New Church Unit Ceremony Set

Members of Central Lutheran Church in Eugene will conduct a ground-breaking ceremony Sunday, to signal the beginning of the second unit of three to be built at Eighteenth Ave. and Potter St. After the 11 a.m. service at the present church, Sixth and Pearl Sts., the congregation will attend the ceremony at the building site. Nearing completion is a modern-type parish home. Next unit for which ground will be broken Sunday is a parish hall and educational unit, which will be used for worship and all other activities until the church itself is constructed later.

Local Dog Show Scheduled Sept. 19

Dog show plans for Sunday, Sept. 19, at the armory are again proceeding smoothly after some difficulty in straightening out the date and place with the American Kennel Club. Since points toward championships will be given in all breeds, the AKC's consent must be secured in many matters.

Confirmation has just been received by Mrs. Ray Bond, president of the Eugene Kennel Club. The local club gave its first big show last year, with nearly 400 dogs coming from all over the western states.

This year more than 3000 an-

Stable Owner Sued By Renter of Horse

A damage suit for $15,000 on behalf of Norbin Arch Lambert, Jr., against Clarence C. Fairbanks was on file in circuit court Saturday. Lambert alleges he sustained permanent injury to his right foot and ankle as a result of being struck by an automobile while riding a horse rented from the defendant's stables, across Highway 99 two miles north of Eugene. Lambert in his complaint further alleges that Fairbanks was negligent in telling him that the horse was easy to handle. The plaintiff claims special damages for medical and other expenses in the amount of $482.83.
