I SAW—The old-fashioned kind of neighborliness and co-operation displayed Tuesday when an emergency telephone call from Los Angeles couldn't be completed because of a broken cable in our neighborhood. The emergency was made known to us through the efforts of the Springfield police, a telephone employee and a neighbor.—R. V. H.

The Eugene Lodge No. 11 AF and AM will hold a special communication in the Masonic Temple at 7:30 p.m. Friday. There will be work in the F.C. degree, and visiting Masons are welcome.

Springfield Jaycees Honor Fred Buell
Fred Buell, Springfield, became one of three men in Oregon to be presented with life membership in the Junior Chamber of Commerce at the first anniversary dinner of the Springfield Junior Chamber Thursday evening.
Bob Upton, Cottage Grove, state vice-president, made the award and gave the main address. Certificates of merit were given to the following past officers: Scott Wright, president; Sid Ward, vice president; Bob Hill, secretary; Byron Jackson, treasurer; Fred Stephens, George Marx and Jim Arthurs, directors. Don Beech, current president, led the meeting.
Buell was given the membership in recognition of his work in forming the new junior chamber. Thirty new members taken in Thursday night brought the total membership of the group to 85, Beech said.
The organization is planning a dance Oct. 29 for members, their wives and friends.

Springfield JC to Honor New Members at Dinner

SPRINGFIELD — The Springfield Junior Chamber of Commerce will honor the new members recruited during the recent membership campaign at a banquet Thursday at 6:30 p.m. in Bob and Gwen's Cafe.
New Jaycees will be presented with organization pins and will hear a presentation address by Robert Upton, Medford, state vice-president of the Jaycees.
Al Buell, chairman of the membership drive, reported that a 44 per cent increase was made in members through the team competition organized.
All Jaycees and their wives will dance at a party at the Playgrounds October 29.

Obsidian Club Plans Halloween Celebration

The Obsidian Club will have a Halloween party Wednesday at 8 p.m. at Pete Skovbo's barn, with dancing, games and refreshments planned. Old clothes will be worn by members and guests.
The Skovbo place is on Dane Lane in Junction City. Dorothy Steinmetz is chairman of the entertainment committee. All members and friends planning to attend may register at Hendershott's.

Vacancies Still Exist in Citizenship Class

Persons wishing to prepare themselves for citizenship examinations still have the opportunity of joining a class that meets each Monday at 7 p.m. at Woodrow Wilson Junior High School.
Lloyd Gillett, supervisor of special educational activities for the Eugene school system, has announced that the current class is being well-attended but is not yet overcrowded.

THEFT REPORTED

Mrs. Joy Efteland, 328 Twelfth Ave. W., Thursday night reported the theft of her purse by a youth on a bicycle. Mrs. Efteland told city police she was walking home on Twelfth near Olive when the incident occurred. Although the purse held her keys and identification papers, her loss in cash was merely 25 cents, she said.

LOVE CONQUERS ALL

LA PORTE, Ind. —(U.P.)— Love won over the law when 20-year-old Floyd Long was arrested after his car had collided with another. The starry-eyed Long was able to produce only a marriage license when officers demanded his driver's permit. He told police he was on his way to be married. The judge deferred the case so the wedding could proceed.
