'Schedule of Fun' For Yoncalla's 4th

YONCALLA— Sunday 10 a.m. baseball game at Yoncalla high school diamond, between Yoncalla and Gustina.

1 p.m.—Parade. They will start near the school house and come down Main street and across the railroad track to the rodeo ground. The rodeo queen and her court went to Eugene this week and got their riding costumes which were purchased by the Yoncalla Saddle Club, sponsors of the rodeo.

1:30 p.m.—Rodeo.

At the annual high school meeting this week, Wilbur Briner was reelected director, and the measures carried for to buy property to build a high school on and $3000 for another high school teacher.

An adult class in upholstering slip covers and draperies will be held at the high school beginning July 12 and ending July 22.

Church of Christ missionary meeting was held at the Vernon Patrick home recently. The women worked on quilt blocks. It was decided to hold a silver tea in July.

Word has been received from Milo, Ore., of the death of Mrs. Addie Malin. She is a former resident of Yoncalla. She leaves a son, Frank Wooster, and daughter, Delia Mather both of Milo, also her husband, Walter Malin.

YONCALLA — Mrs. Annie Kruse, one of Yoncalla's "first citizens," is donor of a beautiful city park. (Wiltshire engraving).

Annie Kruse Gives Park

YONCALLA — The beautiful grove on top of the hill in the west part of Yoncalla is to be donated by the owner, Mrs. Annie Kruse, for a much-needed city park, according to recent announcement

Mrs. Kruse has resided in the Yoncalla community all her life, and is a granddaughter of the pioneer Charles Applegate, who settled in this community in 1850. She has always shown great interest in public affairs. The Yoncalla people deeply appreciate this project.

Bethel FD Pleased With Truck's Work

BETHEL — The Bethel firemen got to use the new fire truck for the first time Monday at 1 p. m. The Monroe Lumber Mill Co. had a sawdust fire that got out of control.

Why shove, with the aid of the new truck they had the fire under control in ten minutes after receiving the alarm.

Mrs. Ralph Thomas, of Oakgrove, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gray of Leaburg were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Hansen. They are the daughters and son-in-law of the Hansens and came especially to celebrate Mr. Hansen's birthday. He was "79 years young," Sunday.

Betty Lou Hisston, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Hinton, and Barbara Fegles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Fegles, are attending the Youth camp of the Church of God held at Camp Longbow on the Santiam.

Mr. and Mrs. Zoni Little and family left, Saturday for a trip thru Reno, Nevada, and on to California. They plan to spend two weeks and expect to visit parks and different places of interest.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Quendenseld, and family from Waukegan, Illinois have been visiting with theirc ousins, Mr. and Mrs. George Zebley.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Crooks and family have come from Harrisburg, Missouri, to make their home here. Mrs. Cooks is the niece of Mrs. E. S. Kennedy. They are home here two weeks ago.

living in a trailer at the Kennedy's trailer court.

Danebo Family News

DANEBO — A birthday party was held in honor of Miss Diana Lee Bennett and Milo Griffin Sunday at the Vernon Bennett home when a big picnic dinner was enjoyed on the lawn

Mr. and Mrs. George Souza of 3831 Souza Drive have sold their home and have moved to Oswego, Oregon. Mr. Jim Brorby bought the houre.

Mrs. Ada Fleming of California is visiting with her daughter Mrs. Mildred Rowan and grandchildren,, Danny and Kathleen.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Pritchard and children are spending the Fourth of July weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Pritchard of Triangle Lake.

Mrs. Mike Bolinger and daughter Pat will visit Mrs. Bolinger's mother Mrs. L. A. LaFlamme in Myrtle Point from July 5 to July 9. Her brother will be there for a month's vacation from his work in Los Angeles.

Ira C. Hudson graduated from San Francisco College of Mortuary Science and arrived here with his wife and daughter Saturday. Hudson will be employed at the Poole-Larson Funeral Home of Eugene and will be at home to friends in their apartment at that address.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Fish are receiving felicitations on the birth of a grandson Mr and Mrs. Edward C Fish are the proud parents. Mrs. Fish and baby are doing fine.

