad freight car manufacturers have reached an agreement under the voluntary allocation program for production of 10,000 freight cars a month.

SUN-POWERED RADIOS

NEW YORK—(AP)—Pocket radio sets powered by the sun were among the developments predicted by Frank Stanton, president of Columbia Broadcasting System, Stanton, in a radio address, also predicted that pocket-sized radio transmitters, facsimile newspapers in color and world-wide color television would be in use within 25 years.

Alvadore Kids Plan Carnival

ALVADORE—Grade school carnival will be Feb. 5 at the Community all. Tickets are now on sale for the king and queen. Competitors are Nancy Foster and Gail Berger, primary room; Joe Schanno and Viola Strange, intermediate room and La May Schanno and Conrad Snow, upper grade room.

Mrs. Dan Fuller and Mrs. Carl Stapleton were in Eugene Tuesday buying prizes.

Lost Creek H E

DEXTER—Lost Creek Valley Home Extension Unit meeting for February is Tuesday, Feb. 3 at the home of Mrs. Curtis Parker at 10. The topic "Pruning of Ornamental Shrubs and Trees" will be given by Project Leaders Mrs. Ass Tilton and Mrs. Curtis Parker. There will be a Valentine party in the afternoon.

A planned luncheon will be served at noon. All women of the community are invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Whitney and children, Guy Whitney and George Stone have purchased a ranch one and one-half miles from Sisters on the Redmond Highway. They took possession over the weekend.

Oakridge Acquires New Laundry Firm

OAKRIDGE—Oakridge now boasts a new and modern self-service and commercial laundry, which opened Monday. The plant is located on Highway 58 and is housed in a pumice block structure which was recently completed. Roland Clark and Ernest Jones, local contractors were in charge of construction. Completion of the building is planned for spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Robinson have moved here from Gary, Indiana to establish and operate the business. Mrs. Lola Schaffers is an associate. Self service equipment includes washers and dryers that toss and fluff the clothing. Special services include a pick up of dry cleaning and a drying service for clothes laundered at home.

AT BELLFOUNTAIN
BELLFOUNTAIN—The school budget for the Bellfountain School District Number 23 of Benton County was unanimously adopted Monday evening at the special budget meeting. Very few remembered the date, and the attendance was small. They also voted to sell the Green Peak school house and acreage to Earl Stratton of that area.

The Bellfountain community was saddened Sunday by the car accident on Pacific Highway 99W which took the life of one of our local young people, Inez Bain Redmond, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Bain.

Mrs. Redmond and her husband, Ray Redmond, resided in Corvallis, but both were former Bellfountain residents and attended the Bellfountain School. Besides her husband, Mrs. Redmond is survived by a daughter, Nancy Kaye, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Bain, two brothers, Donald Bain of Toledo and Darrel Bain of Portland, one sister, Mrs. Garth Rickard of Bellfountain, and her grandmother, Mrs. Jacqueline Bain of Philomath.

Interment is in the Oaklawn Cemetery near Corvallis.

Mr. and Mrs. Laverne D. Heford and family wish to thank their many friends and acquaintances in this community for their quick response to their call for help, and their efficient work in extinguishing the fire which threatened their home recently.

Mrs. Alma Meyers is rejoicing in the erection of a small house to replace her home, which was completely destroyed by fire. The Odd Fellows Lodge of Alpine, the Perin-Edwards Post of the American Legion, at Monroe, and other local people immediately came to the rescue, building the one-room house and supplying furniture and equipment for it, including a piece of linoleum for the floor. Mrs. Meyers reports that she is well supplied, and is truly grateful to her friends in this area.

PERSONALS
Mrs. Ernest H. (Buddy) Smith, the former Donna Mabel Larkin, will be the honoree at a miscellaneous bridal shower Thursday afternoon, Feb. 5, at the Bellfountain Community Hall. This shower is sponsored by the Bellfountain Woman's Club and all friends of the young couple are invited. Young Smith is an ex-service man from the South Pacific area.

Mrs. Serel Roberts (the former Delores Martin) was honored with a pink and blue shower, recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Larkin. Approximately 18 matrons were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Bain of Portland are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Bain. They were called home by the accidental death of Mr. Bain's sister, Inez Bain Redmond. Donald Bain of Toledo is also at the parental home.

Harvey Wallace, who has been ill with flu and later rheumatic fever, is much improved, and will be back at work soon, it is reported.

Miss Amy Hinton is staying at the home of her brother, Ivan Hinton, while recovering from a recent illness and sprained knee. The Ralph Malcom family are much improved after an extended illness at their home in the Dawson area, and will soon be back in school.

Honduras has about the same areas as Pennsylvania.

At Harrisburg

HARRISBURG—The farmers of this community are taking advantage of the dry weather by ploughing their fields.

The lambing season is coming along fine with reports of a very good percentage.

The freezing weather has done no damage to the grain according to a report of several farmers.

Robins are hopping everywhere. Daffodils, tulips are up. Looks like spring is just around the corner.

