Monarch Ranges
to suite every need are the nation's most popular range. The famous dual oven range is positively the finest combination wood and electric range ever designed for country use. It is the only range made in which you can use the oven for baking by either wood or electric without having to pull out the electric element when you wish to use wood. On the surface you have a complete wood cooking surface also a four burner electric cooking top. Besides it doesn't take up but a fraction more space than an ordinary wood or an electric range. Come in or write for complete descriptive folder.
