

Santa Clara Church Has Large Wedding Monday Evening

Santa Clara Church of Christ saw the wedding Monday evening of Miss Vivian Maxine Pollock of San Jose, Calif., to Gordon Wesley Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Thompson of 1490 Fourth Avenue West, Eugene. Mr. Thompson also is recently from San Jose, where both young people had been taking advanced courses at San Jose Bible College, following work at Northwest Christian College in Eugene. The candlelight service was performed by Kenneth Edwards, minister in the Church of Christ at Colville, Wash.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Myrtle Pollock of Bandon, and H. M. Pollock of Lewiston, Idaho.

Tall baskets of rhododendrons and ferns brought from Bandon decorated the church for the wedding. Special music before the ceremony included "Ah! Sweet Mystery of Life," sung by Mrs. Tom Cauley, and "Together With Him," by Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hughes. Mrs. Louis Black was the pianist. Mrs. Brenton Chapman and Miss Barbara Lemmert, in formal gowns of pink and green, lighted the candles.

The bride wore a wedding gown of white satin, in traditional style of fitted bodice and full skirt with train, which was borrowed from her sister, Mrs. B. J. Hughes of Gering, Nebr. She wore a fingertip veil of nylon net, held by a beaded tiara. She carried a French bouquet of white carnations and red rosebuds, tied with white satin streamers. She walked alone to the altar.

Mrs. Hughes was her sister's matron of honor. She wore a floor-length gown of pink, and carried a French bouquet of pink rosebuds and white carnations, tied with pink satin ribbons.

Other bridal attendants were Mrs. Paul Rathburn of Eagle Pass, Texas, in an aqua gown, carrying red rosebuds and white carnations and Miss Gloria Armiijo of San Jose, in yellow, carrying yellow rosebuds and carnations. Nyla Guthrie of Santa Clara was the flower girl, wearing a floor-length yellow gown, and carrying rose petals in a hand-crocheted basket.

The mother of the bride wore a black crepe ensemble, with pink accessories, and a corsage of Cecile Brunner roses. The bridegroom's mother wore navy blue, and a similar corsage.

Melvin Loren Thompson was his brother's best man, and ushers were Ronald Thompson, another brother, Brenton Chapman and B. J. Hughes.

A reception was held in the church parlors after the marriage ceremony, and Mrs. W. C. Woods, aunt of the bride, cut the wedding cake. Mrs. Charles Stallsmith, another aunt, was at the punch bowl, and Mrs. Owen Thompson, aunt of the bridegroom, at the coffee urn.

Mrs. Delbert Adleman and Mrs. Carl Dwyer assisted in serving. The young couple will spend the summer in Mexico. For traveling, the bride wore a black gabardine suit with white accessories. She is a missionary on furlough to Mexico, and they plan to enter teaching work there later. Their home after September 1 will be at San Jose, where they will continue study at the San Jose Bible College.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Edwards and daughters of Colville, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Thompson and family of Dufur; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rust of Bakersfield, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Toni Cauley, San Jose, Calif.; Jerry McCormack, Robert Aubrey, Mrs. Marion Beach and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Neet, Mrs. Marvin Harpole, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Witherspoon, and Miss Ruth Scott, all of Cottage Grove; Mrs. George Getty and daughters, and Mrs. Howard Keane and daughter, Saginaw; Mrs. Charles B. Stallsmith, Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Woods and son, Roseburg; Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Hughes, Gering, Nebr.; Mrs. Myrtle Pollock, Bandon; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rathburn and daughter, Eagle Pass, Texas; and Misses Elba Garcia, Alicia Ramos and Teresa Medina, from the Republic of Mexico.

Putman-Harper Rites Take Place At Franklin Church

Franklin Christian Church was the scene of the wedding June 5, of Miss Audrey June Harper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon K. Harper of Linslaw, to Thomas Leighton Putman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee W. Putman of Junction City. The rites were said Saturday evening at eight o'clock.

The bride wore a suit of light blue wool, with white hat and accessories. Her pearl necklace was a gift of the bridegroom, as was the white Bible which she carried, topped with an orchid.

