

U of O Dames Club In First Meeting

First meeting of Dames Club of the University of Oregon campus will take place Friday evening at eight o'clock, at the YMCA bungalow on Kincaid Street. Meetings regularly are to be second and fourth Tuesdays, hereafter.

Officers of the club are Mrs. Glenn A. Stover, president, and Mrs. Warren Mack, vice president. A secretary-treasurer is to be elected at Friday's meeting.

Different Scalloped Potatoes

The next time you make scalloped potatoes, try making them with sour cream for the liquid. Line the dish with slices of cold cooked ham, then add layers of raw or cooked sliced potatoes and onion rings. Pour sour cream over the top and dot with cheddar cheese. Good? Mmm—!

Y-TEEN GROUP OPENS ACTIVITY

The newly-formed Y-Teen group in Eugene, sponsored by the YWCA under the leadership of Mrs. Wayne Atwood, started its fiscal year with a successful party Monday night at the Y-Center.

The girls enjoyed folk dancing under the direction of Miss Beverly Bennett and Miss Randy Roaness. Games were led by Miss Delores Johnson. Decorations, refreshments and publicity was supervised by a committee headed by Miss Laura Lee Newton. Aiding her were Misses Greata Titcome, Pat Blatchly, and Delores Johnson.

The new group will meet alternate Wednesday afternoons at four o'clock in the library of the Y-Center. There will be election of officers at the next meeting, October 18.

Catholic Orders Take Large Groups In Sunday Rites

Catholic Daughters of America and Knights of Columbus held initiation Sunday, followed by a joint evening banquet. Members and candidates of both orders attended eight o'clock mass and received Holy Communion in a body. Past Grand Knights afterward served breakfast in the cafeteria of St. Mary's School.

Catholic Daughters held initiatory work at the WOW Hall. Thirty-seven members were received into the order, making Court Oregon the largest of the seventeen courts in the state. Following the reception of candidates, the Very Rev. Francis P. Leipzig gave a brief talk in which he congratulated the court on its growth. Mrs. E. J. Eberdt presented a past grand regent's pin to Mrs. B. A. Laharty, on behalf of Court Oregon and in appreciation for her work the past year and a half.

Committees for Sunday included: General chairman, Mrs. Jennie Nelson; decorations, Mrs. William Gonier, Mrs. Ed Wellnitz; banquet, Mrs. Sylvania Kimmel, Mrs. Robert Adair, Mrs. Geo. Miller, Mrs. C. E. Erickson; membership, Mrs. J. W. Kennedy; degree team, Mrs. Agnes Schottroffer.

Knights of Columbus held their reception for new members at the Veterans Memorial Hall. Members from Klamath Falls put on the initiatory work, with thirty members being received into the order.

Committees: Membership, P. A. Gent; tickets, Donald Hammer; banquet, Clarence J. Brown.

A joint banquet was held at the Veterans Memorial Hall, at 6:30 p.m. Speakers were: Mrs. B. A. Laharty, Grand Regent, CDA; J. W. Kennedy, Grand Knight, K of C; W. W. Bristow, District Deputy, K of C; Mrs. Otto Smith, Vice State Regent, CDA (from Klamath Falls); Mrs. Peter Di Paolo, District Deputy, CDA; Mrs. Nellie Franzwa, Founder, "Mother" of all courts west of the Mississippi; Mrs. Rose Bell, State Regent, CDA (Stayton); Ed Bell, Stayton, and Clarence J. EXECUTIVE BOARD OF GARDEN CLUB MEETS MONDAY

Mrs. Ernest Brunton was co-hostess with Mrs. L. M. Watson, to the executive board of the Garden Club, which met in the Watson home Monday afternoon. A potluck luncheon was held at noon, followed by the business meeting.

A discussion of the proposed placing of concrete seats intended for persons waiting for buses, resulted in the board voting their disapproval of such a project, as the club stands for city beautification, and they felt that the seats, unless covered, would not be practical in our rainy climate.

NEW YORK STYLIST AT PORTLAND MEETING

Mrs. Ethel Hoover Brooks, a member of the New York City Fashion Group, was a special

Guest of the week at the luncheon last Monday. Mrs. C. A. Watson, past president of the club, was a guest in the luncheon. Mrs. C. A. Watson, past president of the club, was a guest in the luncheon.