Rex Talent left Tuesday night for Venezuela, S. A. where he has employment with the Consolidated Oil Co. as a welder. He plans on working there for a year.

Mrs. Ada Jennings has been hired as assistant cook at the Harrisburg grade school lunch room to take Mrs. Robert Green's place.

The "March of Dimes" benefit basketball games were well attended Tuesday at the gym. The local American Legion team was defeated by Monroe team, 40-38.

The Harrisburg High School was defeated by the "B" team of Albany High School, 60-40.

The girls and boys chorus of the grade school each rendered two numbers.

Gross proceeds of the games were $75.50.

The following teachers from Harrisburg are attending the art classes at the Junction City Grade School: Mrs. Bessie Tweed, Mrs. Alvina Stacey, Miss Donna Williams, Mrs. Bessie Bierly and Albert Miller.

Charles John Rexroad, a grandson of Mrs. C. A. Rexroad of Harrisburg, is one of the hundred Sea Scouts on the ship, "The Golden Bear" that sailed from San Francisco with canned milk from California to France, Italy and Greece recently. His home is Vallejo, Calif.

The leadership training school which was held at the Christian Church for six sessions, closed Monday night. The enrollment during this period was 88 with members from Peoria; Halsey; Franklin; Junction City; Brownsville, and Harrisburg participating.

Mrs. William Siefke was dean and the faculty consisted of Dr. Ross Griffith; Prof. Richardson, and Mrs. R. E. Mosher teachers in the Northern Christian College at Eugene.

Plans are being made to have a similar school next year at Junction City secretary and treasurer. After the Monday evening session the Blehms entertained the faculty in their home.

Willakenzie H E

WILLAKENZIE—Home Extension Unit meets Tuesday, Feb. 3, 10:30 a. m. at the grange hall.

Subject, to be given by Mrs. Beth Wiley—Lane County home demonstration agent, will be "Care and knowledge of newer materials for various uses."

Mrs. Zenal Lamb, Mrs. Louie Meyer and Mrs. David Shell will be in charge for the noon luncheon.

Special business is to be taken up at this meeting pertaining to achievement day and program planning day.

A 15 minute feature on flower arrangements or corsage making will be given by Mrs. Harris Hurd and Mrs. Cleo Cross.

All women of the community are cordially invited.

Lowell Woman Asks Assistance in Search For Valuable Billfold

LOWELL—A generous reward is being offered by Mrs. Delbert (Audrey) King to the finder of her billfold which was lost presumably at Dexter or between Eugene and Lowell, last Saturday. It contained money, social security cards, and valuable papers.

Thurston Folks Hear School Merge Speaker

THURSTON—E. L. Silke, superintendent of Springfield schools, will speak on the proposed consolidation of Thurston and Springfield grade schools, Monday, Feb. 2, at the Thurston Grade School, 8 p. m. He will answer questions from the audience.

Voting on the consolidation is slated for Thursday, Feb. 5.

AT MARCOLA

MARCOLA—The Junior Mother's club met with Mrs. Preston Gates, roll call being answered with one's favorite book. Mrs. Franklin Diehn read a letter of thanks and specific needs from the Polish family adopted by the club. Prizes went to Mrs. Dallas Gard, Mrs. Berry Mauney and Mrs. Diehn. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Orville Ruthven, each member being asked to bring an original Valentine.

A young married people's Bible class has been started at the Christian church with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hann as teachers.

The first meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Butler, Wednesday evening, February 4 from 7 to 8 p. m. Everyone is welcome.

The Marcola Water Board has installed a relief pump on the Oscar Page place.

Mrs. Luella Koons has returned from an extended visit to Canada and is back at work at Hopkins Cafe.

AT ALVADORE

ALVADORE—Mr. and Mrs. H. Drew received first prize as "baby picture guessers" at the Thursday Club's recent "Husbands' Dinner." More than 60 attended.

Kenneth Eagan has purchased the Mrs. Elia Howe house and will move it to the Fred Eagan ranch in North Alvadore.

Lower-McKenzie Towns Unite to Give Dance For Basketball Team

CEDAR FLAT—The Cedar Flat Service Station and Jake's Grocery of Waltherville are co-sponsors for a basketball benefit dance, Saturday evening at the Waltherville Hall, 9 p. m.

Money collected will go to the inter-community basketball team, in which Cedar Flat, Mt. Vernon, Thurston, Waltherville and Deerhorn and Leaburg share.

Carroll Landsberry's orchestra will play. Refreshments will be sold. Citizens of all the communities involved are invited.

Bethel Revamps Kids' Canteen

BETHEL—A Canteen Board has been appointed to manage future Bethel-Danebo Canteens: Charles Goodin, chairman; Janet Olsen, Sue Shreeve, Faye Isaacson, Shirley Petersen, Barbara Putman, Dick Stadler, Glen Athey, Ray Nepton, Skip Traynor and Richard Sorenson.

