

'L' Swim Pool Design Liked As Water 'Traffic' Safety Aid

SPRINGFIELD — Included in the widely acclaimed Willamalane Park and Recreation District plans for $285,000 bond issue to support an ambitious expansion campaign is provision for an L-shaped swimming pool costing $75,000. And since our announcement, we have had a chain of calls about an L-shaped pool. "Whoever heard of it?" they ask," said Mrs. Irene Squires, superintendent. Common in East.

Swimming pools shaped like T's and L's are fairly common throughout the East, but the first construction of this type nearby is in Medford. Purpose of the L-shape is to provide a distinct area of diving without interference with the more timid swimmers in shallower water.

Safety "Swimmers who have had to dodge divers while they used a pool will appreciate the idea behind the new design," says President William James of the district board. Another innovation in the pool for the safety of tots to teen agers, according to James, is the plan for a barrier separating the pool into two areas. Dimensions One, the trunk of the L, will be 75' by 60', and the extension with diving boards will run tournament size, 75' by 45'. The trunk area will not exceed 3 1/2 feet in depth and will be safe for novices, but also deep enough for the average swimmer, according to James.

MORE INFLATION PORTLAND — (AP) — Western timber is staging an unprecedented growth because of a wet weather cycle that began in 1940. Ernest Kolbe, chief forester for the Western Pine Assn. said all species are responding to the cycle, but added the weather has increased infestation of trees.
