Rescuer Dies In Cliff Drop

TUCSON, Ariz.—(AP)—A sheriff's investigator was killed Monday when he fell nearly 1000 feet while rescuing a 15-year-old boy from a mountain ledge on which he had been trapped all night.

John D. Anderson fell down the face of a cliff and into a lake. The boy, Guy L. Rockefeller, Jr., was pulled to safety.

Anderson had been lowered about 500 feet down the side of the mountain to where the boy was huddling on a narrow ledge. Anderson tied the rope around the tired and frightened boy. Then he took a hold on the rope a few feet above the youth and both were pulled up the face of the sheer mountain.

When within 10 feet of the top, Anderson slipped from the rope. Anderson undertook the rescue despite the fact he had a wooden leg.

Young Rockefeller became trapped on the ledge when a landslide cut him off from the route he had traversed while climbing up. He had gone into the mountains on a picnic Sunday with his father and five other youngsters.

Cannery Workers Set Contract Discussion

Cannery workers local union of the AF of L continues to discuss union security clauses for a contract which has not yet been signed with Eugene Fruit Growers Assn., according to Mrs. Alice Bissell, union business manager.

Union members will discuss the company's latest offer at a meeting at Carpenters Hall at 8 p.m. Wednesday. Mrs. Bissell said the union answer would be taken back to the firm probably Thursday morning.

The cost of living and the current meat-buyers' strike in Eugene will be discussed at the meeting by Mrs. Agnes McCloskey, chairman of the meat boycott.

Mrs. Bissell has urged that members still on withdrawal and still seeking employment attend the meeting and leave their names so they may be placed at the first opportunity. She said the first corn crew would begin work at 3 p.m. Thursday.

Labor Splits In Texas Over Johnson Approval

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Organized labor split Monday for the first time on congressional endorsements in its campaign to beat legislators who voted for the Taft-Hartley Law.

Four operating railroad brotherhoods revealed they have endorsed Rep. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas for the Democratic nomination for senator in the Texas primary Aug. 28. Johnson voted to pass the new labor law over President Truman's veto.

The heads of the engineers, conductors, switchmen, and the firemen and engineers said they decided that Johnson's voting record on various railroad bills outweighed his "wrong" vote for the Taft-Hartley Act.

Total of 177 Entered For Precinct Offices

A total of 135 Republicans and 42 Democrats have filed for precinct offices for the November general elections, according to the county clerk's office.

The deadline for filing for precinct offices was 5 p.m. Monday.

There are 494 precinct offices in the county's 123 precincts, two from each party in each precinct. The remaining offices will probably be filled by ballot write-ins in November, M. L. Wadman, deputy clerk for elections, said.
