

Oakridge Hires School Nurses

OAKRIDGE — Oakridge School District has hired two registered nurses for the Oakridge schools: Nancy Natterlund Clark and Pauline (Freddie) Tullock, both of Westfir, will alternate their time and will be at the grade school every Thursday from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

For many years Oakridge has tried to have a regular school nurse and through the efforts of the P.T.A., Lions Club, Dr. W. E. Harris and other individuals this program was arranged. Their salaries will derive from the health fund of the school district.

Capt. Roy H. Skeens, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Jones of Oakridge, who has been stationed with the Greenville Air Force Base in Virginia, has left to participate in "Operation Camille" at Chesapeake Bay area of Virginia. Captain Skeens is executive officer for the 36th Troop Carrier Squadron.

New arrival at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Kinsey of Willamette City is a baby son, Richard William, born Saturday, Aug. 22.

Mrs. Henry Wilcox and children of Roseburg are spending several days with Mrs. Wilcox's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Blakley.

Mrs. Harold Savage of Westfir is moving to Coos Bay. She is the organizer for the Oakridge Eastern Star Chapter.

Mrs. Frank Mauro and children of Priest River, Idaho, are visiting her uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Holm, in Willamette City.

Dorothy Calvert of Portland is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Robert Kelsay. Her mother, Mrs. Louise Calvert, and sister, Cloe, will arrive soon for a visit.

Grove Catholics to Have Sunday Picnic

COTTAGE GROVE — Members of the Catholic Church are planning a picnic and social afternoon for Sunday, Aug. 29, at Anlauf Park, ten miles south of Cottage Grove on Highway 99. The potluck noon meal will be followed by games and a social afternoon. Phone Russell Smith or Joe Bricher for further information.

Catholic Daughters First Sunday Holy Communion day will be Sept. 5. The next C.D.A. business meeting will be Sept. 13.

Claude Kem, popular local drug store owner, was rushed to Sacred Heart Hospital in Eugene early Monday morning. His condition was reported much improved late Thursday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Kem of Los Angeles arrived here Wednesday, called to be with their father and father-in-law.

Mrs. E. C. Preston of Eugene was honored here last Sunday when relatives gathered at the home of her nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Stewart, for a family dinner and celebration marking her 89th birthday. Three sisters of the honored guest were also present. They were: Mrs. Rose Parker of Cottage Grove, Mrs. Nellie Scyphers, Marcola; and Mrs. Grace Hampton of Eugene. The ages of the four sisters total 321 years.

The sisters are members of a pioneer family which settled in Lane County just 18 miles east of Eugene at Lost Creek (now Dexter) in 1849. The family was the D. S. Hunsaker family. The sisters were all born in the same house and spent their early lives there.

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Sullivan (Betty Romaine) are moving to 44 North H St., the former home of Mrs. Kitty Kline Dittlo, who has moved to Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Anderson and son Gary and daughter Barbara and "Lefty" Martin are vacationing at Oceanlake this week.

Mrs. Edna Piller has been on vacation from the Mt. States office this week. Mrs. Piller and Mrs. Grace Cowan spent last week end at the Oregon Caves.

City Recorder D. J. Allen and Mrs. Allen spent the fore part of this week at the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Gleason enjoyed a motor trip to California points of interest during his vacation from the Quality Market last week.

Mrs. R. L. Sedergren and three children have returned home from a visit in Seattle and Bremerton, Wash.

Melvin St. Clair, employed at Row River, suffered a painful back injury early Wednesday morning and was taken to the Eugene Hospital by Mills ambulance.

Ed Wiese has moved his large house from the corner of H and Ash streets to the lot across the street which he purchased from the city several months ago. Wiese will build a new home on the former location of his house.

AT SANTA CLARA
SANTA CLARA — Mrs. John A. Grant left Wednesday accompanied by Mrs. Lemaert and son Milo Lemaert, to the Veterans Hospital where Grant is very ill. Mrs. Lemaert and Milo returned home Wednesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Vogts, from Mrs. J. W. McMichael and son South Gate, Calif., are visiting Mr. Sunday, Aug. 29. Mr. and Mrs. L. Edwards from San Diego, Calif., will arrive for a visit. The three women are sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Monroe and day from different parts of California where they visited two weeks.

Charles Rinard of Los Angeles is visiting his aunts Mrs. J. E. McCure at Darena and Mrs. H. R. Emerson, Santa Clara, and other relatives while on his vacation.

Grove Citizens Ponder Garbage Dump Problem

COTTAGE GROVE — Mayor H. A. Hagen pointed out Friday that in spite of the closure of both municipal dumps for garbage and refuse, Cottage Grove still has a commercial garbage collector and dump, operated by Bill Spady.

