Card Event to Aid Purchase of Dishes For New Building

Dishes which have been purchased for the Veterans Memorial Building, now generally in use by patriotic bodies of the city and many other groups, are the inspiration for a benefit card party sponsored by the auxiliary to Veterans of Foreign Wars. Committees are working hard in preparation for the event, which is set for Wednesday evening, October 13, at the Veterans Memorial Building. Play will begin at eight o'clock.

Reservations are being received by Mrs. Charles Humphreys, 3678J, Mrs. Thomas Moriarty, 3765J, and Mrs. Walter Burkhardt, 5972J. Mrs. Burkhardt is general chairman of the party.

Tickets will be available at the building on the night of the party, also, the committee states.

Tea Saturday Will Honor New AD Pi Housemother

A tea, honoring Mrs. Florence S. Tuft, new housemother at Alpha Delta Pi sorority house on the campus, will be given Saturday afternoon from three to four o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Verdon C. May, 1716 Twenty-fourth Avenue East. Hostesses will be the alumnae of the sorority.

Plans for the tea were made at a meeting of the alumnae group early in the week, at the home of Mrs. George Varney, in Springfield. This session also honored the nineteen pledges of the active chapter. A program was presented, under direction of Mrs. Don Martin and Mrs. Merton C. Cole. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Wilfred Moore, Mrs. Velma Westerfield and Mrs. O. K. Burrell. There were fifteen alumnae present.

Zontians to Attend Sessions at Tacoma

The coming district convention of Zonta Club, which will be held in mid-month at Tacoma, Wash., was the topic for discussion at a meeting of Eugene Zonta Club Tuesday evening. Mrs. Glenn Pirtle, president, and others of the club will attend.

Miss Hazel Cook of Portland, well known through frequent visits to Eugene, is district president. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Hazel Carter, Miss Anne Laerman and Mrs. John S. Rosenkrans.

City Women Invited to Tea For Director

Eugene City YWCA will hold a membership tea introducing Miss Marian Johnson, new executive director, Sunday afternoon from three to five o'clock at the Community Center, 1076 Williamette Street. The public is invited to attend.

The program will consist of incidental music furnished by members of YWCA groups including Miss Beverley Goheen, Miss Gloria Rogers, and Miss Judy Ellefson.

In the receiving line will be past presidents and officers of the executive board: Mrs. C. A. Barnes, Mrs. Wesley Nicholson, Mrs. C. V. Carter, Mrs. Ray C. Smith, Miss Anne Laerman, and Mrs. Ross Griffith.

Mrs. F. D. Wyatt, Mrs. Floyd E. Ellefson, Mrs. Wright Gullion and Mrs. W. C. Wally will pour.

The planning committee is Mrs. L. B. Schmidt, Mrs. Dan Wynn, Mrs. Dean Lobaugh, Mrs. C. A. Barnes, Mrs. C. V. Carter, and Mrs. Alvin Bray. Mrs. Bray is in charge of hospitality and Y-Teen girls will assist her committee.

The table will be decorated by Mrs. Arthur Ruhndorf.

Dakota Club Gives To Hospital, Home

Program for the meeting of Dakota Club Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Adolph Walder, 2833 Alder Street was on taxes of the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries. The club voted to attend the Federation of Women's clubs all day meeting at River Road club house Friday and gave five dollars to Doernbecher Hospital and the same amount to the WCTU farm home at Corvallis.

"Auld Lang Syne" was sung in memory of John Halverson, who recently passed away at the age of 94 years.

Mrs. Jack Brindle and Mrs. James Aird will entertain the club in November when plans for the Christmas program will be made.

Mrs. Beeson Goes To Miami Meeting

Mrs. Ross Beeson has gone to the convention of the National Association of Letter Carriers' Auxiliary at Miami, Florida, representing the state of Oregon as delegate-at-large. She left Eugene September 29 and is stopping over in Chicago, New York and Washington, D. C. on the way to the convention, which is from October 12 to 19. She will return by the southern route.

Mrs. Beeson has been president of the state association of the auxiliary for two years.

JUNIOR DAUGHTERS IN FIRST SESSION

St. Veronica Troop, Junior Catholic Daughters, had its first meeting of the school year September 27, at the home of Miss Diana Erickson. The group is working on a project of sending sweaters and hard candy overseas, through CARE, working with other troops of Junior CDA.

Troop members received Holy Communion in a body October 1, and afterward breakfasted at the home of their counselor, Mrs. Sokolosky. Nine first Fridays are to be observed by mass communion.

Next general meeting of the order will be at the home of Miss Mary Powell in Springfield, October 11.

SPRINGFIELD CLUB MEETS AT DOW HOME

Happy Hour Club of Springfield met Monday afternoon with Mrs. W. M. Dow at her home on Emerald Heights. Twenty-three members and four guests, Miss Margaret Lauderdale, Miss Hattie Mitchell, Mrs. Dana McBarren and Mrs. Tressa Tullar, were present.

Summer vacation experiences were exchanged by the women. At the tea hour Mrs. L. K. Page and Mrs. Vernon Williams poured. Assistant hostesses were Mrs. Phil Bartholomew and Mrs. John Klar.

Next meeting will be November 1 at the home of Mrs. L. K. Page with Miss Edna Swartz and Mrs. Pratt Holverson assisting.

Christmas Sale Plans Are Talked

Delta Zeta Alumnae Group met at the home of Mrs. Donald R. Husband Wednesday evening and formulated plans for the annual Christmas cooked food sale.

