"The CHURCHES OF CHRIST salute you"

NEW TESTAMENT CHRISTIANITY

This fellowship of churches is not a denomination. These are bodies of undenominational Christians throughout the world which meet for worship, and are organized after the pattern of New Testament churches to do the work Christ gave His disciples to do.

They have no kind of central government. They have no creed except the New Testament. They wear no name except the name Christian, and they refuse to be members of any church except the great church universal which Jesus built upon the rock of His Divine Sonship.

They employ in their worship only those things which have the undisputed warrant of the New Testament. Their plea is that believers follow Christ and unite with him in this spiritual fellowship. They claim no merit for themselves in this plea. They claim the merit of the New Testament. Their faith is that the New Testament is superior to any creed or confession of faith and that those who are guided by it are well-pleasing to God.

There are groups of these undenominational Christians meeting in your community. Let us thank God that each individual may read the New Testament and work out his own salvation by following and obeying Christ, regardless of what others may do. Choose your day when you will follow, the mammoth of this world, fallible, human leaders, or the Divine Christ. As for me and my house we choose to follow the Lord and His way.

T. R. ATKINSON

Ward Meeting For Mormons

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints has their annual ward conference in their chapel at Tenth and Tyler Streets Sunday, Nov. 7.

The general public as well as all members are invited to be in attendance.

The first session for the priesthood is at 9 a. m. and the first general session will be held at 10:30 a. m. The evening session will convene at the Chapel at 7 p. m.

President George L. Scott of the Portland Stake and his two counselors, Lew A. West and Richard C. Stratford, will attend all sessions and address the conference.

Bishop Ralph B. Lake, the local head of the church, will conduct the conference and he will be assisted by his counselors, Harry N. Wright and Carl A. Gustafson.

Besides the addresses by the authorities of the ward and Stake, special music will be furnished by the choir.

Part of the conference will be devoted to the church welfare plan whereby the church feels it is their duty to care for their old people and their poor, rather than leave it to government welfare agencies.

At Temple Baptist

The Temple Baptist Church meeting at the Seventh Day Adventist Church, corner Seventh and Charnelton, Rev. Frank Nixon, pastor, extends a cordial welcome to all to worship with us. Sunday school meets at 9:45 a. m. with John Tallant directing.

It will be one of the hundred and more planned nationwide during the week of Nov. 7-14.

A single human hair will support a weight of four ounces, before breaking.

Challenging Subject At Church of God

"Giving That Which Costs Nothing" is the subject Rev. Floyd Tunnell uses in the morning worship this Sunday at the Church of God.

Rev. Tunnell began a series of evangelistic meetings last Wednesday evening and will continue through Nov. 14. He comes from Madera, Calif., where he is pastor of the Church of God.

Sunday evening Rev. Tunnell's sermon subject will be "Christ Is Inevitable."

The young people will finish their work of distributing the tracts written by J. Edgar Hoover this week on "Why I Believe in the Sunday School." This is a cooperative effort with the other churches of Eugene who are endeavoring to increase Sunday school attendance during the month of November.

United Lutheran

The congregation of United Lutheran Church meets for worship at the Music Chapel of Northwest Christian College, East Eleventh and Kincaid. Church school is at 9:45 a. m. Classes for all ages.

At the 11 o'clock worship service, Rev. J. L. Sawyer, pastor, will speak on "The Driving Power of Faith." The choir will sing the hymn "Have Thine Own Way, Lord" by Stebbins.

Visitation teams in the Sunday school enrollment campaign will meet at the parsonage, 666 E. 11th Ave., at 6:30 p. m. for a potluck dinner and instruction meeting.

The church council will meet at the parsonage on Monday at 8 p. m.

At Christian Science

"Adam and Fallen Man" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ Scientist, on Sunday, Nov. 7.

The Golden Text is, "There went up a mist from the earth, and watered the whole face of the ground. And the Lord God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul" (Gen. 2:6, 7).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "So God created man in His own image, in the image of God created He him" (Gen. 1:27), together with the following correlative passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "All that is made is the work of God, and all is good" (p. 521).

'Public Enemy No. 1' at Fairmount Presbyterian
