Three Sidewalk Jobs Bids Opened by City

Bids on three sidewalk projects were opened Friday afternoon at the city hall. Tabulated as shown below, the bids will be presented to the city council Monday night. The council will award contracts for the work unless it receives indications that the property holders to be affected do not favor the bids.

For the construction of a sidewalk on the east side of Adams St., between Clark and Cheshire Aves., the bids were: R. C. Parsons, $830.50; C. M. Kemp, $785.85; F. W. Riddle, $835.20.

Bids for similar construction on the west side of Adams, from Clark to Cheshire; R. C. Parsons, $966.05; C. M. Kemp, $904.51; F. W. Riddle, $963.82.

On the construction of sidewalks on both the east and west sides of Alder, between 26th and 27th Aves., the bids ran: R. C. Parsons, $1894.70; C. M. Kemp, $1775.54; F. W. Riddle, $1914.48.

Fountain Pen Firm Offers Sales Course

The Parker Pen Co. is offering all their dealers a retail sales motion picture training course at the Eugene Hotel on Tuesday at 6 p.m. and Wednesday beginning at 9:15 a.m. Approximately 35 firms have been invited to send sales personnel to a free program that features Elmer Wheeler of Chicago, sales expert.

On the schedule is a dinner Tuesday and a luncheon Wednesday. All dealers planning to attend are asked to phone Harold Peterson, catering manager of the Eugene Hotel, and make reservations for either the Tuesday showing or the Wednesday program.

Springfield City Council Sets Public Hearing on Budget Plan

SPRINGFIELD — The city council will hold a public hearing in the city hall here Monday at 7:30 p.m. on the proposed 1948-49 city budget before it is officially adopted.

Any persons who wish to be heard either for or against the budget as it now stands should appear at the hearing.

Buell Takes Rotary Post

SPRINGFIELD — Fred Buell, deputy county coroner, became the second president of this city's Rotary Club when he was officially installed at the regular meeting of the group here Friday noon.

Buell, who will hold his new post until June 30, 1949, succeeds Guy Wright who has guided the organization through its first year of activity.

New vice-president is Spencer W. Alexander.

Wright was presented with a Rotary Club past president's pin by William Schlitzkus, club secretary, at the brief ceremonies Friday.

William W. Poland

William W. Poland, 87, died at his home southeast of Shedd Thursday, where he had resided many years.

Services were held Monday at the Methodist Church. Surviving are a son, Harry, of Corvallis; a grandson, Edward, of Shedd; and two great-grandchildren.

Blimp Due On Tuesday

Residents of the Eugene area will get another look at a Goodyear blimp Tuesday, according to an announcement Saturday by George Schaefer, local dealer for the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co.

The blimp is scheduled to arrive here Tuesday at 2 p.m. and to make afternoon and evening trips over the city from the Eugene Airpark where its mobile mooring mast will be set up.

Now christened the Volunteer, the blimp is making its second postwar tour of the West Coast. During hostilities the 150-foot lighter-than-air craft was flown as the U. S. Navy's L-17.

R. H. Hobensack, ex-Navy commander and a veteran of 13,000 hours of flying, is captain of the craft.
