Handwriting Expert to Aid In Hiss-Chambers Tangle

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The House Un-American Activities Committee assigned an investigator Friday to track down a new report that Alger Hiss and Whitaker Chambers once were interested in the same old farm near Westminster, Md.

The committee also brought in a handwriting expert in an attempt to get to the bottom of the widely different stories the two men have told about their relationship a dozen years ago.

The latest story the spy investigators are trying to run down is that Hiss made a down-payment to a real estate agent on the Maryland farm but lost interest in the property and didn't complete the purchase. Then Chambers was reported to have bought the farm later and his family was said to have lived there for a while.

Link Indicated

Rep. Nixon (R-Calif.) told reporters the committee intends to see if "this is another link in the chain of evidence or just pure coincidence." It is possible, he said, that it may show the two men were "much more closely connected than previously indicated."

The committee members are searching for a key to crack the Hiss-Chambers riddle.

They claimed some success: A sworn statement by ex-Communist Louis Budenz that he always had considered Hiss to be under party discipline.

Calls Him "Liar"

Hiss, former top-level State Department official, has heatedly denied any red tinge. He called Whitaker Chambers a liar Wednesday for telling the House Un-American Activities Committee that Hiss had a leading part in a prewar Communist underground here.

Chambers, self-described former courier for the underground, stuck to his story and said it is Hiss who is lying.

The committee summoned the handwriting expert to check the writing of a William Rosen against the signature "William Rosen" on a title transfer of Hiss' old Model A Ford in 1936.

Won't Answer

Rosen, 64-year-old native of Austria who runs a valet shop here, testified Thursday at a secret committee meeting. But Rep. McDowell (R-Pa.) said Rosen refused, on constitutional grounds, to answer any questions about the Ford transaction or to say whether

15 German Editors To Study in U S

NEW YORK — (AP) — Fifteen Western German editors have been invited to America to study "The function of a free press in a democratic society," it was announced Thursday. They will stay six weeks, starting next month.

The trip will be financed by the Rockefeller Foundation at the request of Dwight D. Eisenhower, president of Columbia University. The editors will reside at Columbia as guests of the American Press Institute, which made the announcement.

Half their stay will be spent in discussion seminars at the institute conducted by 34 leaders in the American journalistic world. Each editor also will pass two weeks as an observer on an American newspaper or magazine.

He never had had any Communist affiliation.

Chambers, whom Hiss has acknowledged knowing and befriending under another name, claims Hiss wanted the car to be turned over to some poor Communist organizer.

Hiss maintains he simply threw the Ford in on an apartment sublease he arranged with Chambers. Budenz, who renounced Communism several years ago and now is a professor at Fordham University, said he knew Lee Pressman, Nathan Witt and John Abt, as Communists, and knew Edwin Smith, a former member of the National Labor Relations Board, "to be a member of the party."

Budenz made it clear that he did not know Hiss personally.

The luminous moss appears to glow with an iridescent light.

Grocery Workers Vote Union Shop

Truckers and warehousemen at the R. E. Lafferty wholesale grocery in Eugene voted in favor of a union shop during an election conducted this week under requirements of the Taft-Hartley law.

NLRB Representative Mrs. David Shaw said five employees voted yes, three voted no.

Statewide union shop elections are being conducted among employees at plants owned by McDonald Candy Co. Results may be announced from Portland later.
