David Wirt

Loss of their young son, David, 12, occurred July 8 to Dr. and Mrs. Williston Wirt, formerly of Eugene, according to word received here by friends of the couple. The boy was stricken with polio July 4, the disease affecting his respiratory organs and throat, and he died two days later. His death occurred shortly after the birth of the first grandchild of the Wirts, to Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Wirt, July 2.

Dr. Wirt formerly was pastor of First Congregational Church in Eugene, and now is pastor of the Community Church at Chula Vista, Calif. Until the latter part of July, however, Mr. and Mrs. Wirt are in Berkeley. Their address there is 1529 McGee Avenue, Berkeley, 3.

Registration Still Open

County Clerk W. B. Dillard announced Monday that Republicans and Democrats who want to be on the November ballot as precinct committeemen must file declarations of candidacy by Aug. 9.

There is no filing fee, and any legal voter who is a resident of his precinct may run for committeeman, Dillard said.

Registration will remain open for persons who want to vote in November, until Oct. 1. Any person who has moved since the last election must re-register, in order to vote in his new precinct.

County Road Workers Get Wage Increases

Wage increases averaging 60 cents a day were provided county road and bridge crews in an order on file Monday.

New wages begin at $8.40 a day for labor and run up to $11.90 a day for top welders.

Judge Clinton Hurd said that the increase was not as much as the county would like to have made but that it was all that could be met by the present budget.

Lula Lavina Hansen

Lula Lavina Hansen, 57, High Banks Road, Springfield, died at a Eugene hospital Sunday. She was born in Dallas, Ore. Feb. 24, 1891, and lived in Springfield the past 30 years. She was married to Christian W. Hansen in Portland Jan. 5, 1910, and was a member of the Springfield Methodist Church.

Surviving are her widower; one daughter, Mrs. K. R. Gile; one son, Virgil Hansen; a grandson, Virgil Gile; mother, Mrs. Lucy Campbell; two sisters, Mrs. Stella Gilliam, Seattle, and Mrs. Alva Taner, Bellevue, Wash.; a brother, Arthur West, San Jose, Calif.

Services will be at Bartholomew-Buell Mortuary Wednesday at 11 a.m., with the Rev. Ellsworth Tilton officiating. Interment will be in Laurel Hill Cemetery.

Temporary Replacement Moves in a Marine

County Clerk W. B. Dillard Monday announced the appointment of Mel L. Wadman, former Veteran Administration staff member, to the position in the clerk's office left vacant when Lloyd Howe became ill.

Dillard said that Wadman, a Marine and a pre-war personnel veteran of three years in the administration, would be deputy clerk in the election department.

Howe, who will be 65 next year, will return to work as soon as his health permits, Dillard said. Howe will be required to retire next year under the Oregon law.

Wadman, 39, served with the University of Oregon office of the VA from 1946 until his appointment in the clerk's office.

James A. Storer

James A. Storer, Portland, died July 9. He was born in Deadwood, S.D., Oct. 28, 1902. A former resident of Eugene, he drove a city bus for 20 years. Surviving are his widow, Eba; a son, Wayne Warner, Eugene; two brothers, Frank, of Portland, and Virgil, of Eugene; a sister, Mrs. Austin Olsen, Redmond.

Services will be Tuesday at Mt. Scott Mortuary in Portland, with interment in Lincoln Memorial Park.

Playground Residents To Discuss Problems

Residents of the neighborhood around the 19th and Lawrence playground will meet Tuesday at 8 p.m. to discuss traffic and other problems related to operation of the recreational area.

Don January, superintendent of parks and recreation, suggested the meeting, to be held at the city hall, to promote a neighborhood playground association which will help supervise the playground.

project and promote satisfactory solutions of attendant problems. Such organizations eventually will be formed in all neighborhoods where city parks and play areas are operated.

John J. Wilson

John J. Wilson, 813 13th Ave. E., died July 11 at a local hospital. Complete obituary and funeral arrangements will be announced from Poole-Larsen Mortuary.
