Collins Plans 2nd Display

A crowd estimated at 2000 persons viewed the Ivan Collins collection of historical vehicles in miniature Saturday afternoon and Sunday, members of the Children's Hospital School board estimated.

Shown for benefit of the John Phetteplace Memorial School for crippled children which will be built in Eugene to replace the hospital school, the two-day exhibit realized $457.

Because crowds were unexpectedly large, Mr. and Mrs. Collins have agreed to open the collection again next Sunday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Those who were not able to view the collection at the first showing will be welcome to attend. More details will be announced.
