Pen Women Honor Three At Luncheon

Honored guest of Eugene Branch, National League of American Pen Women, was Miss Elizabeth Smartt, who was in Eugene Saturday with personal greetings of the League's newly-elected president, Dr. Margaret Seebree. Miss Smartt, who is chairman of the membership committee of the league, is attending the Women's Christian Temperance Union convention in Portland this week. She is legal counsel for the WCTU, besides being a lecturer and writer.

Eugene Pen Women gathered at the home of Mrs. C. C. McCornack, state president of the league, on Saturday for luncheon and a business meeting. The luncheon also honored Mrs. Pearl Gischler, newest member, and Miss Louise Fitch, back from an assignment with the Reader's Digest.

Miss Smartt is present owner of one of the oldest newspapers in the United States, a paper originally called the Northern Centinel (they spelled it with a C), later the Washington County Post, which is still published at Cambridge, New York.

Plaid is the big news for fall. Wool suits with slim skirts are top favorites in this fabric.

REEDSPORT COUPLE WED AT WALPORT
REEDSPORT — The marriage of Mrs. Rosamond Whittle, formerly of Reedport, and Verne Balkema was an event of Sunday, September 12, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Nona Strake of Waldport. Mrs. Wayne Schumaker of Newport was the bride's attendant and Lewis Balkema, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man. The ceremony was read by Judge H. L. Kelly of Waldport in the presence of the immediate family and a few neighbors.

The bride wore a turquoise gown and the flowers used in decoration of the home were in turquoise and white. The couple will live at Winchester Bay.

RNA PLAN COSTUME PARTY FOR OCTOBER
Mrs. J. B. Byers and Mrs. Florence Glaze were initiated into Royal Neighbors of America at a recent meeting in Knights of Pythias Hall attended by about fifty members. A corsage was presented to District Deputy Mabel Milne and a drape was placed over the charter in memory of the late Henry Tuymann.

Plans for the October meeting were considered. It was decided to invite other camps and that costumes should be worn by all. Mrs. Van Tibbetts is chairman of the entertainment and decorations committee.

Refreshments were served by a committee headed by Mr. and Mrs. Lester Read.