Mrs. Melvin Staats of Elmira, a sister of the bride, was the only bridal attendant. She wore a suit of aqua blue with white hat and her flowers were gardenias and rosebuds.

Forrest H. Hollyman of Toledo acted as best man. Jack Cahoon of Toledo and Melvin Staats ushers. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

The church was decorated by William Simmons of Junction City, who used variegated iris.

Alvin W. Hoerauf of Lebanon sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Because," accompanied by Miss Mina Sibley of Eugene.

Mrs. Lou Campbell cut the wedding cake at the reception, held in Franklin Grange Hall. Mrs. M. Snyder and Mrs. S. W. Christianson poured. The bridegroom's cake was served wrapped in small packages and tied with ribbon. Heather snowballs and iris were used in decoration.

Miss Lorraine Peddicord had charge of the guest book. Serving were Mrs. Staats, Mrs. Donald Gillman, Miss Donna Christiansen, Mrs. Earl Kelly, Miss Patty Peroni, Mrs. Dan Martin, Mrs. John Venator and Mrs. Robert Thompson, Mrs. Vernon Harper and Mrs. Lee Putman.

Among out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Putman and grand-daughter of Walla Walla, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Putman and family of Cottage Grove; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Putman and son of Coos Bay; Mr. and Mrs. John Putman and family of Springfield; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Haydon and family of Roseburg and the bridegroom's grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Wickham of Springfield.

The couple went on a wedding trip to Crater Lake. They will live at Mount Hebron, Calif.

WOMEN'S RELIEF CORPS will meet at the Armory Thursday afternoon at two o'clock.

OREGON ROSE LODGE will meet Wednesday evening at eight o'clock in Knights of Pythias Hall.

Kennell-Ellis photo. Wiltshire engraving.

MISS PERRY

Announcement is made of the engagement of Miss Bette Perry to Sgt. Charles A. Lane, U. S. Army. Their wedding is planned for late summer.

Platt-Dozier Rite At Pleasant Hill Is Home Ceremony

At a home ceremony, Miss Ruth Dozier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Dozier of Pleasant Hill became the bride of Harold Platt, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Platt of Vancouver, Wash., Friday afternoon, June 4. The ceremony was read at two o'clock in the L. D. Garmire home by the Rev. Ward Rice of the Church of Christ.

Miss Dozier wore a suit of beige with aqua accessories, and a corsage of orchids and carnations. Her attendant was Mrs. Ben Cota of Portland. The bride was given away by her father, John Caldwell of Portland was best man. Elbert Wimmer sang "Because" and Miss Betty Garmire sang "Always." They were accompanied by Mrs. Garmire.

Mrs. James Bogan and Mrs. D. D. Boyle, cousins of the bride, presided at the serving table, at the reception which followed the ceremony. Mrs. Dorothy Wimmer, sister of the bride, had charge of the guest book.

Later the couple left for an extended wedding trip. They will live at Portland after June 20. The bride is a graduate of Oregon College of Education at Monmouth, and has taught school at Manzanita, Ore., for the past three years. The bridegroom is an ex-service man and radio technician.

Miss Hodges Wedded To Ray C. Colver At Fairmount Church

Miss Letha May Hodges, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hodges, and Richard L. Colver, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray C. Colver, all of Eugene, were married June 6 at the Fairmount Church of Christ. The Rev. W. W. White officiated at the Sunday afternoon ceremony.

Miss Hodges wore a gown fashioned from white nylon and lace, with lace gloves, and lace fingertip veil held by a crown of lace trimmed with stephanotis. Her flowers were pink and white carnations.

Miss Peggy Weaver of Oakland, Calif., was maid of honor, wearing a gown of pale blue parachute nylon, made in a style similar to that of the bride. Misses Lorraine Scott and Mary Hixson were bridesmaids. All three carried nosegays of blue Dutch iris and pink rosebuds. Claudene Ticer was flower girl.

Patrick O'Connor served as best man, while John Anderson and Orville Colver were ushers.

Mr. Hodges gave his daughter away.