The group was told of the national honor accorded Mrs. Husband the past summer at Delta Zeta national convention. She was one of five selected from Delta Zeta alumnae throughout the nation to receive the national award for service to her fraternity over and above the call of duty.

A letter from Rose McCrew Rochall, now living in the British Zone, Germany, was read, thanking the group for eighty pounds of food and clothing sent to her last spring. Mrs. Rochall, former member of Delta Zeta active chapter on the university campus, is a daughter of Madame Rose McGrew of Eugene who at present is visiting with her daughter.

Mrs. Robert Pulfer from the active chapter at University of Washington was welcomed as a new member and others present were: Mrs. Jack Wiseman, president; Mrs. Vernon Sprague, secretary; Miss Geraldine Kem, treasurer; Mrs. Merton Folts, Mrs. Robert Steelhamer, Mrs. Ernesto Knollin, Mrs. Clay Barnes, Mrs. Odine Mickelson, Mrs. Philip DeLong, Mrs. Selma Thompson, Miss Hazel Fishwood and Mrs. Robert Lonneville.

Plans for Rushing Talked at Meeting, Epsilon Sigma Alpha

Rushing plans for the fall were presented for approval by the social chairman, Mrs. Harold Skipworth, at the regular meeting of Epsilon Sigma Alpha Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Barbara Barker. The first affair will be an informal mixer party at the Community Center Tuesday evening, October 12, at seven-thirty o'clock to enable members and rushees to become acquainted.

Study topics Wednesday night were presented by Mrs. Charles Humphreys and Miss Arlene Mahen, the former speaking on "The Place We Call Home" and the latter on Types of Furniture."

Guests for the evening were Miss Ruth Ann Courtier of Coos Bay, and Miss Florence Orr of Hutchinson, Kansas, transfers from chapters in their home cities, who will become affiliated with Eugene chapter.

VISITORS ENTERTAINED BY LOCAL REBEKAHS

Eugene Rebekah Lodge entertained distinguished visitors at its regular meeting Wednesday night when Mrs. Lela Ramsey, Madras, vice-president of Rebekah Assembly, Jurisdiction of Oregon, and "Doc" Nelson, oldest living Past Grand Master of Oregon, were in attendance. Mr. Nelson is here from San Francisco visiting at the home of a son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bernie Nelson.

October 20 was set as the deadline when recipes will be received for the new Rebekah cook book. There is a special need for more casserole and meat dish recipes and women of the lodge are urged to cooperate by getting the recipes to Mrs. James Wamsley as soon as possible. It is hoped that the book will be ready for sale before Christmas.

Four new members, Mrs. Archie Weinstein, Mrs. Opal Gilman and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Wimer, were admitted to the Eugene lodge by transfer.

Initiation has been postponed from October 20 to November 3 when the state president, Mrs. Christine Smith, will make her official visit.

Next drill practice has been called for Monday, October 18 at eight o'clock by Mrs. George Mast, captain.

Visiting Golfers Garner All Honors At Country Club

Some forty visiting golfers from outside of the Eugene area, were guests of the Eugene Country Club ladies last Wednesday for an OWGA tournament. And the Eugene hostesses were completely agreeable, even to the extent of letting the visitors walk off with all of the honors.

Miss Lillian Schassen of The Dalles had the low score for the afternoon. Class B honors were won by Mrs. King Cody of Portland, while Class C went to another Portlander, Mrs. Ed LaFrance of Columbia-Edgewater.

The only Eugenean to finish among the top three was Mrs. Mervin Vater, and she lost out when she matched cards with her third-place rival, Mrs. Walter Thorn of Portland.

In local sweepstakes play, Mrs. S. A. Peters, Mrs. Vater, Mrs. Frank Irving and Mrs. Patrick Fury won the various class honors.

Next week, another round on the local OWGA shoot will be held.

Friendly House Lists Speaker

"How to conserve our natural resources" will be the question for the Conversation Hour Friday evening at eight o'clock, at Friendly House. Dr. Warren D. Smith, geologist, will be the leader, and will present facts found in two recent books that have attracted wide attention, "Our Plundered Planet" and "The Road to Survival." All are welcome to attend and participate.

Potluck dinner for couples and their children, if they care to bring them, is becoming more popular at Friendly House on Saturday nights at six-thirty o'clock. All couples, whether from campus or town are invited. The evening after dinner is spent socially.

Last week Frank Hodson entertained the youngsters with children's records, music and stories. Late afternoon of every week day will find at least a few people drinking coffee and talking by the Friendly House fireplace, and all are encouraged to drop in at will.

TABLES REMAINING FOR RE-ACTIVE PARTY

A few tables still are available for the benefit bridge party which Re-Active Club will hold Thursday evening, October 14, at the Masonic Temple. There also are a few fill-ins at tables, for individuals who wish to attend. Mrs. Philip Koke is ticket chairman who may be contacted in this regard, and Mrs. Murnard England is general chairman.

CARD WINNERS NAMED

Winners at cards at the Ladies of the Elk card party Thursday afternoon were: Contract, Mrs. H. D. Smartt, high and Mrs. T. P. Arnoldy, low; Auction, Mrs. Orpha Poindexter, high and Mrs. Lee A. Frank, low; Pinochle, Mrs. Clyde Spencer, high and Mrs. T. E. Schultz, low.
