

Officer Reservists in Eugene Get New Headquarters Chief

Former army officers who are holding on to their reserve commissions by active work in the training program have a new headquarters in Eugene. Capt. Robert H. Swennes, long charge of ORC offices in Eugene, has returned to active duty in the Eugene branch office of the Oregon Group. From a quarters hut at Twelfth and Almaden Swennes administers the affairs of 342 former officers of all branches.

Mobile X-ray Tests Coming

SPRINGFIELD — The Lane County Public Health Assn. will have its mobile X-ray unit here Sept. 9, 10 and 11 for residents who desire to be tested and screened for tuberculosis. Only persons over 15 years of age will be examined. The unit will be parked in the Paramount Market area from 3 to 7 p.m. Sept. 9 and from 9 to 11 a.m. Sept. 10. On Sept. 11, the unit will be in front of the McKenzie Theater from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Any Mother Would Get Jitters Over This

BICKNELL, Ind.—(U.P.)—The E. R. Kirk home is filled with foxes, skunks and screech owls. There is a young taxidermist in the house.

began his hobby several years ago. He says he had to misrepresent his age to be able to take a mallorder course in taxidermy. But he got his diploma and points to it with pride. Mrs. Kirk says she still isn't quite used to sharing the living room with two foxes and a bantam hen. But she has gotten over her worst case of jitters. Ronnie says it took quite a while to deodorize the house after stuffing the skunk.
