

Britain After Tourist Trade

LONDON — Britain expects about 500,000 tourists this year to spend between £35,000,000 and £40,000,000 ($140,000,000 to $160,000,000). Britain expects at least 100,000 tourists from America to spend $320 per head in this year.

"We make no bones about it," said the travel association. "We want the dollars."

In 11 months, Britain turned 1,000,000 pamphlets and more than a dozen travel firms had sent thousands of pounds to lure tourists to these shores.

With an annual grant of $200,000 ($200,000) pre-war, Britain's holiday board allotted a sum to the travel association and the propaganda machines to propagate.

The 20-year-old travel association promised no beefsteaks or green sodas. In fact, it emphasized that Britain is poor, her food is drab. But it pointed out the scenic beauty, the sporting opportunities, including the Olympic games, salmon fishing in Scotland, and everywhere.

How People Honor Carroll

HOLLYWOOD — Mrs. Show paid its respects to Earl Carroll Monday at funeral services at the Broadway and Hollywood funeral home. The funeral was held in a Pennsylvania plane 10 days ago.

The funeral was combined with memorial services for Beryl Wallace, Carroll's leading lady who died in the same crash. Private funeral services were held last week for Miss Wallace.

After cremation, ashes of the old friends were to be placed side by side in a niche at Forest View mausoleum.

Burners at the funeral service included showgirls and employees of the 54-year-old Carroll's Hollywood theater-restaurant, through whose portals passed "the most beautiful girls in the world."

Two life-sized floral statues of Carroll showgirls stood beside the casket, along with the reproduction of flowers of a neon girl's face on the outside of the building. They were the gift of Carroll's workers.

Jimmy Nolan, vocal star of the Carroll Vanities, sang "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life" and other songs. There were no pallbearers. The Rev. A. J. Seldan, pastor of the Village Church of Westwood, officiated.
