

Damages Awarded In Loading Suit

A circuit court jury Wednesday awarded $1972.34 of the $5,137.19 asked in a damage suit in which Ole Cristensen and the Oregon Auto Insurance Co. sought to recover from the Bohemia Lumber Co. for loss sustained in a loading accident at Brice Creek logging operations last June.

Wright swung a log into a truck that was waiting for a load and put the truck out of operation. They contended that the truck was nearby and that the log hit the truck because of the negligence of the operator.

The defendants had denied all allegations of negligence. There are an estimated 3,000-000 habitual golfers in the United States.

Young to Give Final Concert

Hal Young, popular Eugene tenor, will make his farewell appearance here before leaving for Spokane when he presents three of his outstanding pupils in Liza Lehmann's song cycle, "In a Persian Garden," Thursday evening.

This cycle, last performed in Eugene by four of Young's pupils at the University of Oregon in 1937, is written to words from the "Rubaiyat of Omar Khayam." It contains solos for soprano, alto, tenor, and baritone, two duets, and numerous quartets.

sung by Ione Lewis, soprano, Thelma Beairisto, contralto, Young himself, tenor, and W. C. Martin Jr., Cottage Grove, baritone. Reitha Bauman will play the piano accompaniment.

Musicianship, Charm Noted In Young Soprano's Recital

By BARBARA HEARTFIELD
A recital combining intelligent musicianship and friendly charm was presented Wednesday evening by Janet Whitfield Anderson, Eugene soprano, before a delighted audience in St. Mary's Episcopal Church parish hall.

Mrs. Anderson, who was presented by Naomi E. Kellis, held her hearers in the palm of her hand from the opening "The Lass with the Delicate Air" through her final Victor Herbert encore. Natural graciousness, excellent diction which allowed every word to be understood, and a beautiful easy voice of very even quality made each number of a varied program delightful.