The Loyal Star of America Auxiliary had a potluck dinner and joint meeting Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Emma Pruitt.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Young and baby daughter Vicky Lou, from Littleton, Colorado have moved into an apartment at 4211 Elmira Road.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Green have moved from 1955 Taney Street to Crescent, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Conway have bought a home on Ruskin Avenue and are moving in.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Harenden are spending their vacation at the coast. They expect to be back Monday after a week's holiday.

AT MARCOLA

MARCOLA—Mrs. W. A. Griffin has just arrived for a visit with her son Dr. Lee Stauffer. Mrs. Griffin leaves for her home at Ames, Iowa, Friday.

Girl Scout day camp was well attended with 33 girls enrolled. Leaders were Mrs Blanche Grafe, camp director, Mrs. Glen Spicer, Mrs. Miles McKay, Mrs. Orvil Suthvan, Mrs. F. E. Dietne'

Harmony Pupils Have Reunion

HARRISBURG—The Harmony reunion held at the Harmony School nouse recently was well attended. About 120 were there to meet old friends and new, to talk over old times and enjoy the picnic dinner.

The first teacher of the school was Marian Lingo.

Other pioneer teachers were: Colone. Folsom, Mary Norris, George Norris, Mary Hardisty, John Tait, Edgar McClure.

Ross Mathews, Springfield, a former teacher of Harmony in 1905.

Mrs. Emma Ingram, Harrisburg an early pupil of Harmony, contributed a poem:

SCHOOL DAYS AT HARMONY

"Teachers and schoolmates by the score,
Met at the Harmony School once more.
To talk of those golden days gone by,
Could not be done without a sigh.
"The thought of each other still is there
For there are no pals like them anywhere,
Our schooldays at Harmony are past,
But the memory of those days will ever last."

Alpine Will Vote Monday, July 12

ALPINE—Birthday Club meets Saturday, July 10, with Mrs. Madeleine Nichols.

There will be a special school meeting Monday, July 12, to vote on a sinking fund to build a new school building in five years. All interested be sure and turn out.

Mr. Bennie Graves and two children, Charlotte and Bennie Kay, will leave July 8 to spend their vacation with Mrs. Graves in Tennessee.

Mrs. Glen Furlong is reported much better and was able to make a trip to Alpine. She has been confined to her home for nearly three months.

The Verdi Cox family are now living six miles west of Alsea where Cox has employment.

The community is pleased to have Rev. and Mrs. Hermann back for another year.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Trask and daughter Dianne, will vacation over the 4th of July at their cottage near Waldport.

Creswell Meetings

CRESWELL—The annual budget as proposed by a special budget committee was approved at the city election Wednesday. This allows $1627.86 over the six per cent limitation and is the lowest for the three previous years. It provided for a full time employe for Creswell. The voting was light, only 19 property owners.

The Dorcas Circle of the Methodist Church meets Wednesday, July 7, with Mrs. V. E. Grousbeck with Mrs. C. I. Kent, Mrs. Louise Land and Mrs. C. H. Goheen assisting. A basket dinner will be served at 12:30 p.m. on the lawn. Members are to bring table service. The birthdays of the month will be observed.

The Theta Rho Club meets Thursday, July 8, at 7 p.m. Officers for the new club year will be installed. A paper sack lunch will be served.

Charter night was a big event for the Lions Club at Creswell Tuesday, June 29.

The sponsoring club of Eugene was well represented and supplied numbers for the program. The banquet meeting was held at the Grange Hall with Tony Zilkoski chief chef. Wives of the members were guests.

Deane Seeger of the Eugene club was toastmaster. Speakers: Ivan S. Wilson; Rev. Joseph Knotts; Earl J. Greenwood: William F. Ramsey; District Governor Lee Murphy; presentation of charter, Lawrence E. Neely; acceptance, Earl J. Greenwood, president of Creswell Lions Club; guest speaker, Orlando Holls; Elmer Windsor.