City officials have noted many inquiries from people who have the impression that there is no garbage service at all in Cottage Grove.

L. W. Colner, city engineer, and Robert Drenner, of Culp Creek, attended a meeting at the Lane County courthouse, Thursday, representing Cottage Grove at a county-wide committee meeting with the county court, to consider plans for more modern county-wide garbage disposal.

Another meeting is planned for Tuesday, and Cottage Grove citizens may give Colner and Drenner their ideas on the subject.

Colner is looking for a suitable location for a new municipal garbage dump, and anyone knowing of any available location is asked to see him, at the City Hall. The League of Women Voters will meet Sept. 13 in Eugene to consider further the county-wide problems of garbage disposal, and anyone interested is invited to attend.

Monroe News

MONROE — Next Thursday, Sept. 2, is Farmer's Day in Corvallis, and all friends in the area are invited to come to Corvallis for the day and take part, Chamber of Commerce.

There will be large displays of the latest in farm equipment, of interest to farmers and their wives.

A horseshoe tournament will test the skill of the experts, a picture show will help take care of the children. Food will be sold by the various granges and farmer's unions. Honorary city and county officers will take over the city for the day.

Prizes will be awarded for best food displays. The new lounge facilities in the Chamber of Commerce will be open for public use, and the new rest rooms will be available.

Winning honors at Monroe Bridge Club Tuesday afternoon were: Mrs. Jo Held, Mrs. Roxie Foreman, and Mrs. Lola Hibbs.

Next meeting is Sept. 8 with Mrs. Mary Williams.

Monroe Mother's Club next meeting is a potluck dinner with Mrs. Carrie Lemon Sept. 15.

Mrs. Walter Hibbs and daughter, Norma Jean (Mrs. Charles) Nelson, and baby daughter, Kay, have returned here from a recent visit to Idaho, Butte, Montana, and Falls City, Wash. They were gone two weeks.

Mrs. Charles Nelson (Norma Jean Hibbs) left here Thursday for Redmond, Oregon to visit for a week with a former W.V.E. friend. The two girls were together as WAVES in the war. Mrs. Nelson's baby daughter, Kay, stayed with the grandparents here.

Little Peter Tomseth of Eugene has returned to Monroe to get ready for grade school here after a summer vacation spent with an aunt and uncle in New York. Peter will live with Cash Martins here. He is in the second grade, and is the son of Mrs. Juanita Tomseth.

Mrs. Cash Martin's nephew, Charles Arlo, is visiting here from Phoenix, Oregon with his mother and little sister, Charlene, celebrated his fourth birthday at the Martin home here Aug. 18. There was a family reunion and lots of gifts. Charlene is old enough to go to school. She will be in the first grade in Phoenix this year.

Lois Boardrow is recovering from a badly sprained ankle. Vincent McGovern is expected home here any time now from a summer spent in fishing at Astoria.

AT CRESWELL
CRESWELL — Mr. and Mrs. Donald Tennes and sons have been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Tennes. They will also visit other relatives at Portland and McMinnville before returning to their home at Knights Landing, Calif., where Tennes is engaged in farming.

Guests at the J. W. Smith home are Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Boynton of Torrance, Calif. The Boyntons plan to attend the Pendleton Round Up before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Thomson and sons motored to Silver Creek Falls Sunday to bring their daughter, Betty Jo, and Nancy Simmons home. The girls had been attending Summer Youth Conference of the Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. C. I. Kent and her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Goreham are spending several days at Coos Bay on business.

ELMIRA VISITORS
ELMIRA — Recent visitors at the Elm Duckworth home are Mrs. Duckworth's sister-in-law Mrs. Charles Deming and Mrs. Leola Demoris and two children of Reno, Nevada and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Woolley of Eugene. Mrs. Deming and Mrs. Demoris are also visiting the Frank Demings.

Mrs. Warren Williams has started working in the dress department of Montgomery Wards in Eugene.

"Seavey Loop" Picnic
GOSHEN — The annual neighborhood picnic for the Seavey road residents is all set for Sunday, Aug. 29, 1 p.m. at the John Seavey campgrounds grove.

All former neighbors and friends are invited, and newcomers to the neighborhood. Bring basket lunch.

WIN 9 IN ROW
LOS ANGELES — The Trojan track teams of Southern California won the NCAA crown nine years in a row, 1935 through 1943.

H E Officers Meet Sept. 1

Officers and committee chairmen from all of the 31 Lane County Home Extension Units will gather at Eugene High School Wednesday, Sept. 1, for their annual officers training conference, when they will meet Miss Ruth Nichols, new Lane County Home Extension agent, who has just taken up her duties here, replacing Mrs. Beth Wiley, who has returned to her home in Weiser, Idaho, to teach school.

