The Eugene Jr. Legion baseball team closed its 1948 home season Tuesday night at Civic Stadium by dropping a ten-inning 9-8 contest to a surprising nine for Siletz. It was a District No. 3 American Junior Legion Baseball League season ended for both clubs, leaving Eugene a record of eight wins and five losses while Siletz finished with seven victories against six defeats.

John Lessel opened on the mound for Eugene, but could only last until the third, after being touched for eight runs off five hits and four infield errors. Paul Shepherd's third inning triple in the centerfield patch highlighted Siletz's big splash, knocking in three runs.

Eugene tallied once in the first, four in the second with Cece Hodge's home run pacing the way, and tied the game in the fourth with a three run outburst. Don Siegmund relieved Lessel in the third and hurled no-no ball until the ninth with Eugene leading 9-8. With two down, Siletz put two singles together to crowd the tying run across the plate, while they held Eugene scoreless in their half of the inning.

Again with two men out in the tenth, Pitcher Bob Rilatos singled and stole second with little Dick Nix following him with a double down the right field foul line that brought them the winning run, Eugene unable to score in their half of the frame.

Rilatos went the route for Siletz allowing 10 hits, while he struck out 11, three in the tenth inning. Siegmund was charged with four hits and two runs. Firstbaseman Goodell was leading slugger for the visitors, hitting "three for five," while Mel Jeffries and Rarryl Hebert paced Eugene, each getting three hits in five trips, Hebert a sixth inning triple.

Umpire Bill McGowan On Suspended List

WASHINGTON, July 21—(AP)—Umpire Bill McGowan was on the suspended list Wednesday while American League officials investigated his conduct in the Monday night game between Cleveland and Washington.

McGowan's suspension, announced in Chicago Tuesday by League President Will Harridge, followed a vigorous complaint by Joe Kuhel, manager of the Senators. Kuhel claimed the umpire had thrown a baseball at Outfielder Ed Stewart and had cursed him, and that he also had cursed a strike-and-balls indicator at Pitcher Rae Scarborough.

Said McGowan: "Not so." Before the game was over Kuhel had been bounced from the park for the first time in his 19 years in the majors.

Hollywood Slumps Portland Twice; Oakland Tips Seals

Gus Zernial, the big Hollywood slugger, appears on his way to give the Chicago White Sox something they've needed for years—a one-two plate punch.

The Sox already have Pat Seery, the portly gent who poked four homers in one game Sunday. And unless all signs fail, they'll find room next season for Zernial, who was optioned to the Stars for further development.

The 210-pound Texan looked plenty ripe Wednesday night as he banged out a homer in each game to lead the Stars to a twin Coast League victory over Portland, 8-5 and 8-7.

They were Zernial's 26th and 27th four-masters, putting him second, 17 behind San Diego's Jack Graham. His three runs batted in brought his season's total to 107, a closer runner-up to Graham's 113.

Hollywood made 27 hits including another homer by Jimmy Gladd to win for Rugged Ardzola and Will Butland. The first game went seven innings while the second was called by curfew at the end of eight.

The double victory moved the Stars into a fifth place tie with Seattle—the highest Hollywood has been in months.

The loop-leading Oakland stretched their lead to 2½ games by defeating Seattle, 8-6, while second-place San Diego fell twice before San Francisco, 5-2 and 13-3.

Home runs—Kiner, Pirates, 36; Sauer, Reds, 26; Musial, Cardinals, 22; Keltner, Indians, 22.
Pitching—Fowler, Athletics, 9-2 .818; Post, Giants, 9-2 .818.

Leaders Close In WIL Chase

(UNITED PRESS)
The Western International League race shaped up as a three-way scramble Wednesday as Victoria, hot on the heels of the league-leaders, picked up another half-game.

Third-place Victoria split its twin bill with Salem Tuesday night while Tacoma and Bremerton were losing single games. The Athletics are now only three games out of first place.

Tacoma was outslugged by Wenatchee, 12-10, but still held a slim half-game lead over Bremerton which lost to Spokane, 9-3. Victoria, meanwhile, dropped the opener of its double-header with Salem, 6-4, but won the nightcap, 8-5, with a three-run rally in the seventh inning.

ATLANTA, July 21—(AP)—With two big shakedown rounds behind them the remaining 65 players in the National Public Links golf tournament Wednesday morning began the 36-hole-a-day phase of the meet stilled by the defending champion.

Wilfred Crossley of Brooklyn, last year's winner, was joined at the head of the class Tuesday by the doublebarreled Hawaiian entry of Sadaji Kinoshita and Charlie Makaiwa when the Islanders blasted their second round opponents by identical 8 and 7 scores.

Kinoshita and Mawaiwa went out in this morning's third round as thoroughbred darkhorses in the opinion of the gallery.

Rudolph Karry, Philadelphia, 1 up.
Tab Boyer, Portland, lost to Berbert Seeger, Peoria, Ill., 3 up.
Al Gustafson, Spokane, defeated Jack Russell Jr., Memphis, 3 and 2.
Lou Stafford, Portland, defeated Bill McCool, San Francisco, 1 up on 19th.
Bill O'Brien, Seattle, defeated Sam Musico, Carnegie, Pa., 3 and 2.
Don Taylor, Seattle, defeated Clarence Alexander, Raleigh, N.C., 4 and 2.
John Foley, Seattle, defeated John Maughan, San Francisco, 2 and 1.
Palmer Smith, Seattle, defeated Paul Mullins, Atlanta, 1 up.