Officers of the Creswell club are: President, Earl J. Greenwood; first vice-president, G. H. Mawson, Jr.; secretary-treasurer, Theodore W. Walkup; Lion Tamer, W. W. Lower; Tail Twister, Clyde C. Hollemon; directors, H. W. Taylor, F. A. Everson, H. N. Traxler, C. Scarbrough and E. A. Green. The charter members include Theodore W. Walkup, G. N. Hawson, Jr., H. N. Traxler, C. C. Hollemon, F. A. Everson, Earl J. Greenwood, Calvin C. Taylor, W. F. Ramsey, Ival S. Wilson, V. W. Johnston, H. C. Johnston, H. W. Taylor, E. R. Lawrence and Hays Burke.

The clubs represented were Drain, Eugene, Junction City, Reedsport-Gardner and Klamath Falls. A gavel and bell were presented the Creswell club by the Eugene Lions Club and a check from the Reedsport-Gardner Club. P. Waldo Davis of Eugene gave added pleasure with informal piano numbers.

AT ALPINE

ALPINE —Birthday Club meets with Miss Madeleine Nichols July 10.

Don't forget the school meeting Monday, June 21. There will be two new board members to be elected.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hodgson from Mountainhome, Pa., are at the home of Mrs. Hodgson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Sankey. Mr. Hodgson is working for Ralph Hull. They are expecting to build a house soon on the Sankey ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Foster are building a house west of the Marvin Foster residence.

A Girl Scout Club was organized at Alpine recently with Mrs. Mary Huff as leader. The club will meet at her home every two weeks. So far there are eight members.

The Ledgett family is moving into their new home they built in Alpine. They have been occupying one of Earl Brittain's houses.

Arthur Maxwell is taking down the top of his house making a one story house.

The under-water shelf around the United States is believed to hold large deposits of oil. Oil wells already have been tapped in the tidelands of California and, more recently,, in deep water off Louisiana in the Gulf of Mexico.

Coast Country Ready For Holiday Crowds

FLORENCE — The good word from over here is: perfect conditions for a Glorious Fourth. The Sea Lion Caves and all other resorts and attractions are open, good weather being enjoyed and expected, and the tides are low enough to dig clams. Exceptional bass catches are being made in the lakes.

Harrisburg Personals

HARRISBURG — Mrs. Emma Pierce who has been very ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Grace McHenry of Eugene returned home recently much improved.

Mrs. Frank Lynch reports that one of their ewes had a lamb on Nov. 19 and then on June 18 gave birth to a set of twins. Rather unusual.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Herman have as a guest at their home a nephew Willard Walters of Miami, Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Quinn returned Friday from El Segrendo, California where they spent two weeks visiting with relatives and attended their daughter Pattys graduation exercises.

George Hargett and his sister Mrs. Nelson Ring of Lake Home left Saturday to visit a sister in Idaho. They will visit Glacier National Parks before returning home.

Jim Wallace the custodian of the Harrisburg Hotel, went to Condon last week to visit with his brother.

A birthday dinner and family reunion was held Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Cartwright in honor of Cartwright's 78th birthday. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Myron Lasley, Vancouver; Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Cartwright and son, Mr. and Mrs. Esmond Cartwright and two children, Creswell, Walter Cartwright, Portland; Robert Moorehause, and Miss Church, Eugene.

AT MONROE

MONROE—Sunny Brook Dairy announced here Wednesday that they are now operating from their new plant at 1025 North Ninth Street in Corvallis, "only the fountain lunch remains at the former down-town location."

They have designated July 1, 2 and 3 as visitor's days at the new plant, and everybody is invited.

