On the following kickoff, Bill Beitz fumbled the return and Washington recovered on its own 48. McCullough unlimbered his throwing and two plays later Washington had their third touchdown of the period.

Picks Off Pass

Hungar boosted the ante to 27-0 when he picked off McCulloch's pass in the end zone in the third period.

The spark that burned so brightly during the second period flared up again late in the final period. Tommy McGeorge's interception of an Idaho pass on the Vandal 11 was the spring board, and Mike Scanlan tossed the distance to Earling Johnson for the final Washington score.

Webfoot Gridmen to Be in Charge of Oregon Club Meeting

Members of the University of Oregon football squad will be in charge of Monday's noon luncheon of the Oregon Club at the Eugene Hotel.

President Dick Reed announced that the entire meeting will be conducted by the football Webfoots, who will not only report on the Oregon-OSC game, but will also toss questions at members and provide varied entertainment.

The usual capacity crowd is anticipated.

Plans will also be announced regarding the gigantic civic banquet to be held at McArthur Court in honor of Coach Jim Aiken, his staff and the gridmen in the near future.

Northwestern Clinches Rose Bowl Honors

Wildcats Claw Illinois 20-7

Winners Take Second In Big Nine Chase

EVANSTON, Ill., Nov. 20—(U.P.)—Northwestern's grid speedsters defeated Illinois Saturday, 20 to 7, to take undisputed second place in the Big Nine football race and clinch a January 1 berth in the Rose Bowl as the Western Conference representative.

Only the formality of electing the Wildcats for the Bowl remained. The league's faculty representatives were expected to send in their ballots for Northwestern Saturday night.

Playing before a capacity crowd of 47,000, the Wildcats were unquestioned masters of Illinois and they won the easy way. The triumphs came largely on the ground as Northwestern's Don Burson pitched only two passes. However, one of these went to End Joe Zuravleff for 23 yards and a touchdown.

Passer Tries

It was one of Northwestern's finest games and the fans, recognizing Bowl success for Coach Bob Voigts, in his second year at his alma mater, swarmed from the stands to carry him from the field.

The entire Northwestern line outclassed the Illinois forwards every minute of the game. Illinois gained only 149 yards rushing while Northwestern poured through for 239.

While the Wildcats stayed out of the air except for the two passes, Bernie Kreuger, Illinois passing star, tried his best. Kreuger completed seven out of 18 passes for gains of 65 yards. His best throw of the day picked up only 22 yards to put the ball on the Northwestern two and set up the lone Illinois' touchdown after a 70-yard drive.

Third TD Easy

Northwestern showed its superiority early in the game. The third time the Wildcats got the ball they marched 75 yards in seven plays to score with Aschenbrenner ripping 22 yards for the tally. Their other two touchdowns came in the second period and they were content to rest on their laurels in the second half.

End Chuck Hagmann accounted for the second Northwestern touchdown with a 60-yard jaunt. Peewee Day had intercepted a pass by Kreuger. When he was trapped he flipped the ball to Hagmann who made the score.

The third tally was nearly as easy. Day returned a Dwight Eddleman punt 12 yards to Northwestern's 25. Gasper Perricone picked up two and Burson's pass to Zuravleff did the rest.

Jim Farrar converted on two of his attempts for points after touchdown, but as it turned out he could have missed all three and the Wildcats would have been home safe. Don Maechtle succeeded on his lone try for a conversion.

Trojans Crush Bruins 20-13

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 20 —(U.P.)—A dancing little halfback named Jack Kirby spelled the difference between two traditional football rivals Saturday as Southern California overpowered a fighting University of California at Los Angeles, 20 to 13.

Kirby gave Southern California a one-touchdown lead in the last 38 seconds of the first half when he took a 32-yard pass and ran 28 yards to score against a rejuvenated UCLA team that fought its heart out to remain in the game.

Aside from that one, brilliant 60-yard play, the teams matched touchdown for touchdown before a crowd of 76,577 fans who sat on the edge of their seats in Memorial Coliseum.

USC on March

Little Ray Nagel completed eight of 14 passes for 109 yards for his best performance of the season. But Southern Californa ran up 268 yards on running plays, compared to 96 for UCLA. The Trojans made 19 first downs, to 13 for UCLA.

The huge crowd was left limp by one of the wildest four minutes of play ever seen in the Coliseum, just prior to the end of the first half.

