

West Crews Good in Trials

PRINCETON, N. J., July 1.—The Olympic rowing trials moved into the second day of competition Thursday with the Princeton crew getting another chance to qualify for the trip to London.

The classic crews of Princeton, Cornell, California and Washington were granted a day off after the first round of racing, recording impressive victories in the opening trials.

Thursday's first heat, matches Harvard Navy and the Wyandotte (Mich.) boat club, Wisconsin (Mich.) the Buffalo (N. Y.) West Side Rowing Club in the second heat, while Yale faces Massachusetts in the third.

All four winners Wednesday night, Lake Carnegie's 2000-meter course record of 6:04.8, set by Washington's Olympic champion, Cornell's smooth-stroking eight turned in the best time—a 5:56.4 clocking which gained them a third-of-a-length victory over Harvard.

Princeton was timed in 6:01.2 while nipping Yale by an official four inches. The Wyandotte Club was third, a full seven lengths behind the victors.

Washington and California, regarded by most observers as the crews which will battle it out in Saturday's finals, had an easy time of it in their opening trials. The Huskies, employing an easy 32 beat, outdistanced Wisconsin and M.I.T. California also used a beat of 32 in downing Navy by one and three-quarter lengths.

Washington, winner of last week's Poughkeepsie Regatta, was timed in 6:01.0 California had a 6:01.3 clocking.

Cocky Brewer Tops Cascade League Pitching Averages

Despite the heavy hitting in the Cascade League, four regular pitchers in the local semi-pro circuit boast enviable earned-run averages.

Whitely Lokan, although he has worked in only two games, hasn't allowed an earned run in 13 2/3 innings and he has won his only start for the league-leading Hills Creek Billies. Bud Brewer, who has hurled 21 innings for the co-leading Miller Lumbermen, has an earned-run average of 0.43 and has won two games against no losses.

Fred Gay, former Coast League southpaw who has joined the Glendale Indians, has allowed one earned run in nine innings. Frank Dietrich of the Lumbermen has a 1.29 average for 31 innings.

Duke Windsor of Hills Creek and Bill Hanauska of Snellstrom lead in wins, each with three against two losses. Hanauska is the hardest worker with 44 1/3 innings against 39 1/3 for Windsor. Hanauska leads in strikeouts with 23, Windsor second with 18. Cliff Mortensen of Glendale has allowed the most walks—15.

League pitching records follow:

Seals Increase Coast Loop Lead

(Associated Press)
The San Francisco Seals had regained undisputed possession of the Pacific Coast League lead Thursday and a good chunk of the credit goes to Mickey Rocco.

The San Francisco first baseman parked his 15th homer of the season over the rightfield fence Wednesday night to give the Seals a 4-3 triumph over the hard-pressing Los Angeles Angels.

Hollywood's hard-slugging Stars made six hits count for an equal number of runs in the fifth inning to trip the third-place Oakland Oaks, 8-5. The loss dropped the Oaks two games behind the league leaders.

The San Diego Padres remained in the thick of the pennant scuffle by making it two in a row over Sacramento. Tom Seals racked up his seventh mound victory as the Padres won, 5-2, to stay only three games out of first place.

Portland engineered a 2-1 ninth-inning triumph over the fifth-place Seattle Rainiers to even the series at 1-1.

A nifty bunt by Portland Secondbaseman Eddie Basinski with the bases clogged in the last half of the final game produced the winning tally.

Larry Glosser Gains Amateur Medal

WICHITA, Kas., July 1.—(AP)—Lawrence Glosser of Oklahoma City stroked a three-under-par 68 Wednesday to win medalist honors in the Western Amateur golf tournament.

The young Oklahoman had an even par 71 Tuesday which added to his 68 Wednesday afternoon gave him a 139 total for the 36 holes.

Five strokes away was Wilford Wehrle of Louisville, Ky., 1937 western champion, who had 73-71—144 over the 6,740-yard country club layout.

National Amateur Champion "Skeet" Riegel, Glendale, Calif., faltered on his second eighteen holes and had a six-over-par-77 to go with Tuesday's 70 for 147.

A medal 163 was the qualifying limit for the 64 players who will begin match competition Thursday.

Marvin "Bud" Ward, Spokane, Wash., qualified easily with 38-38—74—160.