Mrs. J. L. Boesen of Monroe entered the Sacred Heart Hospital in Eugene Monday of this week to undergo an operation on her right arm fractured in a fall at her COTTAGE GROVE — Miss Ada Carter, whose friends are hoping that she will be queen of the Cottage Grove Regatta, Aug. 6, 7, 8. First candidate to file, she is sponsored by the Business and Professional Women's Club. (Clark Studio photo, Wiltshire engraving).

Wendling News Of Family Doings

WENDLING — The potluck supper planned to have been held at the home of Mrs. Catherine Annabel, June 30, by the Jolly Neighbors Club, has been temporarily postponed. Announcement of the date will be given later.

William (Bill) Jones has been chosen janitor, school district No. 163, for the coming year, succeeding Eugene Fisher, resigned. Fisher has been a good janitor at this school for many years, and his departure is regretted. The Fishers are moving to their place in Creswell after the first of the month.

Women's Society of Christian Service next meeting will be a "Silver Tea" at the home of Mrs. Allen Wild, July 8.

Eldon Pattee and Loyal Swofford had an exciting fishing trip on the upper Mohawk River on Saturday. Pattee's dog, "Whimpy", encountered an extremely active raccoon and was nearly drowned in a lively battle.

Visiting the family of Allen Wild, is Donald M. Kinch, Professor of Agricultural Engineering, Purdue University. Professor Kinch is doing part time research work in the field of farm machinery, and was in attendance at the convention of the American Association of Agricultural Engineers held in Portland. Mrs. Kinch is a sister of Mrs. Wild.

Mr. & Mrs. H. E. Bailey were recently honored with their 36th wedding anniversary at their home. A fine dinner, including oceans of strawberry shortcake was served the following guests: Mr. & Mrs. Laurence Bailey, Creswell, Mr. & Mrs. J. Fish, Garden Way, Mr. & Mrs. James Bailey, Mr. & Mrs. Earl Bailey and Mr. & Mrs. Jack Duval, Springfield; Mrs. Lela Andrews, Texas, and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Pattee, Wend- D. Lytle's are Mr. & Mrs. J. D. ling.

Guests at the home of the T. Harding, daughter Shirley and son "Bud", Buckeye, Arizona. The Hardings plan on remaining here until late summer.

Logging operations on the ranch of Mrs. Alice J. Matteson have begun. The logs are being trucked out at the bend beyond the school house.

Dean Cramer, Cottage Grove, is a visitor at the Claire Count home.

At the conclusion of the Jolly Neighbors Club held at Mrs. John Downing's on Friday, Mrs. Eugene Fisher, a member, was presented by the club with a beautiful 32-piece set of dinner dishes as a going-away gift.

Two of our local boys won prizes and honorable mention in Junior Rodeo, Eugene. Lester Swofford and Lee Downing.

House guests at the home of the Elmer Swofford's include, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Sturtz and daughters, Betty Joy and Anne, and son Glenn, Walnut Grove, Calif., Mrs. Sturtz' brother and family, Mr. & Mrs. Melvin Shove and sons, Arthur & Frank, Springfield. Sturtz came by plane from 'Frisco and the other members motored.

Mohawk News

MOHAWK — There will be Sunday School and church services Sunday morning, July 4. There also will be services in the evening at 8 p.m. with the Young People's Fellowship group in charge. Rev. Alexander Mersdorf will give the sermon of the evening.

Mrs. Avil Dunn was hostess at a recent family reunion Sunday to which 30 relatives were present. Guests came from Cottage Grove, Fall Creek, Lowell, Oakridge, Albany, Eugene and Springfield.

DEXTER PERSONALS

DEXTER—Kay Quiley of Medford is visiting her aunt Mrs. Ruth Parker.

Mr. and Mrs. James Parker and four children of Clay Springs, Ariz. are visiting his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pettis of Dexter and a brother in Lowell.

Donald Harrsch is visiting in Colorado. His grandmother will return with him.

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE

GASOLINE ALLEY

BLONDIE

WASH TUBS

ALLEY OOP

BUZZ SAWYER

STEVE ROPER

OUT OUR WAY

OUR BOARDING HOUSE