

A BLACK BUZZARD, Uncle Sam and the Rainbow Girl talk things over following their conquest of Judges in the now annual Montgomery Wards Bike Parade Contest. Winners in Saturday's costume frolics were (from left to right): Third prize, Fay Lambert, 10; first prize, Gary A. Haley, 13; and second prize, Lee Carter, 12.

Fall Creek Votes Monday

FALL CREEK—The meeting of School District No. 67 will be held in Fall Creek school house, June 21, 8 p. m. to 9 p. m. This is an important meeting. The budget for the fiscal year is to be discussed and the levying of a district tax, also, the matter of increasing tax for finishing the gymnasium.

Wilbur Winfrey is staying with his daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lou Surcamp, while Mrs. Winfrey is visiting relatives in Iowa. Laurie Mathews is in Sacred Heart Hospital following an operation.

Link river which joins Upper Klamath Lake with Lake Ewauna, is one of the nation's shortest streams. Less than a mile long, it flows entirely within the city limits of Klamath Falls. The nation's shortest river is the D, 400 feet long, flowing from Devil's Lake into the sea along the Oregon coast.

JUNCTION CITY—Lee Murphy, recently elected governor of District 36E, at Lions Club convention at La Grande. His territory covers from Junction City, the most northern point, to the California line, and from the ocean to the Idaho line, altogether 36 Lions Clubs, the largest territory in the state, including such cities as Eugene, Roseburg, Medford, Coos Bay, Bend, etc. (Wiltshire engraving.)

Sewer Starts For Junction

JUNCTION CITY—Thurnborn and Logozo, contractors for the collection system of the new sewerage system started digging operations Thursday in the 700 block between Catherine and Washburn streets. A great deal of water was being encountered in that part of town where the ditches are going deep. Headquarters for Thurnborn and Logozo are in the recently vacated City Recorders building on Greenwood beyond Greenwood hall.

The budget was approved by the voters at an election held Jan. 12 in order that the budget might be submitted to the county rural school board. However, the increase in school population in the high school district resulted in it being re-classified as a first class district, thus being exempt from the rural school law and the budget did not come before the county rural school board. Therefore, it is necessary at this time to vote on the increase of $44,623.08 in excess of the six per cent limitation as indicated in the budget already adopted.

Any legal voter in the district may vote for the director, while only property owners may vote on exceeding the six per cent limitation. Balloting will take place June 28 from 2 p. m. to 7 p. m. at the high school.

All the teachers contracts have been signed and returned according to the clerk, Ralph Wigham. Teachers for next year include: Mrs. Nelba Gilbert, English and social science; Mrs. Genera Dowell, girls' physical education and commerce; Mrs. Bernice I. Wilcox, home economics; Miss Shirley Wilkes, English; Miss Gladys Stone, band and commerce; E. J. Edwards, science and industrial arts; James Mulvahl, boys' physical education and social science; William C. Jones, mathematics and science; and William F. Harcombe, principal.

Harry Heimburger, who has taught here for the past two years, is retiring this year. Elwood Rickman, who has been the band instructor this year, has resigned to accept a position with the public schools in Cottage Grove. Also retiring this year is Roy Anstine who has been janitor for the past six years.

Along with the opening of the playgrounds for the children will come the organization of the evening softball leagues for the adults. It is hoped that a league similar to the one organized last year can be started again and that possibly another league of teen age boys can be organized. A meeting of those wishing to sponsor a team or individuals wishing to play softball is called for next Tuesday evening at eight o'clock at the grade school.

A new boiler is being installed at the Junction City cannery on land recently purchased from John Beck on Eleventh street across from the cannery. The new police building which was recently constructed next to the City Hall is now occupied by Police Chief Mailloux. The old city cell has been moved to form a part of the building with the entrance through the police office.

The other half of the building is the city recorders office. The city records were moved to this fireproof building the early part of the week.

State Senator Angus Gibson will leave by plane Saturday for Philadelphia, where he will attend the Republican convention. Haven Potter for many years a service station operator and driver for Shell Oil Co. in Junction City has opened his new Shell Service station in the Paramount shopping district at Springfield.

Rev. and Mrs. W. B. Empey are attending the Methodist Conference in Portland this week. Guests of the Hans Rasmussens is Miss Jane Hansen who taught last year at Grand View College in Des Moines and is now returning to Copenhagen, Denmark, where she plans to teach next year at the Askov Folk School.

DEXTER PERSONALS
DEXTER—Mrs. George O'Conner has sold her home at Dexter to Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Fagen of Trent. Mrs. O'Conner has purchased an acreage of her son, Bill Bangers, and will erect a small home.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Manwaring have moved to River Road. They have their home on Lost Creek for sale. Mrs. Katie Mauney is suffering with a bad foot. She stepped on a nail causing infection. Bible study is progressing very nicely, with an average of 50 children this week. It will continue next week with a program on Friday evening.

Terry Parker of Springfield has been visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Parker this week and attending Bible study.

CROW ELECTION
CROW—The annual school meeting for the grade school will be held Monday, June 21.

Elmira Girls Start Summer "Day Camp"

ELMIRA—Day Camp will start in the Ivan Parke Girl Scout camp grounds, Tuesday, June 22, 10 a. m. with approximately 50 girls attending.

Mrs. Parke will have as helpers, Mrs. Paul Yarborough, Mrs. George Pierce, Mrs. Etta Baker, Mrs. E. J. Shoop, Mrs. Leonard Burger, Mrs. N. Murphy, Mrs. C. W. Owen and Mrs. R. L. Foster.

Camp will continue through June 22, 23 and 24, June 29, 30, and July 1. Girls attending will be taught camp cookery, handicraft and nature and folk dancing. Interesting "hikes" will also be taken.