Miss Nichols, Jane Simpson, the other Lane County agent, and Miss Frances Clinton, home economics leader from Oregon State College, will spearhead the discussions. The program has been planned by the county committee of the organization.

Program: 10 a.m., registration, at Eugene High School auditorium, with Miss Nichols, and Mrs. Jule Lorang, of North Lane Home Extension unit, in charge. At 10:15, Mrs. Kenneth McCormack, of North Fork unit, will lead singing. Roll call is in charge of Mrs. Ehrman Giustina of Pleasant Hill unit, secretary of the county committee.

At 10:35 Mrs. Russell Ebbert of North Springfield unit, moderator, will introduce the speaker of the morning, Miss Frances Clinton, home economics leader from Oregon State College, who will discuss "Problems of Leaders" with a question and answer period.

The women will adjourn to the Veterans Memorial Building nearby, for luncheon, at 11:45, at the restaurant in the building.

Singing will open the afternoon session at 1, after which the delegates will go to group conferences: chairmen and vice chairmen will hear a discussion of the unit officers' manual by Miss Clinton, in the auditorium; secretaries will meet in room 215 with Jane Simpson, Lane County agent; Associated Country Women of the World will meet with Mrs. Paul Weiser of Willamette unit, in room 211; building fund committee will meet with Mrs. Kenneth McCormack in room 214; publicity chairmen will meet in room 212 with Mrs. John Fox of Noti unit, and Margaret Benston of the Eugene Register-Guard.

All groups return to the auditorium at 2:15 for a three-act comedy skit on parliamentary procedure, presented by the county committee for home extension work, after which the meeting will be adjourned with announcements and a talk on the coming season's plans by Jane Simpson, and the singing of the closing song, "Sing Your Way Home."

Fall Creek Folks' Individual News

FALL CREEK — Mrs. Elizabeth Duncan of Camas, Wash., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Royal Carpenter.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Sumner of Portland were to come to the home of Mrs. Sumner's sister, Mrs. Frank Kintzley Friday Aug. 27 for an extended visit. A trip to Odell Lake is planned for the week end.

Ladies Aid met Aug. 25, at home of Mrs. Pearl Frantz. Plans for a bazaar Nov. 19, were discussed. Next meeting is with Mrs. Frank Kintzley.

Noti Bridal Shower

NOTI — Friends of Miss Donna Christianson are invited to a bridal shower honoring her next Wednesday, Sept. 1, at the church annex. Miss Christianson, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walt Christianson, of Springfield, will be married to Norman Marsh, Friday evening, August 27. Mr. Marsh is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Mills B. Marsh, of Noti.

There is to be a special service for the young people at the Open Bible Standard Church of Noti. Everyone is invited to hear Rev. Warren Cornelius, speaker and musician.

Trent Ladies Aid

TRENT — Ladies Aid meets Friday afternoon, Sept. 2, at the church annex, with Mrs. Emma Wheeler and Mrs. Bernice Parker in charge. Mrs. Belle Smith is to have devotions, and Mrs. Alice Kimball the special.

Birthday to be honored are: Mrs. Minnie Hohmann, Mrs. Myrl Williams, Mrs. Pearl Hutton, Mrs. Ione Barber, Mrs. Hazel Snyder, and Mrs. Nettie Spores.

After Sunday School and church services Sunday, Aug. 29, we are to go to Fall Creek church for potluck dinner and program in afternoon.

TRIANGLE LAKE NEWS

TRIANGLE LAKE — Mr. Kalina of the Kalina Logging Co. of Junction City, and his crew of men are working on the new logging road, for the Johnson Lumber Co., up the mountain by the Johnson Mill.

Frank Myers was seriously ill last week, and made a hurried trip to a doctor in Eugene, and returned home that evening and is feeling better at this writing.

Billy May, son of Gary May, underwent a tonsilectomy at the clinic in Eugene Monday.

We wish to correct an error: family do not live in the creamery building but in the second cottage north of Ted's Store.

Mrs. Robt. Rust, Mrs. Averil Dimmie of Sutherland, are vacationing in Portland this week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Smith of Omaha, Neb., are at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Harry McVey. They expect to locate here.

Cottage Grove Mayor Announces New Lights, Road Work and Repairs

COTTAGE GROVE — Mayor H. A. Higgins revealed Friday that the much-discussed Main Street lighting will be started just as soon as arrangements for the installing of conduit can be made.

Now that materials are on hand, securing of labor for making the actual installations is all that is left undone.

