

Stassen, Dewey On Ballots

OSAS, Ore.—(AP)—Oregon Results are almost certain to name Stassen and Dewey as the names of Harold Stassen and Thomas E. Dewey on their primary ballots for a presidential preference.
Stassen, Portland, chairman of the Oregon Republicans, said he would support the former Minnesota governor, said petitions to place Stassen on the May ballot are circulating throughout the state. He said some counties already have returned signed petitions.

Elliott would not confirm whether the Stassen credentials would be filed to coincide with a scheduled visit to the state by the Minnesota leader later this month.
Stassen is due to speak at the Oregon Newspaper Publishers' Ass'n meeting Feb. 20 in Eugene.

of New York were filed with Oregon election officials earlier this month.

year. Senator Robert A. Taft of Ohio has indicated he does not wish to have his name in the state's primary. Gov. Warren of California said recently he wants to confine his activity to his home state.

Oregon preferential ballot petitions may be filed without approval of the candidate. A candidate winning the state party members' endorsement holds a pledged delegation until released at the convention.