Elmira Voters Meet Monday

ELMIRA—Grade school district will hold its annual meeting Monday evening, June 21, 8 p. m. A director for a three year term is to be elected at this meeting. Any legal voter in the district may vote for the director.

Notices have been posted announcing the annual meeting of Elmira Union High School District U-4, at the school house June 28.

At this time one director is to be elected from the Lyons district for a term of five years. The present director from this district is Robert Glenn, chairman of the board. Exceeding the six per cent limitation by $44,623.08 is also to be voted upon at this time.

The budget was approved by the voters at an election held Jan. 12 in order that the budget might be submitted to the county rural school board. However, the increase in school population in the high school district resulted in it being re-classified as a first class district, thus being exempt from the rural school law and the budget did not come before the county rural school board. Therefore, it is necessary at this time to vote on the increase of $44,623.08 in excess of the six per cent limitation as indicated in the budget already adopted.

Any legal voter in the district may vote for the director, while only property owners may vote on exceeding the six per cent limitation. Balloting will take place June 28 from 2 p. m. to 7 p. m. at the high school.

All the teachers contracts have been signed and returned according to the clerk, Ralph Wigham. Teachers for next year include: Mrs. Nelba Gilbert, English and social science; Mrs. Genera Dowell, girls' physical education and commerce; Mrs. Bernice I. Wilcox, home economics; Miss Shirley Wilkes, English; Miss Gladys Stone, band and commerce; E. J. Edwards, science and industrial arts; James Mulvahl, boys' physical education and social science; William C. Jones, mathematics and science; and William F. Harcombe, principal.

Harry Heimburger, who has taught here for the past two years, is retiring this year. Elwood Rickman, who has been the band instructor this year, has resigned to accept a position with the public schools in Cottage Grove. Also retiring this year is Roy Anstine who has been janitor for the past six years.

Along with the opening of the playgrounds for the children will come the organization of the evening softball leagues for the adults. It is hoped that a league similar to the one organized last year can be started again and that possibly another league of teen age boys can be organized. A meeting of those wishing to sponsor a team or individuals wishing to play softball is called for next Tuesday evening at eight o'clock at the grade school.

A new boiler is being installed at the Junction City cannery on land recently purchased from John Beck on Eleventh street across from the cannery. The new police building which was recently constructed next to the City Hall is now occupied by Police Chief Mailloux. The old city cell has been moved to form a part of the building with the entrance through the police office.

The other half of the building is the city recorders office. The city records were moved to this fireproof building the early part of the week.

State Senator Angus Gibson will leave by plane Saturday for Philadelphia, where he will attend the Republican convention. Haven Potter for many years a service station operator and driver for Shell Oil Co. in Junction City has opened his new Shell Service station in the Paramount shopping district at Springfield.

Rev. and Mrs. W. B. Empey are attending the Methodist Conference in Portland this week. Guests of the Hans Rasmussens is Miss Jane Hansen who taught last year at Grand View College in Des Moines and is now returning to Copenhagen, Denmark, where she plans to teach next year at the Askov Folk School.

DEXTER PERSONALS
DEXTER—Mrs. George O'Conner has sold her home at Dexter to Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Fagen of Trent. Mrs. O'Conner has purchased an acreage of her son, Bill Bangers, and will erect a small home.

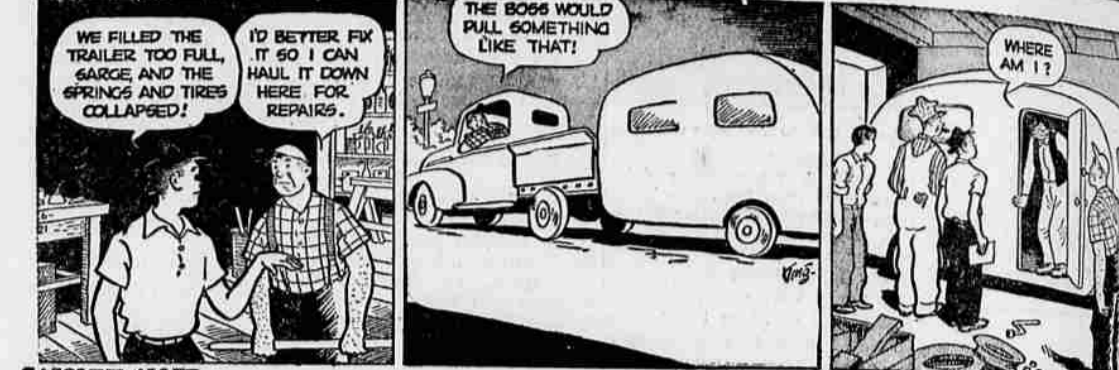

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Manwaring have moved to River Road. They have their home on Lost Creek for sale. Mrs. Katie Mauney is suffering with a bad foot. She stepped on a nail causing infection. Bible study is progressing very nicely, with an average of 50 children this week. It will continue next week with a program on Friday evening.

Terry Parker of Springfield has been visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Parker this week and attending Bible study.

CROW ELECTION
CROW—The annual school meeting for the grade school will be held Monday, June 21.

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE

GASOLINE ALLEY

BLONDIE

WASH TUBS

ALLEY OOP

BUZZ SAWYER

STEVE ROPER

WHY MOTHERS GET GRAY

OUT OUR WAX

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

10 TRIPS DAILY TO San Francisco $775 ROUND TRIP... $13.95

GREYHOUND New, Easy Way To Treat & BEAUTIFY DRY, BRITTLE HAIR

SHONTEX Recommended by FRED MEYER, INC.

Flavor's new, crispy, too Kellogg's CORN-SOYA SHREDS