

Lane Grange

WILLAKENZIE Grange met Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. George Moller and Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Fletcher on the social committee instead of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kinney and Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Danielson as previously reported.

O. S. Fletcher announced the annual Poultry Assn., picnic Sunday, Aug. 29 at Benton-Lane Park, with potluck dinner at 12:30, with speakers and program in the afternoon.

He urged there be more individual exhibits in the open classes at the Lane County Fair.

Mrs. Ray Brabham and Mrs. Ellis Maharry were appointed to see about getting some stop signs put up—some having been washed out last winter.

It is time to spray for filbert flies.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Maharry, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Koplin and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Gilkison are on the refreshment committee at Sept. 4 meeting.

Betty Forest asks grangers to remember to save some choice fresh fruits for the fair booth.

Booster night program will be Tuesday evening Sept. 28.

One hundred new dinner plates and 100 pie plates were

Halsey News

HALSEY—Lee Foster of Halsey owns the top producing five-year-old Jersey cow completing lactation in July, a grade Jersey; with 8773 lbs. milk and 482 lbs. fat in 272 days, according to A. L. Pulliam, county extension agent.

The John P. Hutchins family are moving this week from the Carl Smith place to Brownsville.

Mrs. Ruth Scorse underwent major surgery at the Willamette Hospital in Albany last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Vannice have returned from a visit with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gillis at Newberg.

Lee Foster is building a combination hangar for his Piper Cub plane and lambing shed on his farm south of town. Ericson of Lebanon is the carpenter.

A six and nine-tenths lb. son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Kropf Aug. 23, at the Sacred Heart Hospital in Eugene. Gary John has two brothers and one sister.

Mrs. Wayne Commons was agreeably surprised last week when her brother, S-1c, Bob Hotchkiss, stopped to visit her. He is on leave from the Carawa U. S. S. and has gone on to Canada but expects to see his sister again on his return trip to San Diego to join his ship. His home is in St. Louis, Mo., and he has been in the U. S. Navy for five years.

Newly elected officers for the local Women's Christian Temperance Union are: Mrs. Harry Commons, president; Mrs. Lee Foster vice-president; Mrs. Ruby Standish, secretary; Mrs. Joe Northrup, treasurer. Mrs. Commons, Mrs. Standish and Mrs. Haverland attended the County WCTU convention in Albany last week.

The sixth birthday of little Miss Nancy Folston was celebrated Tuesday afternoon at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Irwin Allen, with a children's party.

Mrs. Ray Mitchell gave several piano selections, Joyce Davis sang two numbers in Spanish and one in French. Betty Forest and Mrs. Cherm also appeared on the program with a poem.

CROW Grange picniced at Perkins Peninsula Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Laurie Doane, Mr. and Mrs. Kraft and Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Ford are the supper committee for Wednesday's grange meeting. Melons will be served.

MOHAWK-McKENZIE Grange at its recent meeting decided to hold "Booster Night" Sept. 23. Also plans are being made for the "Jitney Supper" and bazaar Saturday evening, Oct. 23.

Ione Anderson is in charge of the Booster night program which will be open to the public. Next Home Economics Club meeting is at Nellie Wilson's.

WALTERVILLE — No grange will be held Tuesday evening as this is the fifth Tuesday in the month. Grange will next convene the first Tuesday in September.

CRESWELL — Mrs. Melba Heide and John Gurton, county extension, 4-H Club agents, gave very interesting talks on the works of the clubs Thursday evening. Mrs. H. A. Howe talked on the social security plan for farmers and the oleo tax controversy. Mrs. Blanche Gwyther gave a report of the Multnomah County fair which she attended.

The Lane County Fair committee met with Mrs. F. L. DeBerry to make plans for the construction of the booth.

The date for the Creswell Community fair was set for Sept. 18.

Everyone is asked to bring either cantaloupe or watermelon to the next meeting for refreshments.
