Three changes were made in the tentative plan at the request of persons in the area affected. One established the area from Ash St. to the north city limits between

Phoenix Marriage Rite Scene For Sistie and Oregon Groom

PHOENIX, Ariz.—(AP)—To millions of Americans it seems only yesterday that she was "Sistie" Dall, darling of the White House, but the granddaughter of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt was scheduled to be married Wednesday.

She will wed Van H. Seagraves, 25, Portland, Ore. Among those here for the ceremony was Mrs. Anna Eleanor Roosevelt, widow of the President. The bride, like her own mother, Mrs. John Boettiger, was named for Mrs. Roosevelt, although few know the President's widow as other than Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt.

"Buzzy" On Hand
Present also was Curtis (Buzz) Dall Boettiger, brother of the bride and the "Buzzy" of their childhood days in the White House from 1933 to 1935.

The 20-year-old bride met Seagraves, son of Dr. and Mrs. Charles Seagraves, Oregon City, while both were attending Reed College, Portland. The campus romance culminated in their engagement as Seagraves was graduated and the "ending branch of the Southern Pacific Railroad and Emery Road as light industrial.

Another made the area from Ash St. south to Main St. from the railroad west to within 120 feet of Pine St. heavy industrial to conform with present conditions.

The third change made the area from Nineteenth to Twenty-third St. between South A St. and the alley to the south light industrial. This would allow maintenance of about 28 residences which are now located there.

The planners refused a request to change frontage on the south side of Main St. between Twenty-third St. from Commercial to central business because they believed it would create greater traffic and pedestrian hazards.

Under the proposed plan, the new part of the city would be zoned essentially as follows:

1—Light industrial on the south side of Main St. to the depth of about one block from the old city limits east to Emery Road.

2—Central business on the north side of Main St. from Twentieth to Twenty-third Sts. extending in depth to Walnut St.

3—Commercial district between Main St. and Walnut St. from Twenty-third St. to Emery Road.

4—Heavy industrial from the light industrial district south of Main St. to the southern city limits and also east of the Wendling branch of the S. P.

5—Single family residential from Walnut St. north to the city limits.

"Sistie" finished her junior year. The couple will live in Portland, where Seagraves will work for a packing company as a salesman.

Republican
Seagraves, who comes from Republican parents and himself is a registered Republican, was a lieutenant (jg) in the naval reserve during the war.

The bride's step-father returned to this country last week from a tour of Europe to gather material for a series of articles and "maybe a book." He flew here for the wedding at the Boettiger home. The ceremony was to be performed by Rev. Morton T. Kelsey of Trinity Episcopal Church.

Weekend Accidents Reported Total 26

Sheriff C. A. Swarts announced Wednesday that 26 accident reports had been filed in his office for the period from last Friday through Tuesday.

Most of the long weekend's accidents were fender scrapes that did not involve personal injury or large scale property damage. Sheriff Swarts reported. None of the accidents involved fatal injuries.

The sheriff pointed out that all accidents happening in Lane County but not in the corporate limits of a city, must be reported in his office. Out-of-state drivers are included in the law, Sheriff Swarts added, and insurance companies will not process claims unless the accident reports have been filed.

Drivers are also required to notify their insurance company immediately in case of an accident, so that statements of financial responsibility can be furnished to the proper authorities.

City accidents are reported at the city hall.
