

746th Bomb Squadron and the Air Force Reserves Assn. will be held August 24 at 7:30 p. m. in the Eugene Veteran's Memorial Bldg. Col. Clifford Patton, commanding officer of the 746th, said that all Squadron personnel are required to attend and that all Air Force Reserve members should attend. Refreshments will be served following the meeting.

The Credit Bureau of Eugene will meet at noon Monday in the Eugene Hotel for the purpose of discussing new credit regulations and conducting a run-off on the ties in the elections to the board of directors.

Members of Carpenters and Joiners Local 1253 and their families will picnic at Skinner Butte Sunday starting at 1 p. m. Refreshments furnished.

Prop Spinners Get Amazon Schedule

Members of the Eugene Prop Spinners, model airplane group, are now scheduled to fly their gas-powered craft in the Amazon area on Hilyard between 24th and 25th Aves. on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings and on Sunday afternoons.

Morris Morten, president of the organization, reported Saturday that members are being requested to adhere to flying schedules to prevent the creation of a noise disturbance in the district.

On the weekday evenings flying hours will be from 7 to 8:30 p. m. On Sundays the model enthusiasts will operate their craft from 1 until 2:30 p. m.

EFGA Nut Contracts Deadline Announced

The field department of the Eugene Fruit Growers has announced that Sept. 1 is the final date for the signing of new nut contracts for this season's delivery.

Any contracts in force from last year need not be renewed. The association predicts that the local walnut crop will be heavy in spite of serious blight. Filberts will be somewhat below average.

Board to See School Plans

Completed architect's plans for the new Westmoreland elementary school are scheduled for review by the Eugene School Board at its meeting Monday.

The session, at 8 p. m. in the city hall offices of School District 4, may result in a call for bids on the new building.

Architect John Laurin Reynolds has prepared the plans for the school after a delay of several months resulting from the necessity of determining the course of the westside trunk sewer extension in relation to the new building.

Firemen Plan For Disaster

Nearly 100 Lane County firemen, volunteers and professionals, are expected to attend a meeting at the Eugene fire department Monday at 7:30 p. m.

With representatives of the state fire marshal's office present, the local fire fighters will continue discussions of a community disaster plan which was first suggested at last month's meeting of their Lane County Firemen's Assn.

Ray Hicks, assistant chief of the Eugene department, and Harry Ray, Bethel fire chief, are president and secretary of the association.

Canteen Clubs Start Activities

Cards have gone out to members and prospective members of the YMCA-YWCA teen canteen clubs announcing resumption of fall and winter activities.

Members of the Skyline Club, senior high group, and of the junior high canteen group may secure membership cards at the Y Community Center where sessions are held. Senior memberships are 50 cents a year, and junior cards are 25 cents.

The senior group is open to all senior students plus students who are entering school as high school freshmen this year. Members of the junior group must be student at junior high school.

The junior canteen will have its first session Friday, Sept. 17, and the Skyline Club on Saturday, Sept. 18.

Cards should be secured between now and the time school starts.

Smith Gets Amateur Radio Union Award

The coveted WAC (Worked All Continents) award of the International Amateur Radio Union, was awarded recently to a Eugene man, Dale P. Smith, who operates a federally licensed amateur radio station with call W7HLB at his home at 745 11th Ave. W.

The award was given after Smith succeeded in contacting at least one amateur station in each of the six continents of the world: North America, South America, Africa, Europe, Asia and Oceania.

To qualify for the award, Smith was in two-way radiotelephonic contact with amateurs in Canal Zone, Venezuela, New Zealand, Scotland, South Africa and Mexico, Asia.

ALL THOSE FRECKLES won honors for Elaine Johnson, 10, and Larry Bishop, 11, in the Eugene playground freckle contest held last week. This is the third time in a year that Elaine has won a freckle contest. (Willshire photo and engraving).
