

HANDICRAFT WORKER—Mrs. Minnie Buchanan, one of the "Norton, N.C., Weavers" along the handicraft trail in the Southern Appalachians, makes for the tourist trade one of the towels for which the community is noted.

Commercial potash deposits in the United States are believed to be adequate for several generations.

'So Sorry' Says Anti-Red

SAGA, Japan—Coal Miner Ichiro Koga told police Tuesday he was sorry he failed to kill Communist Leader Kyuichi Tokuda.

Koga, 21, tossed a home-made grenade at Tokuda while the latter was addressing a meeting here Monday night. Tokuda was taken to a hospital where his condition was reported as "pretty good."

"I'm sorry I did not kill him," Koga said. "Nobody ordered me to commit the act. I did it on my own account because I feel the Communist party is obstructing the real democratization of Japan. That is why I belong to the Anti-Communist League."

Koga surrendered to police shortly after the incident and confessed he had thrown the grenade. Jiji news agency said Koga also planned to assassinate Yoshio Shiga and other leading Japanese Communists.

AT WALKER

WALKER—A new building going up at Walker is a Myrtlewood Shop owned by Ora Powell on highway 99. Powell has sold his Myrtlewood shop south of Cottage Grove and moved here recently.

AT SANTA CLARA

SANTA CLARA—Andrew M. Bull left Sunday for the Veterans' Hospital in Portland, where he will take a series of treatments and be gone two or three weeks.

Future Ruler 14 Years Old

TOKYO—Akahito is 14. Some day he may be Emperor of Japan and its 90,000,000 people. Until three years ago he believed he was descended from heaven — and untouchable by human hands.

On his birthday Akahito came to school as usual. His shirt was wrinkled and his shoes needed polish.

Five Americans were there to entertain the crown prince and his 268 schoolmates with an ordinary magician's show.

Akahito was called to the stage. He was handed an American 50-cent piece—which then disappeared in a flash.

Through it all he was sober-faced. Then the magician pulled out a paper hat—and plotted it on Akahito's head. Akahito snatched off the hat and held it stiffly at his side. His schoolmates giggled.

AT SHEDD

SHEDD—Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Pool have received word of the arrival of a baby girl at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Robb. Mrs. Robb was Miss Ferne Pool and a graduate of Shedd High School. The little girl has an older brother.

Mrs. Jessie Pool went last Thursday to Eugene for a major operation.

The Shedd Garden Club's next meeting is with Ella LaMarr, Mrs. Violet Grossnicklaus as co-

Elmira Personals

EIMIRA—Relatives from Kansas are visiting Mrs. Lillian Mier and son for a few weeks. Visitors at the Al Martin home include their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Jack McCarty of Modesto, Cal., and Mrs. Jennie McKinnon of Oakland, Calif. Mr. and Mrs. Lester Sweet and sons and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Sweet, made a trip to Olympia, Wash., over the week end, taking Mrs. Mary Gibson to see her sister, Mrs. James Rice, whom she hasn't seen for 20 years. The Mission Circle of Elmira Church of Christ meets Tuesday all day with Mrs. Lora Johnson.

The pedestal on which the Statue of Liberty stands is 10 stories high.

TRIANGULAR SITUATION—A Chicago delivery man for a diaper service, was robbed of $85 and pants. He left his truck and walked to the nearest phone call police, wearing a kilt of rowed diapers.
