

College Chapel Eugene Girl

Malattie Hill Presbyterian chapel at Lewis and Clark College in Portland was the setting for the wedding of Miss Mary Lillian Flork, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Fred Flock, to Richard U. Buchholz, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Buchholz of Toledo, Wash. The ceremony was solemnized at 10 o'clock Saturday morning by Dr. Morgan S. Hill, president of the college.

The bride wore a suit of pastel satin, with rose colored hat. The flowers were gladioli to match the colors of the hat, and chrysanthemums. Miss Treva Rice was bridesmaid, wearing dusty blue with a bouquet of sweetpeas harmonizing shades.

Harold Kay Ellefson of Florence acted as best man. Mr. Flock gave his daughter in marriage. Organ music was provided by Miss Margaret McVicker of the Dalles.

Mr. and Mrs. Buchholz left on wedding trip, motoring to a hotel at Rhododendron. They are students at Lewis and Clark College and will continue their work there, where Mr. Buchholz is majoring in economics.

MRS. FISCHER WINS TROPHY AWARD

Mrs. Fred Fischer captured the Register-Guard-Skeite trophy in the finals of the annual spring handicap golf tournament and Eugene County Club. The women now await qualifying for the club championship July 7. Regular Wednesday play will continue, and winners last week included Mrs. Ed Siegmund, Mrs. C. Romig, Mrs. A. J. Anderson and Mrs. Bruce Cox. Next Wednesday will be a "blind" tournament for the women playing eighteen holes, and a week-end for the nine-hole divots.

Nurses' Banquet Brings Leaders To Be Speakers

The twenty-fifth anniversary of the Oregon State Nurses Association will be observed at the annual banquet of nurses of District Five, OSNA, which will be held at a buffet dinner Tuesday evening at the Eugene Hotel. Past president of the district are to be honored, as well as the graduating class from the school of nursing at Sacred Heart Hospital.

Miss Shirley Thompson, president of the association, will attend and also Miss Jane Doyle of Portland, one of the leaders in work for nurses in the state. Miss Thompson will speak on the topic: "Nursing Now and for the Future." Miss Doyle's subject will be: "Nursing As It Was in 1923."

Miss Esther Jacobson will preside, as retiring president, and Miss Medwin Watson, newly-elected president, will be presented.

Eldon Pentilla, baritone, will be the soloist, accompanied by Andrew Flanders. Richard Parish will give a feature dance, and Miss Betty Lou Jasper will play incidental music.

Early graduates from the Eugene school, then of Pacific Christian Hospital (now Sacred Heart), are expected from Portland and Medford and California. About two hundred will attend the dinner.

Formal dress is optional, it is announced. For reservations, those planning to attend may call Mrs. W. H. Lynch, 3120-J.

Mrs. Harlow Hudson will install the officers for the coming year, who are: Mrs. LeRoy Daniels, president; Mrs. Charles Edwards, vice-president; Mrs. Russell Fenn, secretary; and Mrs. W. K. Rodman, treasurer.

Toastmistress for the evening will be Mrs. Edwards. Topic Mistress, Mrs. Harold Woodworth, and speakers, Mrs. Ross Hall, Mrs. Max Simpson, Mrs. Frank Sias and Mrs. James Rodman, Jr.

CRESWELL PARTY FOR MISS LAND

CRESWELL — Mrs. W. C. Land entertained at a miscellaneous shower for her niece, Miss Carol Land, a bride of this week. Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Lee Land and daughter, Betty, of Brownsville.

Wedding Party Stands on Lawn In Cross of Roses

The garden of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Glascock made a pleasing setting for the wedding of Miss Audrey Keeler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Keeler, to John W. Hylton, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Hylton of Waldport. The Rev. Llewellyn Griffith of First Methodist Church officiated.

Miss Keeler wore a white suit of summer fabric with waistline veil, a white halo hat trimmed with white roses, and an orchid corsage. Miss Leora Carone was bridesmaid, wearing a grey suit with corsage of gardenias and Cecile Brunner roses.

Cheryl and Diane Schlemmer of Creswell were door attendants, as the party came from the house through the French doors. Leslie Hylton acted as best man. Mr. Keeler gave his daughter in marriage.

A cross outlined with large red roses was placed on the lawn and the party marched up the main part, taking places on the cross arms. The minister stood at the head.

A prelude of marimba selections was given by Mrs. Schlemmer. Myron Schlemmer sang "Because."

At the reception which followed the ceremony, held in the Glascock home, Mrs. Dale Linsley served the wedding cake and Mrs. Herman Raymond and Miss Freida Koeppe poured. The table was decorated with candelabra, and pink and white carnations and roses. The same flowers were used on the mantel.

Mr. and Mrs. Hylton left on a trip to northern California. For going away the bride wore an emerald green suit with grey accessories. They will live at Springfield after June 14.
