Male weavers in the Eugene are holding their annual picnic Sunday, July 25th, at Benton-(Idlewood) park, 17 miles of Eugene on Highway 99.
 Sandwiches, ice cream and liquid refreshments will be served free between 12 noon and 1 p. m.

 A number of cars will leave the Carpenters' building at 5th and Willamette between 11 a. m. and noon to accommodate anyone without transportation.

Dennis Sharp, who lives on 40th Ave. E., Eugene, told state police Monday that two horses are missing from his pasture. One is branded on the shoulder with a VC, and the other on the hip with a double open A. Neither horse is shod.

E. H. McDaniels, managing forester of Forest Conservation Association, will be the guest speaker at the Lions Club meeting Wednesday noon at the Eugene Hotel.

 Forest Service for 33 years before retiring. He will speak on "The Inside Story of Sustained Yield."

Articles of incorporation have been filed at Salem for the Reeds-port Assembly of God, a non-profit corporation, the United Press reported Tuesday. The articles were issued to M. L. Galligan and others. Also reported from Salem was the dissolution of the Eugene Mill and Elevator Co. of Eugene.

Modern Woodmen of America will have an all-day picnic at