The church was elaborately decorated with calla lilies, purple iris, candles and Cecile Brunner roses. Donald Neally sang "Because" and "Oh! Sweet Mystery of Life."

Mrs. William Ticer, Mrs. Roy Crane and Mrs. D. C. Ticer, helped with the serving at the reception in the church parlor.

For going away the bride wore a suit of maroon with grey accessories. Their wedding journey was to eastern Oregon, and they will be at home at 1424 1/2 Eighteenth Avenue East, on return.

COUPLE MARRIED AT BAPTIST CHURCH

Mrs. Pauline Napier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Collins of Eugene, and George H. Friesen were married in the First Baptist Church, at six o'clock in the evening, Friday, June 4.

The bride wore a suit of grey with pink accessories and a corsage of Odontoglossum orchids. The couple was not attended, only immediate relatives being present. They will visit the coast and include a trip to Yellowstone National Park, returning to live at Eugene about July 1.

First Wedding Held In New Church At Junction City

JUNCTION CITY—First Wedding to take place in the new Methodist Church was that on Saturday afternoon, June 5, of Miss Doris Maxine Ross, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Ross, to Donald McMillan of Los Angeles. The Rev. Carl B. Mason, pastor, read the vows at two o'clock, before relatives and friends.

The bride, escorted by her father, wore a gown of white lace over taffeta, the fitted bodice fashioned with sweetheart necklines and long fitted sleeves. The floor-length skirt was full. The fingertip veil fell from a coronet of net and she carried a white Bible and a lavender orchid with streamers holding tiny white orchids.

Miss Mildred Ross, maid of honor for her sister, wore a gown of pastel green lace and chiffon. She carried a fan-shaped nosegay of pink rosebuds.

Bridesmaids wore gowns of similar style made of taffeta. Miss Eloise Weible in blue and Miss Ruth Porterfield in yellow.

They carried nosegays of carnations and roses. Gerald Ross, the bride's brother, was best man and was Donald Platt of Coos Bay, Wash., and Stanley Barron of Corvallis.

The church was decorated with baskets of white gladiolus and roses, and white candles. Vocal music by James McMillan who sang "Because" and "I'll be true" and Miss Louise Anderson played wedding marches.

Mrs. Ross, the bride's mother, wore a black suit dress and a black hat. Mrs. Jack Ross, man of Los Angeles, the bride's mother, wore a tailored and gardenias.

At the reception, Mrs. Platt of Chehalis and Mrs. Billings of Eugene, ushers, bride, served and Mrs. T. Cheshire of Los Angeles, charge of the bride's book.

The bride's traveling kit of powder blue gabardine which she wore white and an orchid.

The couple will make home in Los Angeles where McMillan is a publicity man. Paramount Movie Studios will visit Oregon before route south.

"MANON"

new nylon shade for summer

by Bijou

"Manon" the prize winning color — to give your legs that "cool" look... Bijou nylons are "plasticized" for greater snag and run resistance.

SHEERS in proportioned lengths... 1.65
GOSSAMER SHEERS... 2.25

Kaufman Bros.

EUGENE'S FASHION CENTER

Offered right now at 15% OFF these regular prices.

EXCLUSIVELY OURS IN EUGENE

Selby

ARCH PRESERVER

PUMPS

PREFERRED

Of course you can wear pumps if they're Selby ARCH PRESERVERS! It's all in the beautiful way they fit—

White, Black & Brown

15.95

1060 Willamette BURCH'S Phone 985

PROUDLY WE INTRODUCE

Heavenly silk lingerie by Fischer

Rare prize in pure silk crepe: white with white lace... angelic for the bride... exquisite under sheer summer fashions.

Slip as sketched 14.95

Gown as sketched 32.95

We invite you to see our extensive selection of Heavenly Silk Lingerie by Fischer Introduced to you during our Remodeling Sale at 15% off these regular prices.

Kaufman Bros.

EUGENE'S FASHION CENTER

"We're Building for the Future"

ATTENTION . . .

For a limited time during our remodeling we offer you 15% OFF on all regular-priced merchandise.