The board met Thursday and made the following decisions: Admission will be 10c. A canteen will be held every two weeks in the Bethel gym from 7:30 to 10 p. m.

The next canteen will be Saturday, Feb. 7. The board wishes to extend thanks to Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Olsen and Mr. and Mrs. D. Wolfe for acting as chaperones this last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Nicholson, owners of the Eugene Motel, have started construction of ten more sleeping units in back of their present cabins. They will not be ready for occupancy for a few months, however.

Chester Churchill left Thursday for San Francisco where he entered the Southern Pacific Hospital.

Mrs. L. J. Devine returned this week from the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Tasche of Portland are here visiting their daughter, Mrs. Ed Butler and family.

Merge-Meeting at Leaburg Monday

LEABURG—There will be a meeting Monday, Feb. 2, 8 p. m. at the Leaburg schoolhouse for discussion, and unofficial poll to determine whether to proceed with election for consolidation. Also discussion for disposal of school property if vote carries.

There will be a special meeting for Community Club Monday evening to decide on educational pictures for the children, and to have pictures shown in the gym.

Card of Thanks

SANTA CLARA—Mr. and Mrs. Earl Felton and family, (also the Santa Clara community), wish to thank our Red Cross chapter for the quick response in giving us aid in so many ways, when we lost all we had by fire Sunday morning, Jan. 18.

OAKLAND DINNER

OAKLAND—A dinner will be given at the Parish Hall, Feb. 2 for benefit of the March of Dimes.

At a recent meeting of the Parish Society officers were elected: president, Mrs. Hazel Clark; vice-president, Ann Manning; secretary, Mrs. Mary Lee; treasurer, Mrs. Ruth Stearns; chairman of standing committee, Mrs. Harry Mahoney.

Mrs. Buxton has about completed the apartments in the Stearns house on the highway south. It is being made into six apartments. Five have been completed and are occupied.

AT THORNTON CORNERS

THORNTON CORNERS—Mrs. Frank Gleran entertained at her home Tuesday with a bridge party. Mrs. Katie Burrows has sold her property here to Fred Knekerbocker of Cottage Grove and has gone to Palm Springs, Calif. for the remainder of the winter.

Eugene Ware has sold his home here and purchased a home in Cottage Grove. The new owners, Mr. and Mrs. Wardell, have moved into the home.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Darnell are the parents of a baby girl born Wednesday.

IRISH BEND H E

IRISH BEND—Home Extension Unit meets with Mrs. Claude Sprague Feb. 3. The subject, "Handle With Care," will be demonstrated by Mrs. Hazel Johnson of the Monroe Unit. "The Cotton Shop" will be given one day each week for three weeks in February, under the leadership of Mrs. Claude Sprague.

Caroline Abbott is confined at her home with the flu.

AT CENTRAL

CENTRAL—Lester Thomas and daughter Elvira, enjoyed their first airplane ride last week when they went by plane to Portland for a weekend visit at the home of Thomas's sister, Mrs. Ethel Freeland. They returned via train Sunday evening.

Alfred Peterson is setting out a filbert orchard on his new farm.

ALONG LAKE CREEK

LAKE CREEK—A pink and blue shower honoring Mrs. Virginia Keeney was enjoyed Saturday afternoon at Mrs. Chas. Brewster's.

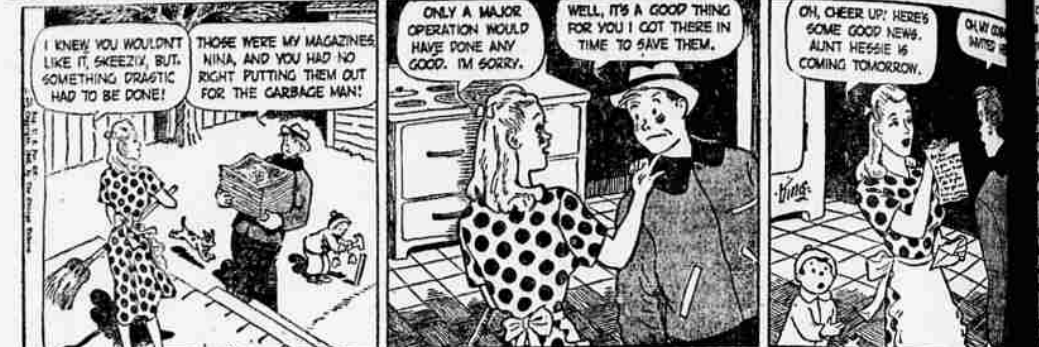

Mrs. Flossie Reeh and Mrs. Ardis Smith were in charge.

THURSTON VISITORS

THURSTON—Mr. and Mrs. Warner Anderson and family have as house guests Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Anderson and son of Warren, Ohio.

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE

GASOLINE ALLEY

BLONDIE

WASH TUBS

ALLEY OOP

BUZ SAWYER

STEVE ROVER AND WAHOO

THE NUISANCE

OUR BOARDING HOUSE