

CITY NEWS NOTES

R. A. George, 18, of 847 D St. in Springfield was a recent enlistee in the army. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Oscar George. Also enlisting in the army through Eugene recruiting offices was Richard Eugene Christina of Lorane Route, Cottage Grove.

City police Wednesday morning were called to investigate a burglary at 219 Fifth Ave. W. Three men rooming there told officers that someone entered their room in the night and stole their overalls. Two pair of overalls later were found outside the house, but the pockets had been emptied of all valuables. Dave Enoch said that his loss included $58 in cash and a watch. Raymond Brice and Tony Cash reported their losses much smaller.

Wiley E. Littlejohn of Coburg Wednesday was reported to have suffered a compound leg fracture when a choker chain struck him at the Doty Brothers logging operation Tuesday afternoon. Littlejohn was brought to a Eugene hospital by Valley Ambulance.

Irving Oddfellows Lodge No. 79 will hold its annual picnic Sunday at Benton-Lane park. "Chow" will be served at p.m. The lodge will furnish the ice cream and coffee.

A demonstration of fire-resisting chemicals will be held Thursday at 7 p.m. at the Golden Gate Lumber Co., Fire Chief E. L. Surfus reported Wednesday.

A building permit for an $18,000 residence was issued Tuesday to H. R. Swanson. Noted. The eleven-room, two-story home will be erected at 2242 Hilyard.

Mrs. John Gilbert, Goshen, reported a Silver King bicycle stolen from the Goshen gravel pit last weekend. The sheriff's office said Wednesday that the missing bike is silver colored and has a broken sprocket.

Local Reserve Officers Study at Ft. Lewis

Major John A. Hackenbruck and Captain Hubert E. Totman of the 832nd Field Artillery Battalion, Organized Reserve Corp. Eugene, are in Fort Lewis, Wash. for two days of active-duty training. Major Clarence W. Petersen of the regular army, unit instructor for the Eugene branch of the ORC, is also at the Fort Lewis meeting.

The three men will secure the necessary preparatory information for the two-week summer training camp for artillery units of the Northwest area to be held at Fort Lewis from August 22 to September 5.

Fourteen members of the 832nd attended the regular Tuesday night training session at headquarters located at 1450 West Twelfth. The terrain puffboard was used for the first time, and proved very successful.

Simulated fire direction problems were worked out on the puffboard by every member attending. Major Hackenbruck was in charge, assisted by Captain Totman.

Elmer Floyd Tuckness

Funeral services will be held in Eugene Thursday for Elmer Floyd Tuckness, who died at Mapleton July 14.

Tuckness, 64, had been a Lane County resident 25 years. He was born Dec. 9, 1884, and is survived by the following: a son, Wallace of Seattle; two brothers, Jesse of Springfield, Mo., and Clyde Tuckness of New York; two sisters, Myrtle Kriddle of Riverside, Calif., and Mrs. Bertha Scott, also in California. He was a member of the Astoria Masonic Lodge.

Graveside services will be at Westlawn Memorial Park Thursday, July 22, at 11 a.m., with the Masonic Lodge in charge of the committal service. Bartholomew-Buell Chapel in Springfield is in charge of arrangements.

Catherine Ruth Vincent

Mrs. Catherine Ruth Vincent of Eugene and Springfield died suddenly while visiting a friend, Mrs. John Flynn, in Corvallis Tuesday evening, the Warner-McHenry Funeral Home reported.

Mrs. Vincent was born in Detroit, Mich., Sept. 15, 1871 and was reared and educated in that city. She was married to Fred C. Vincent Oct. 25, 1890 and they lived there until 1900. The couple moved to Helena, Mont., living there until 1903, and in Spokane until 1919. Mrs. Vincent lived in Portland until 1946, when she moved to this area. Her husband died in 1915.

Survivors include three daughters.

Mrs. Gladys Morgan in Springfield, Mrs. Vera Rinker in Loomis, Wash.; Mrs. Marie Sinclair in Chehalis, Wash.; two sisters and two brothers in Detroit; seven grandchildren and eight great grandchildren. Funeral arrangements are under direction of Warner-McHenry Funeral Home and will be announced later. Mrs. Vincent's Springfield address was with her daughter at 1362 East Main St.
