Eugene Finishes in Strokes Up

Portland's Dick Yost Wins Medalist Honors

By BILL LOVE
Eugene Country Club's six-man team brought the Willamette Valley Golf Association team title home this week-end in the annual WVGA tournament over the Country Club

Eugene's golfers totaled a neat 18-hole round to 36 on Sunday, a 36 and a 45 Saturday and a 36 on Sunday. This was 108, better than Medford's 905. Eugene held a two-stroke edge over the Country Club

Medalist honors went to 19-hole Dick Yost of Portland, who shot a 36 on Sunday, a 36 on Saturday and a 36 on Sunday. This was 108, better than Medford's 905. Eugene held a two-stroke edge over the Country Club

SID MILLIGAN, left, a four-time medalist, congratulates young Dick Yost of Portland on grabbing medalist honors at the 1948 WVGA tournament played last week-end over the Country Club course. Yost had a 140, four under par, playing for Rose City, while Milligan took runner-up honors with 142 in leading the Eugene Country Club team to victory. Incidentally, Milligan is coach of the University of Oregon golf team while Yost will be a leading member of the Oregon State golfers next year.

Pat Seerey Bashes Four Homers In One Game

Twin Bill To Tribe

(Associated Press)

James Patrick Seerey of the Chicago White Sox has taken his place in the major league baseball record books alongside such illustrious home run sluggers as Lou Gehrig, Ed Delahanty, Bobby Lowe and Chuck Klein.

The Jut-jawed, barrel-chested outfielder slammed four home runs in one game Sunday to become the fifth big leaguer to achieve the feat.

His one-man slugging rampage overshadowed other important Sunday results such as Cleveland's sweep of a doubleheader from Washington 2-1 and 6-4, to increase the Indians' first place lead in the American League to a game and a half; and the Boston Braves' two triumphs over Pittsburgh, 10-2 and 3-1, which gave them an eight-game bulge in the National League pennant race.

Seerey belted his four home runs in an 11-inning game in which the White Sox defeated the Philadelphia Athletics, 12-10, in the first of a double header. The A's captured the second game 6-1.

Three of Seerey's circuit clouts came in successive innings—the fourth, fifth and sixth. The fourth snapped a 11-11 tie in the 11th.

Ralph Kiner spoiled Vern Bickford's record game shutout bid with a home run, his 26th of the season and the 100th of his career.

Cleveland nosed out Washington twice to gain a full game on the second place Athletics and the third place Yankees.

Hal Newhouser, who begged out of the all-star game with a sore arm, gained his 14th victory of the season, pitching the Detroit Tigers to a 5-3 first game triumph over the Yankees. The Yankees swamped the Tigers 12-4 in the second game.

The fourth place Boston Red Sox moved within two and a half games of the Yankees by sweeping both ends of a doubleheader from the St. Louis Browns, 12-5

Steen's Date Ghosts Tonight

The lighter side of softball will be offered local fans tonight at Civic Stadium when the Steen Marketeers play the famed comical Colored Ghosts of Sioux City, Iowa at Civic Stadium. Everybody's Drug will meet Richardson Allen of Springfield in an earlier game at 8 p.m.

The Ghosts, with their ball handling wizardry and famous shadow ball act, are really a laugh-provoking troupe. But nonetheless they play some of the best softball in the country.

Sunday night the Steen team played Produce Merchants of the Portland Major League at Portland and lost 2-1 after holding an earlier 1-0 lead.

Eugene Juniors Bop Toledo Nine, 8-1

TOLEDO, July 19—The Eugene Legion team, paced by Gene Lewis both on the mound and at the plate, snowed out the Toledo Junior Legion team, 8-1 here Saturday afternoon.

Lewis hurled two-hit ball and paced a heavy hitting attack that two Toledo pitchers failed to check. The Eugene High pitcher collected five hits in five times up, two triples, two doubles, and a single.

Diego Half Game Out Of Lead; Bevus Split

Those early season cracks heard in some quarters about San Diego not being up to the ambitious Coast League standards were being swallowed Monday.

The Padres were only one game out of first place after dividing shutout wins, 4-0 and 0-7, with Sacramento Sunday and, with the season less than two-thirds gone, boasted a new attendance record.

