YMPIA —(AP)— Two former rnors and the incumbent were e race for the state's chief ve position Wednesday as the ical campaign began to take anent shape.

e deadline for filing passed Tuesday. Only last minute couts will change the picture. idates have until July 26 to draw and keep their name the primary election ballot. rmer Governor Clarence D. tin made heated campaign for Democratic gubernatorial ination inevitable when he filed against the incumbent, Governor Wallgren. Also in the race—as a Republican—is former governor Arthur B. Langlie.

It was Langlie who defeated Martin in 1940, only to lose to Wallgren four years later.

Martin, in a statement issued as he joined the race, said he has "felt for a long time that the great state of Washington deserves far better administration. It needs efficient business-like government—a sincere administration for the good of all people. . . I stand on my past record."

Eight other candidates—six Republican and two Democratic—also seek the gubernatorial nomination.

Some Mounted Routes Will Pick Up Letters

Eight mounted route carriers from Eugene Postoffice have now been authorized to pick up first class mail if patrons raise the flag on their mail boxes.

Acting Postmaster Ethan Newman announced Wednesday that a request for this service on mounted routes had been authorized, and that the new ruling affects about 600 families on each of the eight routes. Previously, mounted route carriers who drive cars could pick up outgoing mail only if they stopped to leave mail. The new service affects only stamped, first class mail, and the carriers will not have to take parcel post.

Trial Dates Set For Springfielders

SPRINGFIELD — Two men pleaded not guilty to separate charges in municipal court here Monday and had trial dates set by Municipal Judge Robert Carmichael.

James E. Hamon, 234 Eleventh Ave. E., Eugene, charged with driving under the influence of intoxicating liquor posted $200 bail. His trial is set for July 29.

Harley R. Norris, 315 C St., Springfield, charged with being on the streets in an intoxicated condition posted $25 bail and his trial was set for July 26.

Cheshire Logger Treated for Hurts

Elmer Simons of Cheshire was admitted to Eugene Hospital Tuesday after a logging accident 31 miles west of Eugene on the Noti cutoff, according to Arrow Ambulance drivers.

The ambulance attendants said Simons was admitted for X-ray. Simons was not listed as a patient Wednesday, however, and presumably had been discharged from the hospital.

Jade colors vary from deep green or black to pure milk white or cream tinted, with rarer finds of yellow, red, mauve, and mottled.
