

KAISER, University of Oregon art student, puts finishing touches on jewelry she will offer for sale at the annual Christmas bazaar, put on by students of the university school of architecture and allied arts. A senior from Portland, Pat will be one of the students contributing the jewelry, pottery, paintings, and other items which will be on sale Nov. 21 to 24 in the Little Art Gallery of the school. Part of the proceeds will go to the student council, and part will go into a scholarship fund administered by the school.

Wedding News
WENDLING—The Jolly Neighborhood next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. H. E. Bailey, Dec. 7th. The wedding of Mrs. Swoforth and Mr. Swoforth will be held at the First Methodist Church, Eugene, High-land, Saturday, Dec. 12th. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. "Dad" Kibby, who this week, wish to express their appreciation to the church and the community for the help they have given them.

Our Beloved "Dad Kibby"
 Our Dad: We loved you very much, and the memory of you will not be forgotten. You lived here most of your 85 years and when you left us you left us with a heart as big as the world. You loved it here and you loved to die in Wendling. You are resting now and you will be at rest for so long. You had a full life and a busy life with you until we meet you again. Your friends and your family, Betty Morehouse.

SAFFORD—Yarnell church Sunday school celebrated its second anniversary at the church hall, Tuesday evening. Mrs. Raymond Hill returned home after a six-week trip into eastern and southern states. Alva Teeter and son returned on a trip into Idaho. There is a modification of a word meaning council.

AT WENDLING
WENDLING—Wendling chronicles the death of one of our oldest residents, Lewis Norman Kibby, who passed away in Eugene Monday at the age of 85. Kibby was one of the older Booth-Kelly Lumber Company's employees, and found much pleasure in hunting, fishing and the outdoor life. The Women's Society of Chris-han Service honored Mrs. Anna Gardiner, Marcola, at their recent meeting. Mrs. Gardiner leaves Monday for New York, where she will make her future home. Mrs. Gardiner, widow of the late Rev. Robert E. Gardiner, has been active in church and social service work and will be greatly missed in the community. Men have been busy the past week putting a new aluminum roof on the play shed at our grade school. This will provide for the nearly 80 school children.

Mrs. Hazel Thompson and daughter, Centralia, Wash., are visiting her brothers, Charles and Howard Peck, a sister, Mrs. James

Paris, niece and nephew, Stella and Eugene Helms. Not Braggin' BUT Thursday was observed as a holiday at our grade school. Transportation was furnished and many attended the football game at Shedd between the Mohawk Indians and Shedd. The score: 60 to 35 in favor of the Indians, who are now Lane County's "B" league six-man champions.