Southern California, held scoreless for the first 26 minutes, marched 80 yards in 12 plays to score. Quarterback Jim Powers and Kirby were the sparkplugs of the drive, as Powers got it rolling deep into UCLA territory with a 25-yard pass to Kirby on the 16.

And it was Powers on a bootleg run over tackle who set up the first score by driving to the one. Kirby went over.

Watson Scores

But UCLA came back full of fire and, with Quarterback Ray Nagel passing, moved 78 yards from the kickoff play to a touchdown. Willis Diffy, little Negro halfback, took a 14-yard pass standing all alone in the end zone for the score.

With 38 seconds of play left, Southern California appeared halted on its 40. But Quarterback Dean Dill, back to pass, sidestepped two tacklers and threw a 32-yard pass to Kirby, standing in the clear on the UCLA 28, and that speedy halfback ran over for the second Southern California touchdown with the clock showing two seconds left.

Both teams came back to score in the third period. Southern California, on straight running plays, marched 66 yards, with Don Doll going over from the five. But UCLA fought back and in six plays got its second touchdown, chiefly on two 20-yard passes from Nagel to End Bill Clement and a 26-yard run by Halfback Ernie Johnson. Bob Watson went over.

Michigan State Mops WSC's Cougars 40-0

EAST LANSING, Mich., Nov. 20 — (U.P.) — Michigan State college chalked up its fourth straight football victory, smothering Washington State 40 to 0 in an intersectional game before 36,045 spectators.

Michigan State, which ranks fourth in the nation on offensive power, rolled up 535 yards and 25 first downs in routing their west coast rivals. Washington State was held to 136 yards and nine first downs.

Michigan States scored three times in the first quarter,, twice in the third period and once again in the final quarter.

Washington State made but one serious threat to score. Late in the first period Halfback Jerry Williams broke away 49 yards to Michigan State's nine, but the Spartans held for downs and themselves unleashed a 97-yard march to score.

The first Spartan marker came within five minutes after the kickoff climaxing an 80-yard downfield march. Fullback LeRoy Crane took it over from the one-yard line.

A fumble on the Washington State 21 by Halfback Don Paul set up Michigan State's second score. Halfback Lynn Chandnois went 14 yards for the touchdown. The third first-period marker resulted from a pass from George Guerre to End Ed Sobczak.

A poor Washington State punt gave Michigan State its fourth score early in the third period. The touchdown resulted from a 33-yard pass from Quarterback Gene Glick to Chandnois.

Moments later Michigan State Center Bob McCurry snared a Washington State pass and ran to the visitors' Guerre drove to the five. On fourth down Chandnois dove over to score.

With reserves dotting the Spartan lineup, Michigan State marched 88 yards to score as the game ended. Halfback Everett Grandelius went over on a 13-yard run.

Villanova Surge Stops SF 46-13

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 20—(U.P.)—Villanova College, a first half sleeping giant, smashed through with six second half touchdowns, five of them in the fourth period, to blot out the University of San Francisco 46-13 before 10,000 at Shibe Park.

Trailing by 13-7 at half-time, Villanova worked hard to spin off the tying touchdown in the third period. Then with unbelievable economy of motion, Villanova scored four touchdowns in the first nine minutes of the final period, and added another with seven seconds left to the game.

Michigan Grabs Big Nine Crown

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Nov. 20 — (U.P.)—Michigan, ever-poised and confident despite being shoved all over the field by a fired-up band of Ohio State Buckeyes, closed the books on its second straight all-victorious season with two rapier-like thrusts for a 13 to 3 triumph.

The victory gave Michigan its second consecutive Big Nine championship.

As 82,754 homecoming fans watched—the greatest crowd to attend a game in Ohio stadium in 20 years—Michigan struck first late in the second period with three long passes for a touchdown, then came through in almost the same manner for their second score in the final quarter.

Ohio's hopes, built up weeklong by pep rallies and fan fests, rose to the heights in the first 25 minutes of play as Ohio scored a quick field goal from 25 yards out.

Nevada Denies Charges Made

RENO, Nev., Nov. 20.—(U.P.)—Coach Joe Sheeketski and members of the Nevada Board of Athletic Control declared in no uncertain terms Saturday that published charges that the Wolfpack threw the Santa Clara football game for Reno gamblers were completely untrue.