Jack Graham—the big reason why the Padres have never had it so good—clouted his 44th home run to conduct Tom Seals to his three-hit victory in the opener.

Oakland held its slim lead by defeating Hollywood, 9-4, in the first game and assuring a four-three series edge.

Los Angeles concluded a six-two series rout of San Francisco with an 8-4, 9-2 twin win. The Angels hopped back into third place—2½ games off the pace and a game ahead of the Seals.

Dick Barrett racked up his 200th win in a Seattle uniform with a 9-1 triumph over Portland. He scattered seven hits and drove in two himself. The Beavers took the nightcap, 7-4, to clinch the series, five-three. Two Portland homers—by Harvey Storey and Herman Reich—outweighed one by Seattle's Neil Sheridan.

Extra bases knocked paid off for the Snellstrom Braves at Civic Stadium Sunday afternoon and as a result they moved a notch ahead of the Miller Lumbermen in the second-half Cascade League baseball race by virtue of their 3-2 win over the Hills Creek Hill-billies.

The Braves found Duke Windsor for two tallies in the third, then after a two-run error had tied it up Fitcher Bill Hanauka scored the winning run on Ted Wilson's single or Jack Fasset's glove at second in the seventh.

But for those brief flurries of power hitting the game was scoreless and well played indeed. Hanauka allowed the Billies but five hits while Windsor was knicked for eight—three of them doubles.

The Snellstrom win set the stage for a showdown battle between them and the Lumbermen Friday night. But first the Miller nine must get by the dangerous "Billie team in a Wednesday night encounter.

Pete Taylor touched Windsor for the first blow, a screaming double through third in the second, but that was all the damage that could be done that inning. The real thrust came in the third.

Wilson Collects RBI's
Hanauka started things off when he doubled with one away. After another putout Wilson singled him home with a hit that sent Centerfielder Ray Stratton crashing into the centerfield boards in an attempt to field it. Wilson stole second and Gale Smith doubled him home with his liner to deep left.

A two run error by Rightfielder Del Koch produced the Hills Creek runs. With one away Don Kimball walked, and Fasset was hit by a pitched ball. After another out Duke Windsor sent a long fly out to right that got by Koch and the two runners scored.

The Billies threatened again in the seventh when Kimball doubled but was out when Snellstrom Doughty singled the sign. Ed Dowey singled but Windsor struck out to end the threat.

In the seventh Hanauka was safe on Kimball's error at short and made second, coming home on Wilson's game-winning singleton.

Both clubs got men on in the ninth but they were left stranded with no serious damage resulting. Three Snellstrom players fattened their averages with two for four, Wilson, Dick Bishop and Smith, but it remained for Wilson to collect two of the three RBI's.

Al Szasz Gets Sweet Revenge From Jones

Wilson Bats in Winning Score

Windsor Beaten in 2nd Half Feature, 3-to-2

Al Szasz, the high flying Hungarian, Saturday night successfully defended his Coast wrestling crown and at the same time handed his arch rival Rufus Jones a resounding defeat, collecting two falls to his opponents single tally.

Referee Jack Poppenheimer gave Jones plenty of warning and opportunity to wrestle clean, but the head-butting Negro went right after Szasz with his head smashes and Poppenheimer, true to his word, awarded the fall to Szasz on a disqualification foul.

Jones came back heated and got real revenge, pinning the titleholder with a Boston-crab to even the score and come close to Szasz's wrestling crown.

Jones went all out in the final meeting, nearly putting Szasz down for the long count with his

Albany Legion Suffers Loss

SPRINGFIELD, July 19 — The Springfield Jr. Legion baseball team Sunday afternoon ended the fifteen game winning streak of the Albany Juniors by whipping the District No. 3 American Junior Legion Baseball League leaders by a 5-2 count, behind the very effective four hit hurling of Bob Martin.

Until Sunday, Albany had taken ten league games in their stride, plus five outside contests, without a single defeat. But they ran into a Springfield team that was playing heads-up ball all the way, with Albany aiding the cause with six very costly errors.

Springfield scored one run in the first inning, added two more in the third and singles in the fifth and seventh. Bad throws to first and errored pegs at the initial sack plagued Albany all afternoon and contributed a great deal to their first season's loss.
