

Wedded Couple To Live at Coburg

Miss Dorothy Salisbury, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Salisbury of Coburg, and Charles L. Posvar, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Posvar, of Eugene, were married last Sunday at the Ebert Memorial Methodist Church at Springfield. The Rev. Floyd

E. Tufts officiated at one o'clock. The bride wore a gown of white slipper satin with lace yoke and long sleeves, and floor-length veil. Her bridal bouquet was fashioned of pink and white shattered carnations. Miss Patricia Oldham was maid of honor, wearing a blue gown and carrying gardenias and pink roses. Mrs. Charles Luttrell and Miss Catherine Meade were bridal attendants, wearing pink gowns of net and carrying bouquets of gardenias and white roses.

Mrs. Salisbury, mother of the bride, wore a blue dress with white accessories and corsage of pink roses. Mrs. Posvar was dressed in brown with a corsage of yellow roses.

Clyde Hamman acted as best man, while Norman Privirasky and Earle Salisbury were ushers. The bride was given away by her father.

Lilies, iris, ferns and fir boughs were used in decorating the church. Music was provided by Thelma D. Cross, who played the wedding marches and incidental selections.

At the reception which was held in the church parlor, Mrs. Earle Salisbury cut the wedding cake. Misses Anita and Alma Salisbury poured.

The couple left for a two weeks' trip. For going away, Mrs. Posvar wore a yellow suit of gabardine with yellow and brown accessories. They will live at Coburg.

Returning Delegate Meets Flood Delays

Mrs. S. L. Peters, who lately returned from the convention for the hard-of-hearing, stopped over in Minneapolis and St. Cloud, Minn., to visit at her former home. Coming by way of the Great Northern Empire Builder, Mrs. Peters reported that she got as far as Havre, Mont., then was routed to Butte and Bonner's Ferry, Idaho. "We got into Spokane at four o'clock Thursday morning," she said. "then went to Seattle via Pasco and Yakima. In Seattle, chartered busses were waiting to transport the passengers to Portland over the Longview bridge. Imagine our surprise at being delivered to the Broadway bridge and finding the Union Station sandbagged and awash! It was another hour before a Southern Pacific train was assembled at the Brooklyn yards. We finally reached Eugene at three-thirty in the morning, sixteen hours late! Quite an experience, but definitely not good fun."