Also announced were plans to continue the road and street repair. It is hoped that all major street projects will be completed before the rainy weather.

The mayor stated in Friday's interview with a Register-Guard reporter that both the street lighting program and street and road work were stopped when the city budget did not pass, when put up for the people's vote twice this spring and summer. However, now that the budget has passed, (third election) funds are available for the work.

Church Service At Row River Hall

CULP CREEK — The date for the special Sunday evening service of the Row River non-denominational community Sunday school, has been set for Sunday, Aug. 29, at the Row River Hall, with young people's meeting at 6 p.m., and church service at 7.

John Frink, a student at Northwest Christian College, will be speaker. There will be special music. Everybody welcome.

Creswell Meetings

CRESWELL — Graham Young, grand master of Oregon, of Tigard, will pay his official visit to the local Odd Fellows Wednesday evening, Sept. 1. This is the first time Creswell has been honored with a visit from the grand master since before the war. A potluck supper will be served at 7 p.m. with all Odd Fellows, Rebekahs, and their families, invited. Business meeting at 8 p.m.

All Odd Fellows, Rebekahs and their families and friends are invited to the annual picnic at the Robert Franklin ranch west of town Sunday, Aug. 29.

A basket dinner will be served at 1:30 p.m. Members wishing transportation are asked to meet at the Odd Fellows Hall at 1 p.m. Each is to bring his own table service.

Eastern Star will hold their first meeting of the fall Thursday evening, Sept. 2, with Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Wicks and Mrs. Katherine Melton in charge of refreshments.

Creswell Civic Club will picnic at the home of Mrs. J. W. Smith Tuesday, Aug. 31, at 1 p.m. Each is to bring his own table service.

Members of the Dorcas Circle who are able to work on the comforter for church relief are asked to work at Mrs. J. E. Smith's home Wednesday morning, Sept. 1. A paper sack lunch will be served at noon.

The committee for the afternoon meeting which will also be held at Mrs. Smith's will be Mrs. H. A. Howe, Mrs. Blanche Gwyther, Mrs. L. A. Whitney, Mrs. Ted Green, Mrs. Ted Fering and Mrs. Louis Ervin. Mrs. J. M. Walkup will be in charge of devotions. The birthdays of the month will be observed.

The first fall meeting of the Presbyterian Ladies Aid will be held at the home of Mrs. Norman Skaggs Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 1. Mrs. R. M. Carpenter will assist Mrs. Skaggs.

Sisterhood of the Christian Church will meet at the service room Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 1, with Mrs. Bart Perini and Mrs. Ed Brown in charge. Mrs. Lloyd Wheeler will have the devotions.

Rev. S. E. Crook of Eugene will speak at the Presbyterian Church Sunday morning, Aug. 29, at 11. There will be a congregational business meeting at the church at 8 p.m.

Rebekah Picnic

Rebekahs have made final plans for the annual picnic Sunday, Aug. 29, at Franklin's ranch. A quiz program under the direction of Mrs. Vern McClusky was enjoyed at the recent meeting. The members were invited to attend the potluck supper of the Odd Fellows Wednesday evening, Sept. 1. The refreshment committee for the next meeting will be Mrs. Dean Eustad and Mrs. LaVern Good.

AT SHEDD

SHEDD — A weekly prayer meeting is being held, Thursday evenings, at the home of Rev. and Mrs. G. W. Rohrbough. The Book of Ephesians is being studied.

Rev. and Mrs. A. T. Olsen and little son are guests of Rev. and Mrs. A. J. Neufeldt. They are missionaries home from Africa. They will go from here to California.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Buffioux of Tacoma, Wash., have been visiting at the Rohrbough home. They were members of Rev. Mr. Rohrbough's congregation when he was pastor of Tahoma Terrace United Presbyterian Church at Tacoma.

Miss Cora Mae Tyler of the Liberty neighborhood visited here last week at the home of her sister, Mrs. Ralph Henkle. Miss Tyler who is a student at Bethesda Bible school in Portland spent the summer in Alaska helping another sister who is in charge of a Children's Home there.

A number of local 4-H club members went to Albany Monday to practice food demonstrations which will be given at the state fair. Virginia Miller spoke over a radio broadcast with the county leader, Miss Viola Hanson.

$960 IN FEES

GOSHEN, N. Y. — Each horse that goes to the post for the annual Hambletonian classic represents entry fees of $960.

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE

GASOLINE ALLEY

BLONDIE

WASH TUBS

ALLEY OOP

BUZZ SAWYER

STEVE ROPER

THE ASSISTANTS

OUT OUR WAY

OUR BOARDING HOUSE