Cocker Wins Show Honors

"Champion Lodestar Country Gentleman," a black cocker spaniel, took top honors at the Second Annual Eugene Kennel Club Dog Show Sunday at the Armory. The dog is owned by the Lodestar Kennels of Olympia, Wash., and was shown by Mrs. Pauline Williams, owner. As "best in show," the dog won the Veterinarians' Trophy, donated by the veterinarians of Eugene. The large gold cup was twice as tall as the dog.

The winner of "best in show" also won "best in group" for sporting dogs. Other group winners: hounds, a Russian wolfhound, "Champion Igar of Romanoff" owned by Miss Beverly Traglio of Portland; working dogs, a standard schnauzer, "Champion Flare von Tappen" owned by Nicholas Finn of San Francisco; terriers, a Kerry Blue, "Champion Fox Hills Reveler," owned by Mr. and Mrs. William S. Fox, of Piedmont, Calif.; toys, a miniature pinscher, "Stockdale Northern Venture," owned by C. B. Van Meter, of Van Nuys, Calif.; non-sporting or miscellaneous, a Boston terrier, "International Champion Long's Brat's Witch," owned by Long's Brat's Kennels, of Olympia, Wash.

"Johnnie" Thompson, 12, of Eugene, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Thompson, was winner of the children's handling class, with Nancy Britten, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merle Britten of Route 2, Springfield, as girls winner and runnerup.

Good crowds passed through the Armory all day, and it is expected that the show will pay its expenses, although no financial statement is available yet, according to Mrs. Ray Bond, president of the club. The next Kennel Club meeting is Wednesday, Oct. 13, at Carey's Stove Store, upstairs, at 7:30 p.m. Anyone interested in purebred dogs is invited.

Three Join Navy

Enlisting in the U. S. Navy at Eugene last week were Oscar George Theilen, Rt. 1, Cottage Grove; Gene Bert Johnson, son of Mrs. Edith E. Christensen, Dexter; and John Daniel Karras, son of Mrs. Mildred Dunn, Oakridge.