A nationally circulated sports newspaper, Sports Week, published a story signed by Don Freeberg which claimed Nevada's surprise 14-0 defeat by the Broncos came as the result of a gambling coup engineered by Reno casino owners.

In a letter to publisher Marty Berg of New York City, prepared by the legal firm of Thatcher, Woodburn and Forman, Nevada athletic officials declared "the University of Nevada athletic department makes a categorical and complete denial of the charges and insinuations contained in the article in your publication."

Sports Week was invited to send an "accredited staff representative" to Reno to learn for himself the conditions which led to Nevada's defeat by Santa Clara at Sacramento Nov. 7.

The letter to Berg listed three primary reasons for Nevada's loss —"the splendid play of Santa Clara," a 35 to 40 mile an hour gale which handicapped Quarterback Stan Heath's passing and injuries to several key players. Nevada officials pointed out that the Wolfpack was essentially a passing team in offensive play.

"Thousands of Nevadans from all over the state were in the stands," the letter pointed out. "Nevada had an undefeated record to protect. The squad, its coach and the athletic department had everything to gain by a victory over Santa Clara, including the possibility of an invitation to play in one of the major post season bowl games."

Nevada fans, extremely irate over the charges, pointed out that a Sugar Bowl official said after the Santa Clara game that the Wolfpack had "muffed" a near certain invitation to the New Orleans classic.

Just as mad were the owners of Reno gambling casinos said by the article under fire to have several Nevada gridders on their club payrolls.

Pitt Victory Upset Of Day in Grid Play

NEW YORK, Nov 20 — (AP) — Michigan, Northwestern, Minnesota, Oregon and California all won football games, leaving determination of the Rose Bowl rivals to a vote of faculty representatives Monday.

But no matter how the faculty fathers decide on their $250,000 question, they will not be able to cause any more consternation than was turned in on the playing fields Saturday.

Once mighty Pittsburgh revolted against its recent occupation of football doormat and defeated Penn State, 7 to 0. Nick Bolkovac intercepted a Penn State pass late in the fourth quarter and hiked 23 yards for the touchdown that probably cost the losers a $100,000 bowl bid.

Pitt's neighbor, Carnegie Tech also won. Tech defeated Grove City, a rival Pennsylvania college, 7 to 0, for its first win since 1942.

George Washington spilled Georgetown, 13 to 7, for the first decision over its cross-town rival in a series that started in 1890.

Louisiana State, battered six times in eight starts, licked its bruises with a 26 to 6 upset of Alabama.

Those surprises were mixed among the games on a nationwide schedule that also saw a national collegiate record set for punt returns and a guard suffer a broken ankle while trying to score and win quick delivery of an automobile.

The punt return mark was set by Lee Nalley of Vanderbilt, who brought back two kicks for 16 yards. That brought his season's total to 623, seven more than the old mark. Vandy beat Maryland, 34 to 0.

It was Hays McKinney of Georgia Tech, who suffered the broken ankle. The lineman had been promised delivery of a car if he scored. When Tech was well on its way to its 54 to 0 win over the Citadel, McKinney became a ball carrier. After several futile tries he suffered the injury.

Michigan took to the air to bat down Ohio State, 13 to 3, and retain the Big Nine championship. Northwestern ground out its 20 to 7 triumph over Illinois for second place while Minnesota pounded Wisconsin, 16 to 0. Purdue swamped Indiana, 39 to 0.

Oklahoma and Southern Methodist also clinched conference titles although the Texas Mustangs still can be tied for the laurels in the Southwest circuit. Southern Methodist again waited until late in the game to subdue Balor, 13 to 6, but Oklahoma started from the kickoff to murder Kansas, 60 to 7.

William & Mary was the major school to accept a bowl bid. The Virginians drubbed North Carolina State, 26 to 6, and will appear in the Delta Bowl at Memphis on Jan. 1. Clemson, another Southern conference power, remained unbeaten with a 42 to 0 conquest of Duquesne and North Carolina stopped Duke, 20 to 0.

With only tradition at stake, Harvard marched to a 20 to 7 verdict over Yale in the grand-daddy of all football rivalries.

Iowa defeated Boston University, 34 to 14; Boston College trimmed St. Mary's of California, 19 to 7; Tulane squeaked by Cincinnati, 6 to 0; Michigan State buried Washington State, 40 to 0; and Villanova trounced San Francisco, 46 to 13, in key intersectional games.
